THE END OF BIN LADEN

A dripping, blood-red X over the face of Osama bin Laden is the cover for the May 20, 2011, issue of TIME. Only four times in its publishing history has the magazine chosen to red-X the face of a notorious human being: Adolf Hitler, Saddam Hussein, Abu Mousab al-Zarqawi and now Osama bin Laden. The press is still abuzz over the stunning surprise and speed with which “the world’s #1 terrorist” was hunted and killed last week. When late on Sunday night President Obama announced bin Laden’s death to the nation and world, jubilant crowds quickly amassed outside the White House and in New York City to celebrate the death of the September 11 mastermind. Seal Team 6 celebrates its precision execution of the raid—Pakistan protests violation of its

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

THE SPIRIT FILLED LIFE

The following elements have been suggested to be evidences of the Spirit-filled life:

1. Abiding peace: "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." John 14:27
2. Habitual Victory: "But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Cor. 15:57); "Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place." (1 Cor. 2:14)
3. Supernatural Power: "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." (Acts 1:8)
4. Constant Growth in Christ likeness: "But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord." (2 Cor. 3:18)
5. Manifested Fruits of the Spirit: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law." (Gal. 5:22,23)

Are you experiencing these blessings in your life? Don't compare, don't despair, rather seek Him in prayer!

"Christ has promised the gift of the Holy Spirit to His church, and the promise belongs to us as much as to the first disciples. But like every other promise, it is given on conditions. There are many who believe and profess to claim the Lord's promise; they talk about Christ and about the Holy Spirit, yet receive no benefit. They do not surrender the soul to be guided and controlled by the divine agencies. We cannot use the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is to use us. Through the Spirit God works in His people "to will and to do of His good pleasure." But many will not submit to this. They want to manage themselves. This is why they do not receive the heavenly gift. Only to those who wait humbly upon God, who watch for His guidance and grace, is the Spirit given. The power of God awaits their demand and reception. This promised blessing, claimed by faith, brings all other blessings in its train. It is given according to the riches of the grace of Christ, and He is ready to supply every soul according to the capacity to receive."

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

JAIL MINISTRY \ DO YOU REMEMBER ME?

Some time ago I ministered to a gentleman in the St. Joseph jail. It seemed a rough day for witnessing. Everyone was distracted until a young man who identified himself as William stepped forward, held the bars, and asked me, "What's the Word for today, preacher?"

We prayed and William shared that he wanted to do better in life and not return to jail. He said he was scheduled for release in two weeks. After praying I encouraged William to come and see me in my office as soon as he got out of jail. I told him about the culinary training program at the Opportunity Center, as well as the GED program.

A couple of months passed and I never saw William. I forgot about our encounter and considered him to be yet another inmate who just made promises. Then, one day I happened to go to a cafeteria to purchase lunch. As I was being served, the man who served me said, "You don't remember me, do you? I stared at him and said, "Yes! You are from All Nations Church in Berrien Springs." "No," he replied. I tried a few more guesses, but they were all wrong. Then smiling, he said, "We didn't meet in a church at all. We met in jail." It turned out that William had followed every bit of information that I had shared and was now serving me as a graduate of a culinary program. Isn't God great!!

PRAY

A prayer of praise and thanksgiving for this changed life

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

ANDREWS ACADEMY \ VISITING OUR SCHOOL

Every year AA invites eighth graders to spend a day with them to get a feel for their school. This year 76 eighth-graders lined up to register in the school gymnasium and were welcomed by the AA band. Following registration, everyone entered the chapel for morning worship – the traditional start of every school day. Pastor Alvin Glassford presented the worship thought vividly illustrating the deeper meaning of Isaiah 49:2 “He made my mouth like a sharpened sword, in the shadow of His hand he hid me; he made me into a polished arrow and concealed me in His quiver”. Pastor Glassford was making an arrow as he talked about the details of arrow making. As he cut away at the stick he shared how there may be pain as Jesus polishes us (we are as the “arrow” in the text). But in being polished we can be a much better “arrow” for Him.

