WELCOME!

A warm, autumn welcome to all our visiting friends and guests who have come to worship with us this Sabbath. Whether you're an alumnus from out of town or a visitor from across the street, we're glad to welcome you to this worship celebration on this first Sabbath of October. May Christ, the Lord of this congregation, bring to you what it is you most deeply seek and need! We think every worship experience here at Pioneer is a high occasion with Christ—but we quickly agree there's nothing so festal as the fall colors of homecoming weekend, framed by the stately flags of the nations around our campus mall. We hope your experience here in worship will bring a burst of new life and hope in Jesus.

'FRAID OF HEIGHTS?

If you're afraid of heights, don't read any further. But can you imagine people actually doing this for a living? The engineering firm—Wiss (that's not "woos"), Janey, Elostner Associates Inc., from Northbrook, Illinois—has been hired by the National Park Service to provide an inch-by-inch inspection of the Washington Monument in our nation's capital. How much damage did this national treasure sustain in the recent earthquake that shook Virginia and the east coast? To find out on Tuesday, two of the firm's "difficult access team" members—under the watchful eye of Brandon Latham, a ranger from Denali (Mt McKinley) National Park in Alaska, himself an expert at rappelling—crawled out a hatch (unopened for the past 11 years) and climbed within feet of the 555-foot-high pyramid tip of the monument to begin setting

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE THROUGH PRAYER

"So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." -Isaiah 41:10 (NIV)

Sometimes it's easy to think that God has left us all alone. The enemy triumphs however when we believe this. Jesus has promised to never leave us. In this passage in Isaiah, He tells us not to become dismayed because when we earnestly call upon Him, he will strengthen and help us. He will even hold us in the palm of His own hand.

PLAN TO JOIN UNITED PRAYER FROM 7:00-7:20 NIGHTLY, PRIOR
TO NET '11 DOWNLINK

Each night before we watch the Net '11 downlink come and pray for Ron Clouzet, for our church visitors and family, and all those watching the series here and around North America. Meet in back of the Youth Chapel.

HOUSE OF PRAYER

During the month of October, House of Prayer is taking a break so we may enjoy the teachings of Ron Clouzet and the Net 2011 meetings. Just because we aren't meeting for "House of Prayer" doesn't mean that we stop praying. Join us each Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evening at 7 PM in the back of the Youth Chapel for a brief prayer time before the meetings.

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

PROPHECIES DECODED / BE A PART OF THE TEAM

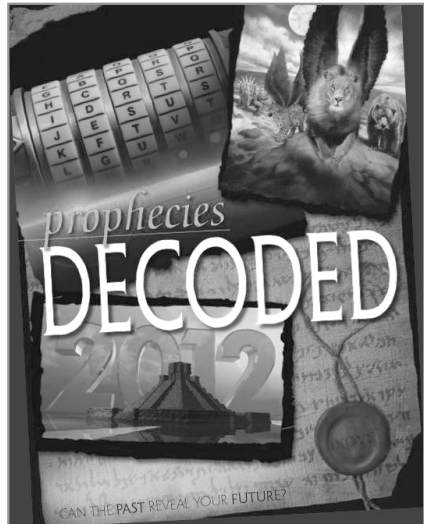

At the time of this reading, Prophecies Decoded will have already begun. I'd like to take a moment to help you understand the kind of preparation that has taken place in order to make this a reality. Handbills have been mailed out. Teams have gone into the community and surrounding areas making personal contacts and invitations. Announcements have gone out to Andrews Academy as well as Andrews University. Posters have been set up all around campus. Students have received special invitations in their dorm mailboxes.

We're thankful for all the volunteers that have been diligently involved. This past Wednesday the team leaders over the volunteers meet together for a special time of prayer, seeking God, and final planning.

God has also been blessing in other areas. For the first time in the history of the church, an evangelistic series will be broadcast on Direct-TV, with an average nightly viewership of 100,000 people. In addition, over 640 churches have signed up to participate as downlink sites.

It's also not too late to be involved. Dozens have signed up to be a part of the Prophecies Decoded team, but you can still be a part and make a difference. You can go to www.pmchurch.com, click on the "Prophecies Decoded" link, and you can select the days you're able to serve.

