WELCOME!

On this first Sabbath of November we extend our warmest welcome to you. As the leaves continue to fall, we invite you to take time and thank God for the things He has rained down on us. May your hearts be filled with His abiding Spirit, and may you leave with the peace and blessing you are seeking. Visitors and out-of-town guests are invited to enjoy a home-cooked vegetarian meal following second service in the PMC Commons.

THE FOURTH WATCH

A PREDICTION

Let me be quick to paraphrase the words of Amos, "I am not a prophet, nor the son of a prophet" (see Amos 7:14). Truth is, living in the 24/7 news cycle of these tumultuous times, it doesn't require mega-doses of prescience to make the following prediction here in this Fourth Watch blog.

The unraveling this week of the much-heralded (last week)"resolution" to the European Union's intractable Greece crisis has given new meaning to the "tragedy-comedy" genres of theater the ancient Greeks gave to the world. Greek prime minister George Papandreou announced on Monday a national referendum next year to decide whether Greece would accept last week's eleventh hour EU bail-out offer. European leaders were stunned. One Irish commentator (perhaps reflecting Ireland's own precarious financial

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

GOD'S SPIRIT NEEDED IN THE LAST DAYS

CHOOSING THE ROAD LESS TRAVELLED

"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I,
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference."

—Robert Frost / The Road Not Taken

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding.
In all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He shall direct your path." Proverbs 3:5, 6

GOD'S SPIRIT NEEDED IN THE LAST DAYS

"In immediate connection with the scenes of the great day of God, the Lord by the prophet Joel has promised a special manifestation of His Spirit. Joel 2:28. This prophecy received a partial fulfillment in the outpouring of the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost; but it will reach its full accomplishment in the manifestation of divine grace which will attend the closing work of the gospel. The great controversy between good and evil will increase in intensity to the very close of time. In all ages the wrath of Satan has been manifested against the church of Christ; and God has bestowed His grace and Spirit upon His people to strengthen them to stand against the power of the evil one." EGW, Great Controversy, ix

UNITED PRAYER

Prayer groups meet Mondays from 12:30-1:30 PM and Thursdays from 5-6 PM in the Rose Chapel.

HOUSE OF PRAYER

WEDNESDAY @ 7 PM, SANCTUARY

Jesus lived a life of prayer on this earth. Fused with the Holy Spirit of God, He was empowered for ministry, for worship, and for hard times. At House of Prayer we are studying the Gospel of Matthew. Together we will journey through the life of Christ to discover who Jesus really was and is today. Come join us to receive a fresh vision of Christ this year and join in on a collective conversation with God that will empower your prayer life!

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

“YES” / YOUTH REACHING OUT

I love the 3-letter word - “yes.” It is a powerful word and sadly often replaced by “ya” or “sure” – yes is so much more passionate and certain than its cousin words. Go ahead... say it – “yes.”

It is a “yes” with all its passion and certainty that the youth leadership team is stressing to our young people. Everything we do is aimed at bringing yes’s from our young people – yes’s for using their Bibles, yes’s for having Jesus in every part of their lives, yes’s for reaching others with salvation.*

One area this takes place is on our S.erving O.ther Y.outh (S.O.Y.) team – that takes our young people to other churches to share their gifts and testimonies. Allowing young people the opportunity to grow by sharing, to be challenged in their growth, and to invite others to grow. During September, in a trip to the Fairplain Adventist Church, our young people shared what Jesus had been doing in their lives. During the worship service, Marena Escobar, gave her testimony of Jesus giving her a second chance, praying that her message would make a difference. Also during the worship service, Allie Trine told of her spiritual journey and God using a gift of writing stories to reach her own heart. Her prayer was that others would know the interest and passion God has for reaching us and then pouring Himself through us.

Through Sabbath School, in vespers, in home group Bible studies, and in S.O.Y., God is working to have a passionate and very certain group of “yes” young people.

