APOCALYPTIC PEANUTS

A few weeks ago Charles Schultz's syndicated Peanuts cartoon went apocalyptic. Frame 1: Lucy to Charlie Brown, "I don't worry about the world coming to an end anymore." Frame 2: She continues, "The way I figure it, the world can't come to an end today because it is already tomorrow in some other part of the world." Frame 3: Lucy turns and asks Charlie Brown, "Isn't that a comforting theory?" Final frame: Lucy smiling but Charlie Brown muttering, "I've never felt so comforted in all my life!"

What do the end of the world and Christmas have to do with each other? One word: Advent. Which being interpreted, of course, means the Messiah's coming. First time. Second time. Both times, "God with us." Advent.

The American lawyer and social activist, William Stringfellow, in his essay, "The Penitential Season,"

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

GOD'S SPIRIT NEEDED IN THE LAST DAYS

"You can do more than pray after you have prayed; but you can never do more than pray until you have prayed."
- A.J. Gordon

USE SONG AGAINST DISCOURAGEMENT

"Song is a weapon that we can always use against discouragement. As we thus open the heart to the sunlight of the Saviour's presence, we shall have health and His blessing." EGW, Ministry of Healing, 254.

UNDER HIS CONTROL

"As we work in connection with the Great Teacher, the mental faculties are developed. The conscience is under divine guidance. Christ takes the entire being under His control.... New rich thoughts come to him [the individual]. Light is given to the intellect, determination to the will, sensitiveness to the conscience, purity to the imagination." EGW, 6 Testimonies, 476, 477.

PRAYER

"Prayer is the opening of the heart to God as to a friend. Not that it is necessary in order to make known to God what we are, but in order to enable us to receive Him. Prayer does not bring God down to us, but brings us up to Him." Steps to Christ p. 94

ASSURANCE THAT GOD HEARS

"When Jesus was upon the earth, He taught His disciples how to pray. He directed them to present their daily needs before God, and to cast all their care upon Him. And the assurance He gave them that their petitions should be heard, is assurance also to us." Steps to Christ p. 94

WOMEN'S MINISTRIES / CARING CARDS MINISTRY

Caring Cards Ministry is a part of PMC Women's Ministries. Presently there are eight basic team members and five members who specifically support the members of our church who are not able to come to our church services. This ministry has been ongoing for over six years and we have enjoyed sharing God's love through cards, notes, and prayers. Any PMC member may call the church office during office hours and request prayer support and, when permitted, specific requests are printed in the weekly PMC Prayer Needs list.

Hundreds of cards are mailed yearly to support those who are ill, have had surgery, lost a loved one, have had an accident, or who are homebound. We also remember in prayer those serving our country in the military. If there is a member you know who falls into any of these categories, please ask them to call the church office and let their church know. If that member is YOU, please do the same. In such a large church many people come and go without knowing that anyone cares. In this little way, we, who have been members here for a while, can show that we are a loving, encouraging church family. May God bless you!

PRAY

That you can be an encouragement to someone today

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES / $1,000 CHALLENGE

The theme at RMES this year is “Less of Me, More of Jesus.” Students are using this to think about how to act towards others and what to do with their resources.

One way that we are putting this theme into action is through our “Buddy” program. Older classes pair up with younger classes, and then students are assigned as buddies. The older students mentor the younger ones by giving their time and energy to them. Younger students can learn from their older buddies, and can feel comfortable knowing that they always have a friend in the school that thinks they’re extra special.

We also make our theme real through a school-wide challenge to raise money for charity. This year

Ruth Murdoch Elementary School students, faculty, and friends were challenged to raise $1,000 for Hope for Humanity.

In some classes, students dutifully donate their change on Fridays during chapel. Other classrooms take offering when the students walk in the door. Whatever method is used, our students have risen to the $1,000 challenge and are taking it seriously. Our Jr. High S.A. officers will take charge of counting these offerings and give a report back to the school on how much has been given.

Whether students are giving to others through coins or through time and attention, our students are making the most of our school theme this year.

PRAY

That students learn to give and love like Jesus

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

OUR JOB / GOING INTO ALL THE WORLD

Is it really possible to fulfill the Great Commission? “Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation” It is if we believe Ephesians 4:11-12. “And his (Christ’s) gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ” What Paul is saying here is that the “work of ministry” (this includes evangelism) is to be done by “the saints” The pastors, evangelists and missionaries just can’t get it done on their own. Paul is saying that ministry, including evangelism is our job.