After worship, all students went to class. Each teacher had prepared a special classroom experience to give visitors a taste of what that class would be like. After lunch in the commons, there was time to look at class displays, learn what is offered at AA and participate in various sports activities. The day ended with an assembly featuring a slide show of the day, awards, gift certificates and free t-shirts.

We pray that every eight-grader was blessed by their visit. Our prayer is that each young person will choose God, be willing to be “polished” for Him and be an awesome worker for Jesus. And, of course, we would love to have them attend Andrews Academy next year and share their journey with us.

PRAY

That our teens choose to follow Jesus

HOMEBOUND \ TOUCHING LIVES FOR ETERNITY

This is recent story of Homebound Ministry and the story of Jim, an elderly homebound man in my neighborhood. On December 15, 2010, I took Jim and his wife a Christmas cheer basket. An hour flew by as we chatted. Jim and his wife are not members of our

I met Jim's wife and daughter. They embraced me and told me the news that Jim had had a triple surgery. "It's only a matter of time," they said. "He's at the Lakeland Long Term Care facility". Standing in the parking lot, I immediately asked God's blessing for their family and promised to visit church and I am not even sure of their connection with Christianity. But they are human beings, Christ's blood was shed for them and HE had them on HIS mind when HE was on the cross. It was my privilege to serve them.

Well, time passed on. I was out of the country and upon returning home, I was busy fighting jet lag and settling business as usual. On my trip to the credit union on April 14th, him soon. That promise haunted me, until three days later, by God's grace, I made it to Jim's bedside. There were four other people present.

We socialized a bit and then I took Jim's hand into mine. "Jim, this is your neighbor, Marian." I said. "You promised me you'd teach me to putt, so I can beat you one day." He was known to putt in his backyard every chance he could. "Let me see those big blue eyes with a broad smile, so I know you hear me.” Suddenly there was laughter in the room. My request had been granted.

I then read from Steps to Christ on the Privilege of Prayer, page 98 and prayed. The family voiced their appreciation with hugs and thanks as I left the room. That night I remembered Jim in my evening prayers and was assured that God was with Jim and his family on this journey.

The next day, Jim’s wife called me at 9 a.m. Jim had passed away just before midnight. Again she mentioned how comforting my visit was to their family. Hanging up the phone, I thanked God for His grace that prompted me to touch this family for eternity.

In Homebound Ministry I am constantly reminded that we need to share Jesus. God is ALWAYS available for us. Will we be available to serve others?

PRAY

That God will continue to bless the community through this ministry

CALL TO WORSHIP

If we come near to God, he will come near to us.

If we humble ourselves before the Lord, he will lift us up.

For the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, says: "In returning in rest you shall be saved, in quietness and trust shall be your strength."

Let us worship God.

THE WORD

PROVERBS 3:5-8 NIV

Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;

in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.

Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and shun evil.

This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones.

MUSIC ALIVE

MY FATHER'S WORLD

An accomplished athlete, he was tall, muscular and broad-shouldered; a silver-tongued speaker, with magnetic personality; and a skilled musician and accomplished scholar. As a youth, he was fun-loving and mischievous. As a man, he met his death at age 42 on a cruise in Naples, Italy. Yes, this was but one of the extraordinary diversity of hymn writers, Maltbie Babcock (1858-1901). Drawn to his father's world, Babcock often walked on a New York hill with a commanding view of Lake Ontario, and he would say, "I'm going out to see my Father's world." His hymn "This Is My Father's World" (originally 16 verses) is today's hymn of praise, as coupled with the lovely, flowing melody TERRA BEATA (the melody's picturesque name).

MINISTER THROUGH TECHNOLOGY

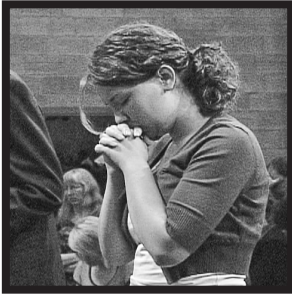

Can you picture yourself ministering through technology? Electronic media is an important part of worship here at Pioneer. From hearing the speaker via the P.A. system to seeing images on the screen, technology is at the heart of everything we do. Making this technology work requires a team of dedicated volunteers—15 each week.