PRAY

For the thousands upon thousands of people that will be watching every single night

NEIGHBOR TO NEIGHBOR / BEDDING PROGRAM

Limited by the restrictions of travel, many international students arrive at Andrews University minus bulky bedding items that would serve to keep them warm during our bitterly cold Berrien Springs winters. Consequently, Neighbor To Neighbor partners with the Michigan Conference through our International Student Bedding Program to provide some of these much needed items.

Last year we served 50 families distributing 84 sets of dishes and bedding. This year the number has increased significantly and due to high costs we were unable to add the dish sets we did previously. However blankets, sheets, towels, wash cloths and pillows were given out to 68 families representing 118 persons.

Many students have voiced their gratitude and remarked that this has truly been a life-saving gesture. We are pleased that God can use us to bless others and we pray that He will continue to bless this program and provide adequate funding.

PRAY

That our international students will have a blessed new school year

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

AA / COMMUNITY SERVICE DAY

At Andrews Academy we feel that it is important for students to learn to serve in their community. We teach this concept in a very practical way by devoting an entire day to community service projects and also doing various smaller projects throughout the year. Our Community Service Day this year took place on September 22.

Students and staff helped a retired couple in town by cleaning their windows, cutting up firewood for the winter and other odd jobs. They cleaned the grounds at Warren Dunes, the Berrien Springs Courthouse Museum as well as the Berrien County Youth fairgrounds and the area by the town bridge.

They also picked up trash in the woods behind Maplewood and Garland apartments; a project they have done for the past sixteen years. This might seem like a trivial task, however, it has made a noticeable difference in the community. "When we began picking up litter in this area, it took us lots of time and effort. We picked up couches, beds, bikes, etc. from the woods. By maintaining the woods each year people are now less prone to throw trash there. Some might consider picking up garbage an unpleasant task, but as stewards of God's earth, it becomes an honor to do this." says teacher Steven Atkins.

"We pray our bit of effort went a long way to demonstrate the philosophy of Andrews Academy and the diligence, maturity and selflessness of its students. God gave us a beautiful day and we were blessed to work in the community."

PRAY

That service to others will be a part of our daily lives up a rope system and equipment for “daredevil” inspection. But lightning in the area drove them back inside. Hanging 555 feet above the concrete mall below with lightning striking nearby—it’s the grist of nightmares for some of us land lubbers!

But what’s the Washington Monument in comparison to the teetering edge from which the global economy may yet plunge? Having just returned from Paris where the euro still reigns, I was surprised that Bloomberg’s business editors this week challenged the brave face that Germany and France are putting on regarding Greece’s financial meltdown: “They’re all in denial. Almost no one believes Greece is solvent, not with an economy—and tax receipts—shrinking and debt ballooning to 180 percent of gross domestic product, a burden that no amount of belt-tightening will make bearable. The question now is whether Europe can arrange a controlled and orderly default, or will allow a Greek bankruptcy that is chaotic and destructive to the global economy.” (<http://www.bloomberg.com/news/2011-09-28/road-map-to-prepackaged-orderly-default-that-keeps-greece-in-euro-view.html>)

We can be glad God isn’t afraid of heights! “Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand” (Isaiah 41:10). Hanging on for dear life to a fraying rope, or holding on for dear life to His right hand—the choice is a no-brainer. And yet, by the billions there are human beings who know their ropes but not His hand.

We must reach them now. Which is why each year on Alumni Sabbath we receive a special offering for Student Missions at Andrews University and Pioneer Memorial Church. Last March more than 285 responded to an appeal to “go into all the world” on behalf of Christ our Lord—to find those who have yet to find God’s hand and know His heart. Today would you please help us help these students help Christ reach this world in this generation? The Student Missions offering envelope in today’s worship bulletin is our opportunity to defy the heights from which this world will yet fall—and to send forth our young and our best on mission for the soon-coming Jesus. God occupies the heights—we have no reason to fear—and every reason to act now on His and their behalf. Thank you.

CALL TO WORSHIP

People ask, "Who is this one you worship?"

He is the Messiah, the one whose word calls creation into being.

People ask, "Who is this one you worship?"

He is the Messiah, the one whose wisdom is truth, whose desire is peace, whose life is justice and mercy.

THE WORD

JOHN 2:1-5, NIV

On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

"Woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come."