I don’t know too many people who have come to faith by picking up a Bible and reading it. Most people come to Christ because they have seen the Christian life lived out or they have been loved by a Christian and thereby become aware of the Bible truths. I can’t think of a better place for this to happen than a small group and apparently the early church found this to be the case also.

One of the most exciting small group stories is from Korea. Dr. Paul Yonggi Cho’s church in Seoul has grown to over 500,000. Here’s how it happened. A group of people, meeting together weekly, start to pray for a few non-Christian friends, knowing that they will want these friends to eventually join their small group and come into the church. The prayers start to work. The potential convert will be invited to the group and, surrounded by love, will respond with faith.

It can happen here too. I know it can. Jesus is counting on you!

PRAY

That God will give you a passion for bringing others to Him bemoans the loss of meaning of this Advent season in America: “For all the greeting card and sermonic rhetoric, I do not think that much rejoicing happens around Christmastime, least of all about the coming of the Lord. There is, I notice, a lot of holiday frolicking, but that is not the same as rejoicing.” Why the loss of a deeper joy in this season? “The depletion of a contemporary recognition of the radically political character of Advent [i.e., “that message that in the coming of Jesus Christ, the nations and the principalities and the rulers of the world are judged in the Word of God”] is in large measure occasioned by the illiteracy of church folk about the Second Advent and, in the mainline churches, the persistent quietism of pastors, preachers, and teachers about the Second Coming. . . . Yet it is impossible to apprehend either Advent except through the relationship of both Advents” (in Watch for the Light 104, 105).

Did you catch that? “It is impossible to apprehend either Advent except through the relationship of both Advents.” In all holiday candor, it makes me wonder—not just about Americans, but about those of us who bear the name “Advent-ists.” Have we inadvertently (and no doubt, innocently) abandoned the apocalyptic connection between the two Advents, between Christmas and the Second Coming?

And yet in of this season’s most beloved and lauded of compositions, George Frederick Handel’s The Messiah, the composer powerfully and convincingly weaves together the theme of both Advents in his magnum opus. Isaiah’s grand prophecy—“For unto us a Son is given”—is inseparably joined with the Apocalypse’s mighty Hallelujah chorus—“For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth!” Because it is impossible to comprehend either Advent “except through the relationship of both Advents.” Stringfellow was right.

Then shall we not join him, and this Christmas set ablaze the candle of our joy, not only for the Advent that is past, but also for the One who is coming? “Oh that today the human family could recognize that song [“Glory to God in the highest”]! The declaration then made, the note then struck, will swell to the close of time, and resound to the ends of the earth” (Desire of Ages 48).

“Joy to the world!” indeed—which is no small peanuts.

MEDIA VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Here at PMC we are blessed to be able to run a large-scale media ministry each and every week. This is possible in no small part to the army of dedicated volunteers who donate their time on a weekly basis. Many of these volunteers are students who, despite the long weeks and final exams, still show up Sabbath morning ready and willing to engage in and grow this ministry. Indeed, the energy and creativity of students is a vital part of what makes PMC such a unique place to worship.

So it is times like these, when the students take a much-needed vacation and travel home to their families around the world, that the Media Ministry is in need of extra assistance from the community. Volunteers from within our community are instrumental in keeping this ministry running, and this is never more apparent than when the students are gone. So if you're looking for a place to get actively involved in a church ministry, work with young people, and enter the world of media production, we welcome you to our team. No experience is necessary, only a desire to learn and a willingness to help.

If you're interested in taking part in the Media Ministry here at Pioneer, please contact our Assistant Media Director, Jonathan LaPointe, at "lapointe@pmchurch.tv".

CALL TO WORSHIP

Where is the child who has been born to rule our hearts?

Jesus is among us here. Let us seek him.

Where is the child who has been born to rule our wills?

Jesus is among us here. Let us seek him.

Where is the child who has been born to rule our world?

Jesus is among us here. Let us seek him.

THE WORD

ISAIAH 9:2-7 NIV

The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of deep darkness a light has dawned.

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the greatness of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

MUSIC ALIVE

BETWEEN

Lyricist Mark Lowry has said, "When I was a kid, my hyperactivity was always getting me into trouble. Most people figured I would grow up to be a criminal. A little voice inside me convinced me I was a failure,...I had what's known today as A.D.D. (Attention Deficit Disorder). Back then, they call it B.R.A.T...." Lowry went on to attend a college of a major religious denomination. Singing on a college evangelistic team, he began to use the pause between numbers for spirited monologue. Several years later, Lowry was asked to script a church Christmas play. Lowry wrote, for contemplation between scenes, a series of questions that he would like to ask Mary, Jesus' mother. From this humble beginning come the words for "Mary, Did You Know?"