This summer we are looking for new volunteers to join the media team. No experience is needed, but a passion for excellence in ministry is required. If you would like to consider being a camera operator, helping with the audio system or creating Power Point contact:

BLOSSOMLAND 32ND CROP WALK

A WALK FOR HUNGER—TOMORROW, MAY 15

Pioneer Memorial Church is participating in the CROP Hunger Walk and we want to invite you to join our team as a walker, jogger, or as a supporter. The walk is 6.2 miles tomorrow. There is also a 1-mile loop for those who can't walk the entire distance. CROP Hunger Walks help children and families worldwide—and right here in the U.S.—to have food for today, while building for a better tomorrow. Each year some 2 million CROP

Walkers, volunteers, and sponsors put their caring into action, raising approximately $16 million per year to help end hunger and poverty around the world — and in their own communities. Together we can be part of the solution!

You can still join us. Come and register with Christine Wallace at 1:30 PM at the First Congregational United Church of Christ, 2001 Niles Avenue, St. Joseph, Michigan. See you there!

sovereignty—and earth marvels over the United State's relentless and finally successful pursuit of its most-wanted nemesis.

And how is it with earth's Christians? As I watched the jubilation of the crowds, read the editorials and followed the unfolding story, the irony of it all occurred to me—we have found reason to rejoice in the death of another. We party because our enemy has been slain. And who would renounce the strong sense of relief family members of the September 11 victims experienced with the news that the perpetrator of that heinous crime had met his own untimely death? "Justice has been done," was the President's somber pronouncement.

But does God rejoice in the death of Osama bin Laden? King David fled for his life, when his rebel son Absalom lead a coup d'état in Israel to overthrow his father. But days later when the army of the father overpowered the army of the rebel son and Absalom was slain by a commando team, there was no party back at headquarters. Instead the father king wept: "O my son Absalom—my son, my son Absalom—if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son, my son!" (II Samuel 18:33) On hearing the king's loud lamenting, Joab—David's commanding general—burst into the royal chamber with the angry charge that the king's inconsolable weeping was a disgrace to the nation. But was it?

Could it be that David's weeping was a shadowy representation of another Father King? Will God and the universe party when rebel son and fallen angel Lucifer at last suffers eternal death for his ruthless and unrelenting crimes against the kingdom? Or like David, will the Father of us all bow his head in his hands and weep, "If only I could have died in your place?" Will divine love love its enemies, its nemesis enemy, to the very end? Calvary is answer enough, is it not? "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do" (Luke 23:34).

And that is why there will be only one death the universe will ever truly rejoice over throughout eternity: "And they sang a new song . . . 'Worthy is the Lamb who was slain!'" (Revelation 5:9, 12). It is that death, the death of Christ our Savior, that compels us to love even our enemies.

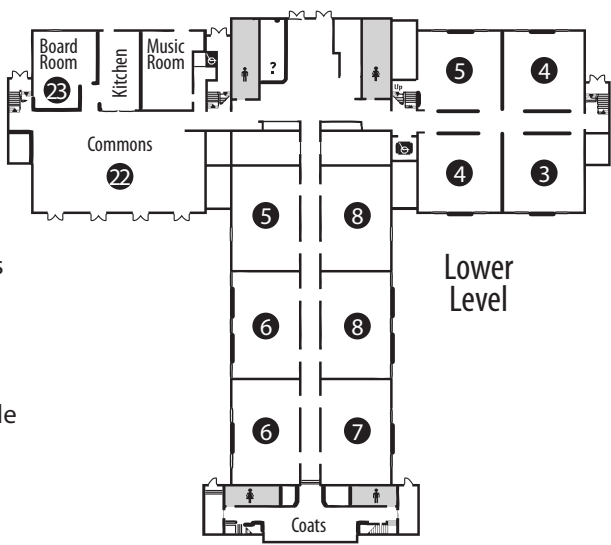

Which is why in the end the only dripping, blood-red X that will matter for any of us, for all of us, is the one atop Calvary. "And they sang a new song."