* These are three of our four core values in youth ministry.

VOLUNTEERS:

We are looking for adult ministry partners who live in this community and would be interested in being part of our youth ministry team including Youth S.S. – Let us know, we would love to have you.

PRAY

That we will get yes’s for Jesus

PRIMARY 2 SS / WHERE WE LEARN BY DOING

Primary II Sabbath School serves energetic second grade children. When studying the story of Jonah, children sleep in a boat. The story of Paul and Silas comes alive as children are chained to one another and sing in prison. Little kings in regal costumes and crowns declare what they are looking for in a queen, and Queen Esthers line up to imagine how they would help King Ahasuerus and the mighty empire of Persia. Samson, stomping away from God, (left, right, left right), turns around in repentance, and walks back.

In addition, learning through doing includes singing, crafts and stories. Each week the mission story features international children who are active role models for God. Children are grouped in table families, and remain in the classroom for two years. Fathers and mothers are encouraged to observe.

The classroom is a training ground for teens and young adult leaders who are learning by doing and will soon serve in Korea, Africa, the Caribbean Islands, and the United States.

That God blesses our creativity in the classroom

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES / HIS LOVE IS EVERYWHERE!

Our youngest students were on a fieldtrip to Stover's and the Andrews University Dairy. Like all 5 and 6 year olds, they were delighted to see the grapes growing on the vines, thrilled to pick a juicy apple from the tree, and shrieked and giggled when the little calves ate grain from their hands in the barn.

Any teacher at any school could take their students on this fieldtrip. So why is this special?

The difference is Jesus. RMES students, even though they have been in school for just a few weeks, know that all of these things are gifts to them from God. They know that the grape seeds contain a whole new vine. They know that the apple is healthy and delicious to eat. They know all of these things because they are constantly reminded that Jesus loves each student.

I am so glad that my children can attend RMES, where they are always reminded about God's never ending, always present (even in the calf barn), kind of love!

PRAY

That we will see that God's love is everywhere

survival) observed: “The date of that [referendum] vote is as unclear as any intricate political calculations behind Prime Minister Papandreu’s decision to call it, or even whether he informed the Franco-German neo-axis powers before announcing it. Nor is it obvious what the precise implications for Europe might be, other than perfectly hideous. Chaotic hardly seems an adequate adjective. The Greeks have unleashed pandemonium, and if there is any hope remaining in Pandora’s box this time around, you’d want the Hubble Telescope to locate it.” (<http://www.belfasttelegraph.co.uk/opinion/columnists/this-is-no-return-to-ancient-greek-democracy-16071942.html#ixzz1cYe9vpXV>)

In all fairness, the EU-Greece drama is matched only by our own government’s political theater played out in Washington’s “tragic comedy” efforts to stanch America’s financial hemorrhaging. Truth is—the entire world teeters on the razor edge of economic collapse.

And that is the Fourth Watch prediction of this blog—that the “new normal” for our national and global economy will be accelerating uncertainty that will terminate in irreversible ruin, the collapse of our civilization. I.e., the second law of thermodynamics will prove true economically—we will move from a state of equilibrium to an irreversible state of entropy and collapse. But such a prediction is hardly rocket science. So why make it?

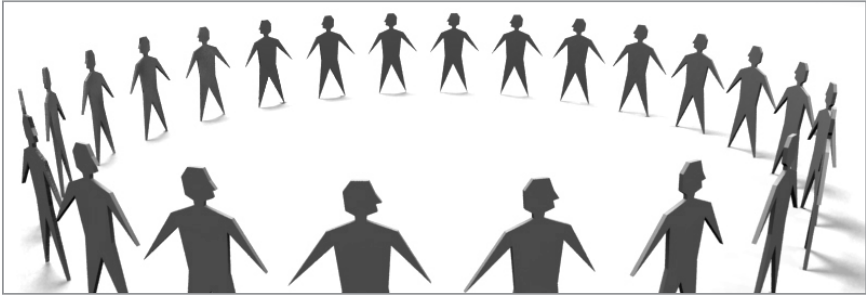

Because I fear for my church. I fear that the indomitable pluck and inbred optimism of the American spirit will temper our apocalyptic awareness and shackle our Adventist sensitivities. I fear that like the five foolish virgins of Jesus’ parable we will drowsily murmur that there is surely more time that must pass before our “second advent” hopes need awaken. I fear the following prediction: “Transgression has almost reached its limit. Confusion fills the world, and a great terror is soon to come upon human beings. The end is very near. We who know the truth should be preparing for what is soon to break upon the world as an overwhelming surprise [read “sudden”]. . . . Are we as a people asleep? Oh, if the young men and young women in our institutions [read “Andrews University”] . . . could only discern the signs of the times, what a change would be seen in them!” (8T 28, emphasis supplied)

Then what shall we do? The soon-coming Christ makes this invitation: “Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me” (Revelation 3:20 NRSV). Now is the most opportune time we have left to “share a meal as friends” (NLT) with our Savior. Now is the only time we have left to make a personal friendship with God our highest priority. (How? Go here and I’ll share the answer with you: <http://media.pmchurch.org/media/2011-10-29.mp4.1>) Put it off, and like the EU and Greece, I fear it will become the “tragic comedy” of too little, too late.

SMALL GROUP HUDDLE

ALL INVITED / NOVEMBER 14

Small groups change lives. They were an integral part of the early church structure. Members ministering to each other, using their spiritual gifts. They were also a place where evangelism could take place as people watched a loving & compassionate community in action.

So what makes a small group thrive? Is it the leader? Do they possess some special characteristic that determines the success of a group? Or are there some behaviors of a group that make a difference? Is there a correlation between time spent preparing for a small group study and group growth? Do relational issues make a difference? i.e.: spending time together outside the meeting. What about outreach? Does it make a difference if your group has a burden for those who are not saved?

A study has just recently been completed where 50 churches small groups were evaluated. As it turns out there were 4 factors that influenced small group growth. They might surprise you. I know they did me.

If you are a small group leader OR member of a small group we want to share these 4 growth factors with you. We welcome your input and discussion. At a large church like PMC, we need small groups to be successful, so our congregation will be connecting, discipling and evangelizing.

Join us Monday, November 14, at 5:30 PM for soup and supper in the PMC Commons. Help our congregation get the most out of small groups. Call or email to reserve your place smallgroups@pmchurch.org or 471-3972.

360 SURVEY

HELP US MEASURE OUR MISSIONAL AND EVANGELISTIC TEMPERATURE

Organizations have a tendency to slow down and lose focus. This is especially true of large organizations that have been around for some time. At Pioneer Memorial Church we want to do everything in our power to avoid that from happening. In fact, our cause is clear--transforming this generation to serve Christ in the local Seventh-day Adventist Church and in the world. We need your help to make this a reality, though. To that end the Pioneer pastors and evangelism council are asking you to be a part of a survey that will help us to become more missional focused and to accomplish what we've been called to do.

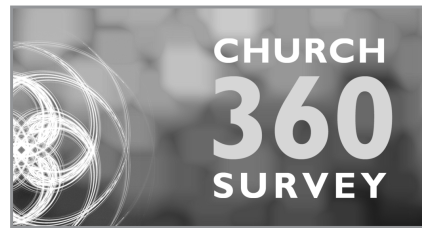

Your help is vital to accomplishing that mission.

Here's what we're looking to do. We'd like at least four hundred people to be involved in this survey. The more people take it, the more accurate the results will be. From there, the evangelism council will convene to debrief based upon the results and try to wrestle with what we're hearing. The good news is that the survey is completely anonymous. We want everyone who takes it to be as open and honest as possible.

