JAIL BREAK!

Can you believe this statistic? The April 2 issue of TIME magazine ran a column that reported on prisoner-to-population ratios in some of the developed countries of the world. Japan, for example, has 63 incarcerated individuals for every 100,000 citizens. In Germany there are 90 prisoners for every 100,000. France has 96, South Korea 97 and Britain has 153 prisoners per 100,000 of their population. And what about the United States? In this nation for every 100,000 citizens we have 760 prisoners! Am I the only one that finds that number astounding? In this hemisphere Mexico has 208 per 100,000 and Brazil 242—but we have 760? Someone has calculated that while American has 5% of the world's population, we make up 25% of the world's incarcerated.

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

PAUL GIVES COMFORT

It's in Christ that you, once you heard the truth and believed it (this Message of your salvation), found yourselves home free—signed, sealed, and delivered by the Holy Spirit. This signet from God is the first installment on what's coming, a reminder that we'll get everything God has planned for us, a praising and glorious life.

That's why, when I heard of the solid trust you have in the Master Jesus and your outpouring of love to all the followers of Jesus, I couldn't stop thanking God for you—every time I prayed, I'd think of you and give thanks. But I do more than thank. I ask—ask the God of our Master, Jesus Christ, the God of glory—to make you intelligent and discerning in knowing him personally, your eyes focused and clear, so that you can see exactly what it is he is calling you to do, grasp the immensity of this glorious way of life he has for his followers, oh, the utter extravagance of his work in us who trust him—endless energy, boundless strength!

All this energy issues from Christ: God raised him from death and set him on a throne in deep heaven, in charge of running the universe, everything from galaxies to governments, no name and no power exempt from his rule. And not just for the time being, but forever. He is in charge of it all, has the final word on everything. At the center of all this, Christ rules the church. The church, you see, is not peripheral to the world; the world is peripheral to the church. The church is Christ's body, in which he speaks and acts, by which he fills everything with his presence. Ephesians 1: 13-23

OPERATING EXPENSES

CHILDREN'S RESOURCE CENTER / CATCH A VISION

Join me on Sabbath morning at the Children's Ministry Resource Center. Two teachers are waiting their turn at the copier. Other teachers are looking for supplies or selecting adult or child costumes. A director wants to borrow the Missions DVD and the DVD player. A teacher is staring intently at the wall where we have posted the samples of the different objects that can be made with our newest piece of equipment - a die cutter. Suddenly inspiration dawns and she begins to select several die cuts from the 77 different shapes we have in our collection. She folds the construction paper into fourths, carefully places it on the die cutter, pulls the handle down, and - presto! - four copies. She's making a take-home for the kids to make as a reminder of today's Bible story.

On Sabbath morning the Resource Center is the meeting place for anyone involved with Children's Ministry at PMC or other nearby or far away churches. The staff answer many questions, make connections between people, provide teaching ideas, and try to keep things organized and everyone happy. The Resource Center throbs with energy on Sabbath morning. Stop by to catch a vision of Children's Ministry.

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

of Scripture, the major goal for each baptismal class is to mentor and encourage the development of a personal and regular devotional time with Jesus. We just finished three classes that met each week and now each young person is looking forward to making their decision public. What could make this discipleship journey more effective? Answer: The more we use the bridge between home and church the more effective these young people can be discipled. Here at PMC we want to be involved in the spiritual growth of our young people and support the goals you have as parents for your children. From baptismal class to Sabbath School classes, parents we invite you to be involved in the process your young people are a part of. "This is a unifying experience," explains youth leader Filip Milosavljevic, "kids come back saying-my dad helped me learn this."

"I want to be a prophet..." was the line that came from one young participant in the baptismal class when the subject of spiritual gifts was covered. It was in November that we began our focused baptismal class journey. For the past two years, pastors and youth leaders have dedicated time for small group baptismal classes starting in the fall and finishing just before spring. Besides learning the systematic and life-changing truths

Parents, we are praying for and with you. We will continue to look for opportunities to work with you in making a difference in our young people.

PRAY

That we will all work together to make a difference in our young people

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES / HELPING HOPE FOR HUMANITY

“Less of Me, More of Jesus” is the theme at Ruth Murdoch Elementary School this year. Students and faculty have been encouraged to perform actions that put the emphasis on what others deserve, want, or need. Actions can be small, such as a smile when passing in the hallway or picking up a piece of litter. They can also be more time consuming or require more thought.

Our theme team challenged Ruth Murdoch Elementary School students and faculty to raise $1,000 for Hope for Humanity. This goal was to be met through in-class offering collections or other small projects that could raise money.

Students were enthusiastic about the $1,000 goal and eager to give their pennies to help others in need. One second grade student was excited that he was able to give his hard-earned $12 to offering in class. When asked why he had chosen to give his money to Hope, he said, “There are people that are very poor, and I like to help them!”

In our March assembly, it was announced that we had met – even exceeded – our $1,000 goal! Students clapped and shouted with delight! Meeting this goal is a win for our students, and an even bigger win for those who will benefit from the offerings collected.

PRAY

That our lives will reflect more and more of Jesus

of California system and its state colleges , but $9.6 billion on its prisons. In fact since 1980 California has built a single college campus but 21 prisons—with a per college student cost of $8,667 per year and a per prisoner cost of $45,006 a year. (TIME, 4-2-12, p 18)

Social scientists suggest numerous explanations for the high U.S. incarceration statistics. Some say it is America’s “Wild West culture” and tough legal system. Others note that in reality in 1980 we had only 150 prisoners per 100,000 citizens—so what could be driving the numbers so high? These analysts conclude it must be the ramped up “war on drugs” with its get-tough clean-the-streets policies. Who knows for certain?

What is sure is that in the realm of the spiritual our incarceration rate is 100%. The ancient prophet Isaiah described “the prison house” of sin in which every inhabitant has been “jailed.” But quick on the heels of that abysmal statistic comes his stunning promise of the Messiah whose mission will be “to bring out prisoners from the prison, those who sit in darkness from the prison house” (Isaiah 42:7).

We gather on this glorious spring Sabbath to commemorate (to celebrate) the jail break that Jesus on the cross achieved. No matter the ball and chain of that particular sin that binds you and me (and each of us knows it all too well)—whatever the habit, the guilt, the past that enchains our lives, our minds—the One who died for us at Calvary still declares, “If the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed” (John 8:36). Which is why today we can approach His cross in holy communion with joyful penitence—“penitence” because our hearts grieve and repent of the sins that cost Christ His life and death on our behalf, and “joyful” because there is no greater joy than walking out of the prison house that has held you.

The incarceration rate is 100% for us sinners. But the liberation rate is 100% for those who walk through the open prison door with the Savior. And good news—the cell door is open today!

MUSIC ALIVE

FOR GOD SO LOVED

Is there any passage of Scripture more known, more loved, than John 3:16? Verse 17 adds the inspired acknowledgment of Jesus' mission to save, not to condemn, the world. Perhaps the most widely known choral setting of these verses is that of English composer John Stainer, from his work The Crucifixion, from 1887. Today's choral anthem grows out of Pastor Dwight's preaching this year from John's gospel, the anthem composed in 2012. It muses on two differing aspects of God's love, at first lyric and comforting, then powerful and majestic. It also muses on two aspects of condemnation, at first menacing, then contextualized in the assurance that condemnation was not Jesus' mission. The anthem concludes with an extension of the word "life", suggesting the longevity of "everlasting" life.

THE CLEANSING

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.—John 13:12-17, NIV

THE COMMUNION

In Reading

For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, “Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me.” In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death till He comes.
