WELCOME!

The air is becoming crisp and the glorious colors of fall more vivid as our awesome God provides us with an inspiring seasonal transition. On this hallowed Day, he also offers us a spiritual transition, welcoming us to a vibrant season of worship here in his house. So, on this Sabbath of our mid-semester break here on the campus of Andrews University, let us come before our Maker with hearts that seek salvation. For “there is salvation in no one else...there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12). In praise of that name and in certainty of that truth, we have come to worship.

PROTEST IN THE STREETS

Here in the Fourth Watch blog we examine current trends in this nation or the world that I believe are harbingers of earth's darkest hour (what the ancient Romans called the fourth watch) just before the sunrise of Christ's return. And while these observations and analyses reflect my personal convictions, I am amazed at the ascendancy of voices—secular as well as religious—that are warning of what lies ahead for our civilization.

Take for example the seemingly isolated street protests against Wall Street, that for three weeks now occupied Zuccotti Park in the financial district of New York, railing against corporate greed and economic decline, and blaming US financial institutions and Wall Street for the resultant unemployment. Hundreds have been arrested. But thanks to Twitter and social media sites, the New York protests are

THE VISIBLE & INVISIBLE

“The visible and invisible world are in close contact. Could the veil be lifted, we would see evil angels pressing their darkness around us and working with all their power to deceive and destroy. Wicked men are surrounded, influenced, and aided by evil spirits. The man of faith and prayer has yielded his soul to divine guidance, and angels of God bring to him light and strength from heaven.”

During the month of October, House of Prayer is taking a break so we may enjoy the teachings of Ron Clouzet and the Net 2011 meetings. Just because we aren't meeting for "House of Prayer" doesn't mean that we stop praying. Join us each Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evening at 7 PM in the back of the Youth Chapel for a brief prayer time before the meetings.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES FALL WEEK OF PRAYER / TAKE UP HIS CROSS

Pastor Walter Rogers, of the Harbor of Hope church in Benton Harbor, was the guest speaker for our Fall Week of Prayer in September. Pastor Walter was very dynamic, interesting, and gave faculty and students much to think about.

One thought that really stuck with us was that we don't want to be distracted by all of our blessings, and lose sight of Christ. It was illustrated by a student "blessing" another student with the gift of luggage! The luggage got piled higher and higher, until the student almost dropped all of his blessings. Just before everything fell to the ground, Pastor Walter asked the student to pick up his cross and follow Jesus. It was impossible to hold onto those blessings and pick up the cross at the same time.

According to Pastor Walter, RMES students are like the "rich young ruler", with clothes, a private education, food, and a home to sleep in. Pastor Walter challenged us to use our blessings to go out and do what it takes to follow Jesus and to spread His love to others.

That we will use our blessings to spread God's love

MOMMY AND ME / JOIN US

Are you looking for something FUN and FREE to do with your infant, toddler or preschooler? Mommy and Me at PMC is a special time each Tuesday when kids and their caretakers come together to have fun and build friendships. Each week our team of volunteer leaders (all moms themselves) lead out in songs, story time, crafts, and playtime. Along with this, Christine Wallace, PMC Health Director, leads out in "Fit Kids" each week. It is a great physical outlet for the children especially in the winter months! We also like to encourage a love for nature so whenever possible we integrate outdoor activities and nature walks into our program. Mommy and Me is for Moms (or other female guardians) with children 0-5 years old. We will meet every Tuesday from September 13 - December 6, 2011. After the holiday we will resume January 17 - April 17, 2012. Come join us! You can check us out on Facebook—"Mommy and Me at PMC".

PRAY

That many friendships will be made for eternity through this ministry

But what could morph the Occupy Wall Street protests into an apocalyptic game-changer is the announcement that labor unions are joining the movement. Responding to Twitter calls from Occupy Boston (a sister movement to the New York protests), the Massachusetts Nurses Association is joining the rally. In New York so are the Amalgamated Transit Union, the Transport Workers Union, and the United Federation of Teachers union among others. Is it possible that a nationally diminished labor movement could find new life and impetus in all of this? not unlike the radical street protests in Athens, as Greeks have turned with vengeance on their government and the European Union for their own financial meltdown—and what now appears to be certain national bankruptcy.)

How innocuous are labor unions in a Fourth Watch scenario? In a terse exposé of capitalist excesses, the Bible declares:

“Now listen, you rich people, weep and wail because of the misery that is coming upon you. . . . Your gold and silver are corroded. . . . You have hoarded wealth in the last days. Look! The wages you failed to pay the workmen who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty. You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened yourselves in the day of slaughter. . . . Be patient, then, brothers and sisters, until the Lord’s coming. . . . because the Lord’s coming is near” (James

5:1-8). A day of reckoning is coming for the barons and minions of Wall Street who have made their billions at the expense of the paltry savings and investments of a once unsuspecting public. But could a sympathetic labor movement backlash into a prophetic paradigm shift? These words were in a letter written in 1904: "The trade unions will be the cause of the most terrible violence that has ever been seen among human beings" (Letter 99, 1904). Main street, Wall Street, the street protests may not be so innocuous after all.

My point: the headlines we now live through are not inconsequential to a Fourth Watch mindset, are they?

NOW is the most opportune time you and I may ever have to freely share the everlasting gospel of Christ with people who need him—family members, friends, colleagues. NOW is the church's opportunity to seize the moment, rise up and in the panoply of the Spirit's infilling and hurry to a final civilization with the news of Jesus' soon return. Our friend Ron Clouzet's satellite series, "Prophecies Decoded," to the continent couldn't be timelier (join us this evening at 7:20). Let him, let her who has ears hear. For the rumble we hear may be the tread of an approaching God.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us love our God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind.

Let us love our neighbors as ourselves.

There is no other commandment greater than these.

As God's people, we come together to do what God has commanded.

THE WORD

JOHN 3:13-17 NKJV

No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

FAR IN TIME, YET CLOSE

Today's Worship in Music is characterized by exceptional richness of text, a richness spanning many centuries. German-born author Frederick Lehman (1868-1953) heard some of these words at a campmeeting in a mid-western state. Yet they actually stemmed from a poem, "Hadamut", that Jewish Rabbi Mayer wrote in Aramaic in about 1100 A.D. Quite some time after first hearing them, Lehman, moved to preserve them, sat on an empty lemon box with a scrap of paper and a stub pencil and wrote additional words. Today's version, one of several, includes three stanzas, the final stanza drawing from the rabbi's creative and moving text. Lehman said, "The profound depths of the lines moved [me] to preserve the words for future generations."

“THE LAST WORD” FOR PERSONAL / GROUP STUDY

Opening Up:

1. When you were growing up, who were the people you were told not to associate with?
2. Tell of a time when you had pre-judged someone incorrectly

Reading: John 3:1-36

Reflecting:

1. Do you ever avoid public exposure, like the Samaritan woman? Why?
2. Why does Jesus ignore social barriers? When and why should you?
3. What makes a drink of water so refreshing?
4. How does your answer describe what Jesus offers to you?
5. How can you share his water with someone else? Whom do you know who's thirsty?

Reflection / study questions can also be found at www.pmchurch.tv
