WELCOME!

Welcome freshmen and parents! During this next celebrated week, our students—from first graders to freshmen in the academy and university—will begin a new collection of butterflies (in their stomachs). And so it seems right that, as the home congregation for so many of these first-timers, we say a special prayer for their new year entry and their school year success. If you happen to be one of the anxious students mentioned above, here's a promise from God just for you: "I am about to do a brand new thing. See, I have already begun! Do not be afraid, for I am with you". (Isaiah 43:19, 5 NLT) Welcome to Pioneer!

LONDON 2012: GOING HOME A LOSER?

While the roar of the Thirtieth Olympiad is still ringing in our ears, may I muse outside the box for a moment? Wouldn't it be nice if somebody could find a way to bring 10,500 of the world's athletically-inclined young to play together in these 26 sports and 39 disciplines without (and that's the key word) having to end up with so many who go home with no medal at all? But of course, just to be in the Olympic games is a huge accomplishment worthy of personal satisfaction and collective honor. But still, isn't it only human nature to categorize athletes in the "winners" or "losers" column?

I'm thinking of Morgan Uceny—a hometown girl just a few miles south of us in Plymouth, Indiana. As David Woods of the Indianapolis Star put it: "This is the other side of Olympic glory. Half a lifetime of preparation

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

THE POWER TO MULTIPLY

A certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the Lord. And the creditor is coming to take my two sons to be his slaves." So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil." Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbors—empty vessels; do not gather just a few. And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons; then pour it into all those vessels, and set aside the full ones." So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out. Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." So the oil ceased. Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest." 2 Kings 4:1-7 [NKJV]

One day a man arrived from Baal Shalishah. He brought the man of God twenty loaves of fresh-baked bread from the early harvest, along with a few apples from the orchard. Elisha said, "Pass it around to the people to eat." His servant said, "For a hundred men? There's not nearly enough!" Elisha said, "Just go ahead and do it. God says there's plenty." And sure enough, there was. He passed around what he had—they not only ate, but had leftovers. 2 Kings 4:42-44 [The Message]

What talents and gifts do you have? What can you give to God that He can bless and multiply to further His cause and His kingdom?

Please pray:

- Ask God how your talents can be used in the Small Group initiative.
- Ask God if your talents can be used in the Children's Sabbath Schools.
- Ask God how you can help Andrews University and Pioneer Memorial Church become a more welcoming, friendly, accepting, and tolerant oasis for all who live and work here.
- Pray that your time, resources, and hearts will be generous to those in need around you.

YOUTH MINISTRY / A LABORATORY FOR FAITH

During the summer, PMC sponsors evening activities for the youth called “Sun, Fun and Faith,” with the mission of providing fun and a faith to grow. However, often we, as adult leaders, would see young people consumed with other distractions and missing out on growing their faith. With that in mind, we came up with the idea of a backpacking trip in the wilderness – an intentional opportunity to grow in Christ with a group who had similar goals.

The trip proved to be an extreme amount of fun and a laboratory for faith. We had to carry everything we were to use for a week in our backpacks. Every step of the way through the beautiful Porcupine Wilderness in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan challenged us to grow physically and spiritually. It was intense at times—packing up and hiking miles each day, filtering water from creeks, hanging our food in trees away from the bears, rinsing off in creeks, preparing food and taking on the incorrigible attacks from mosquitoes. It was a beautiful time—resting after a vigorous hike, looking out over the mountains and lakes and having lots of one-on-one time with God.

Our theme for the week was “When Champions are Few,” an invitation to respond to God’s call and to be a spiritual leader. Looking back, Melody Collins said, “God gave me a new outlook on life, especially in the area of service and selflessness.” Lily Davis thought the trip served its purpose. “I had a lot of fun but the best part of the trip was the beautiful scenery, having fun with everyone and learning more about Jesus.” The group ended by hiking out of the woods and leading worship, singing and giving testimonies at a local church.

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

FLAG CAMP / CHANGING LIVES

I am convinced more strongly every year I'm involved in Flag Camp that God uses it to change lives.

This year the 4th/5th grade girls group regularly went to the chapel in Buller Hall during their unit time to pray together. This became deeply important to the girls and helped them grow in their relationship with God.

The 4th/5th grade boys became so excited about unity and teamwork that all the counselors would have to say is, TEAM! and they would get in line.

The staff was also amazing this year! I was so proud to see them praying for each other and campers, handling tough situations with love and wisdom, and responsibly caring for their children.

God blessed in every way to grow us all—children and staff. We actually consider this to be our best Flag Camp experience so far.

Thank you, church family, for making Flag Camp possible through your support. Next year's leadership has wonderful plans to further improve Flag Camp, so be "on the lookout" for updates and ways to support.

Thank you, parents, for sharing your children with us this summer. May God richly bless you!