The survey just takes about twenty minutes to complete, but we know it will make a lasting difference for the kingdom of God as we seek to make this a better place. To take the survey, go to www.pmchurch.org and click on the Church 360 link. The link will just be open for about two weeks so there's no time to waste. Take a moment as soon as possible and let us know how we're doing. By the way, when you take the survey, feel free to forward it to any other member of this church that you know. We'd appreciate it.

God bless you and thank you for being a part of the team.

CALL TO WORSHIP

God's love has been poured into hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

Where the spirit of the Lord is there is freedom.

As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the children of God.

The Spirit itself gives witness to our spirit, that we are the children of God.

THE WORD

JOHN 8:31-36 NKJV

Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

They answered Him, "We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can You say, 'You will be made free'?"

Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin. And a slave does not abide in the house forever, but a son abides forever. Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

MUSIC ALIVE

LOVELESS, LOVE, LOVELY

How many words using "love" can you fit into a meaningful sentence? The words "My song is love unknown" begin the text of hymn no. 188 (offertory). Taken in context, the essence becomes clear in part through two other words including "love": "My song is love unknown, / My Savior's love to me, / Love to the loveless shown, / That they might lovely be. /

O who am I that for my sake / My Lord should take frail flesh and die?" What a difference the continuation of that text makes! Today we hear a melody other than that to which this text is attached in the SDA Hymnal, but to which these words are sometimes sung. The noble melody called RHOSYMEDRE is a wonderfully broad platform upon which these words can rest.

FALL BACK

Just a reminder to set your clocks back one hour tonight before going to bed.

WE MOURN

Today we mourn with three families. Helen Olson, long time PMC member died on Friday, October 28. She was 103 years old. A memorial service will be held at 4 PM on Sabbath, November 12 here at PMC. Rose Marie Knott, wife of David and mother of Ronald, died on Sunday, October 30. Her funeral service was held here at Pioneer on Thursday, November 3. Esther Melnechuk and Lori Partee are mourning the death of William Melnechuk also on Sunday, October 30. With all these families, we are looking forward to that great wake up morning. "Even so, come Lord Jesus."

JUNIOR I PROGRAM

The Junior I vespers program will meet today at 4:30 to 8 PM in the Junior I Sabbath School room for a hayride to the farm where they will have a program.

CITRUS FRUIT

Andrews Academy's Citrus Fruit program is once again offering tree-ripened oranges and grapefruit for special order throughout the winter. To order fruit for November 14 pickup, call the academy fruit line (471-6544) any time by tomorrow, November 6. The pickup date is Monday, November 14, 3-6:45 PM in the Andrews Academy gymnasium. To have your name placed on the mailing list, please leave your name and address on the Andrews Academy fruit line (471-6544). For more information call the Andrews Academy office (471-3138).

CLASSICAL SEMINARY

Monday, November 7, at 7 PM there will be a free concert given by the students, staff, faculty and friends of the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. Organized by Tom Shepherd and the New Testament Department, the concert will take place in the Seminary Chapel. A light reception will follow.

Ongoing Programs

September 2011 - April 2012

WEEKLY EXERCISE CLASSES

Mondays and Wednesdays from 6-7 PM.

FREE group exercise classes at PMC.

Classes are instructed by certified personal trainers. All fitness levels are welcome to join. We provide dumbbells and exercise mats—all you need is appropriate clothing and shoes.

WALKING CLUB

Sunday, 9:00 AM

FREE Sunday morning walking club walks for 30-60 minutes outdoors (or indoors when the weather is poor). All fitness levels are welcome!

RUNNING CLUB

Sunday, 9:00 AM

FREE Sunday morning running club meets every week, unless travelling to a running event. Suitable for beginners and athletes, with different pace groups.

S.T.E.P. WALKING CLUB

Monday, 8:00 AM

Just for moms. Come join STEP (Spending Time in Exercise & Prayer) on Monday mornings during the school year as we spend time walking and praying for our children. No cost.