His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

MUSIC ALIVE

THE POWER

The author of "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name", Englishman Edward Perronet, was of Swiss Huguenot lineage. He worked ardently for Methodism to the point of suffering physical abuse occasioned by his preaching. Preacher John Wesley wrote that Perronet "was thrown down and rolled in mud and mire". In the American Revolution's shadow appeared the first stanza of the hymn. The Seventh-day Adventist Hymnal

no. 229 uses four of its seven stanzas. Those four stanzas were headed with titles in this order: Angels, Sinners of Every Age, Sinners of Every Nation, Ourselves. So this hymn starts with angels and sweeps over time and the face of the earth, finally bringing the message home concerning "ourselves." What will we do with the message of this royal Lord?

MOMMY & ME

Mothers/female guardians with young children are invited to join us weekly on Tuesdays from 10 - 11:30 AM in the PMC Nursery. Join us for songs, stories, crafts, and exercise. If you would like to occasionally volunteer for this program, please e-mail Christine Wallace at health@pmchurch.org.

THANK YOU

For the many prayers on behalf of Dorothy we thank you. The visits and the beautiful chrysanthemum plant given by Pioneer church are greatly appreciated.

-Gunter and Dorothy Koch

We are grateful for your expressions of sympathy and love, since the death of Karen's mother, Virginia Oswald, two weeks ago. Her faith and hope were in Jesus, and we thank God for the gift of her nearly 93 years. With you we eagerly await the return of our Savior and that joyful Resurrection Morning. MOTHER-DAUGHTER RETREAT

October 7-9, 2011

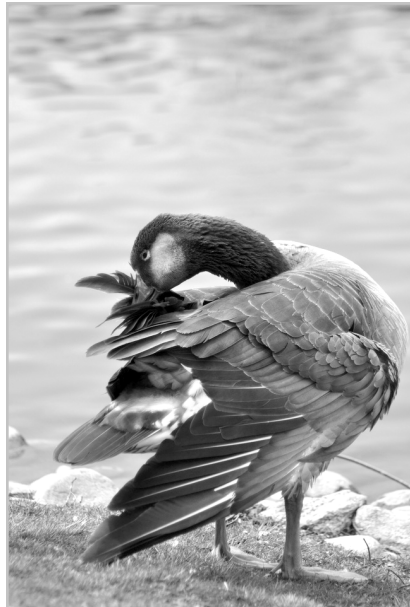

Camp Au Sable, Grayling, Mich.

Each year, the Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists offers a Mother-Daughter Retreat for mothers and their daughters ages 3-17. This year's featured speakers are Julie Woolf and her adult daughter, Sarah Canada. There are special age-appropriate break-out sessions, a Sabbath vespers by the campfire (weather permitting), a Saturday evening social with a "spa" theme, and lots of other camp activities to enjoy for mothers and their daughters. Registration is available online at www.misda.org. If you are attending the Mother Daughter retreat in October, we will be putting together children's disaster kits during our weekend together. Often children in disasters don't know how to express their feelings and are traumatized by the loss of their things. The Children's Disaster Kits help them cope with the losses they have experienced. Included in those kits are a coloring book, crayons, a story about feelings, and two small toy emergency vehicles. Please bring your offerings with you to the retreat where we will assemble the kits together. The Community Services department will be shipping them to Joplin and other areas on behalf of the Women's Ministries Department.

CAMP AU SABLE WORK BEE

October 9-13

Fall is here at Camp Au Sable, and winter is fast approaching. Camp Au Sable is calling for all volunteers to come have another great week October 9-13, 2011. Projects of all kinds, for all ages, and we also have a couple of big projects that we would like to finish before winter hits. Come help prepare your camp for winter, have fun with others, and receive a heart-full of good feelings, good food, and a restful place to sleep. Email: CAS@misda.org or call Julia Hansen 989-348-5491 to reserve your spot. Looking forward to seeing you soon!

“THE LAST WORD”

FOR PERSONAL / GROUP STUDY

Opening Up:

1. Share what you know about the circumstances of your birth, your mom’s pregnancy, your delivery, or your adoption.
2. What is your natural response when someone shines light into your spiritual darkness? How do you want to react?
3. What would your midnight conversation with Jesus be like?

Reading: John 3:1-36

Reflecting:

1. What kind of a person was Nicodemus? In what ways are you like him?
2. Why did Jesus use the birth metaphor to describe conversion?
3. How would you explain John 3:16 to someone who is hearing it for the first time?
4. Have you been born of water and the Spirit? If you would like to be, please email the pastor (nelson@pmchurch.org).

Reflection / study questions can also be found at www.pmchurch.tv