– Scott Cronin

That connections made this summer will continue

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES / SOCIAL & EMOTIONAL LEARNING

Social and emotional learning are big topics right now in education. Blogs, academic research, educational programs, local and national funding programs, and more are dedicated to this relatively new phenomenon.

What is social and emotional learning (SEL)? According to www.CASEL.org, "SEL is a process for helping children and even adults develop the fundamental skills for life effectiveness. SEL teaches the skills we all need to handle ourselves, our relationships, and our work, effectively and ethically."

No wonder this is such a big deal! We want our students to be able to work effectively with others in all situations. To begin a SEL program at Ruth Murdoch Elementary School would be a huge undertaking and require a hefty amount of time, energy, and funding. How could we ever accomplish such a worthwhile task?

There is good news! RMES has been teaching our students social and emotional intelligence for decades.

Our students learn to be socially aware and show empathy through the numerous service projects that are a part of each school day. They learn to work effectively with others and to deal with conflict in a loving, productive way through guidance from teachers and peers, as well as through the biblical principle found in Matthew 18. Students learn to be respectful and kind through everyday interactions with teachers, friends, and our Little Buddy/Big Buddy mentoring program. They learn social acceptance by learning about students from other countries and cultures.

Adventist Education is teaching our students valuable, lifelong lessons they may not learn elsewhere. When the Savior gave us the gift of Adventist Education, He did not make a mistake. God is in control of our schools. What a great blessing to give this gift to our children!

PRAY

A prayer of thanks for the gifts
God has given you

[Morgan is 27], of dreaming, shattered in an instant." For years Morgan, Plymouth High School's #1 alumna and a Cornell University graduate, has been training for this single race, the women's 1,500-meter sprint. Last Friday afternoon it seemed the whole town crowded in front of the school auditorium big screen to cheer their favorite young athlete. And Morgan ran in medal-winning time for 1,100 meters. Only 400 meters left to go. The crowd on both sides of the Atlantic roared. But then, according to the Tribune, "the back kick of a Russian runner struck the inside of Uceny's left knee," and she went down. Hard. In the final lap. The rest of the young women finished the race, while Morgan still down on her knees sobbed into the track. Her race unfinished, her Olympic hope dashed. Is there a medal for "almost"?

"I've never experienced such a heartbreaking moment," she later said on her Facebook page. . . . 'As soon as it happened I knew it was over, and I couldn't control the emotions'" (South Bend Tribune 8-11-12). Who could?

I doubt there's a way to eliminate winners and losers in any athletic game—it's what makes the game a game. "Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize [wins]?" But then Paul offers a stunning word of hope for the "loser" in me: "But we do it to get a crown that will last forever" (2 Corinthians 9:24, 25 NIV). Timeout! Did you catch that "we"? Plural. Because in life's race to the Kingdom there is more than one winner. Many, many, many more! Nobody has to lose!

The secret? "Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith" (Hebrews 12:1-2). You're a new freshman on campus—fix your eyes on Jesus (we'll help you do that here at Pioneer every Sabbath)—and you'll finish the race. You're a longtime runner in this marathon of life—same secret—keep your eyes on Jesus—and you, too, will finish the race. No matter our disastrous spills, if we want Him, the only perfect Runner will race beside us until we cross the finish line, too. Thanks to Him, Morgan and you and I can go home a winner.

CALL TO WORSHIP

We seek to live in Christ that we may die in Christ,

To be one people, of one mind and one spirit,

To be the gospel, alive in the world,

To be good news to those who need good news.

We come together so that we may be sent out

To bring joy to the oppressed, to bring hope to the fearful.

THE WORD

HEBREWS 10:23-25, 37 NIV

Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful.

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another —and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

For, “In just a little while, he who is coming will come and will not delay.”

MUSIC ALIVE

GATHERING AND CONNECTING

The people gathered in the South Sea Islands numbered in the thousands. The year was 1862, and the event? The king was establishing a Christian constitution for the people. Words sung on that occasion were from Isaac Watts’ “Jesus Shall Reign Where’er the Sun”. Commentator Kenneth Osbeck observes, “When this stirring hymn was written . . . the evangelical missionary movement that we know . . . had scarcely begun . . . Isaac Watts was certainly quite prophetic when he paraphrased this text from Psalm 72. It is still considered one of the finest missionary hymns ever written and has been sung in countless native tongues.” Watts’ original included additional stanzas. The stanzas here set a context in which to ponder how to connect our souls through praising God as a community.

MINISTER THROUGH TECHNOLOGY

Can you picture yourself ministering through technology? Electronic media is an important part of worship here at Pioneer. From hearing the speaker via the P.A. system, to seeing images on the screen; technology is at the heart of everything we do. Making this technology work requires a team of dedicated volunteers—15 each week.

This summer, we are looking for new volunteers to join the media team. No experience is needed, but a passion for excellence in ministry is required. If you would like to consider being a camera operator, helping with the audio system, or creating Power Point contact:
