WELCOME!

The air is becoming crisp and the glorious colors of fall more vivid as our awesome God provides us with an inspiring seasonal transition. On this hallowed Day, He also offers us a spiritual transition, welcoming us to a vibrant season of worship here in his house. So, on this Sabbath of our mid-semester break here on the campus of Andrews University, let us come before our Maker with hearts that seek salvation. For “there is salvation in no one else. . . . There is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12). In praise of that Name and in certainty of that truth, we have come to worship. A special welcome to those attending the Association of Adventist Women Conference.

LINCOLN AND THE KOREANS

A few nights ago, Karen and I stood on the portico of the Lincoln Memorial in the nation’s capital. It was this Lincoln who once observed, “It is good policy to never plead what you need not, lest you oblige yourself to prove what you can not.”

The adage may be true for politics, but not for evangelism—that divine calling that compels the community of faith to both plead what it must and prove what it can on behalf of Christ’s evangel. Which is why on the next night the Korean Adventist community gathered across this continent as the KNET 2012 satellite series, “A Future and a Friendship You Can Count On,” was beamed from outside the nation’s capital to North America. Two and half million Koreans live in the United States and Canada—15,000 of them Seventh-day Adventists, who are passionate about reaching their compatriots far

A TESTIMONY

BY ANONYMOUS

When I was a child of three or four, my older brother and sister were baptized. After church there was a Sabbath potluck at a park that had a lake. I found myself watching my older brother and sister playing on a floating dock. They looked like they were having so much fun. When I walked over to join them, I was warned by my sister of the danger.

“Go back to Mom,” she said.

So I waited for my siblings to leave and then went down to the dock to experience the fun for myself. I completely ignored the warning and fell into the water. I did not know how to swim and my Sabbath clothes dragged me down to the bottom. I remember thinking how beautiful the green specks of algae looked in the filtered green light.

A stranger came along and pulled me out, delivering me back to my friends, family, and mother.

This is our condition. We ignore the warnings of our Father and we fall into sin. We have no chance of getting out. Even if we knew how to get out, our clothing makes it impossible.

We are only saved because a stranger came along and pulled us out with strong arms. That stranger is Jesus.

Our story is the same as the Israelites, trapped in the land of Egypt as slaves to sin.

Let us weep and beg for the Lord to save us from our own foolishness.

Please pray:

According to the Revival and Reformation website (<http://www.revivalandreformation.org/>), the first Sabbath of each quarter has been designated as a day of prayer and fasting for the world church.

- Today, pray for freedom from sin (addictions, pride, selfishness, materialism).
- Daily at 7 AM and 7 PM—Pray for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit!
- The comprehensive evangelistic initiative in Indianapolis. A movement is growing as God opens doors we never knew were there. The North American Division Health Ministries Department has also identified Indianapolis as its city of emphasis for 2013. There are major undertakings in the process that need God’s guidance and intervention.
- The Lake Union Conference is in the process of accepting bids for the construction of their new building. Please pray that God will direct them to the right contractor and crew for this important work.
- That each of us continues to reach out to relatives, friends, and neighbors with the message of God’s love and warning.

NEIGHBOR TO NEIGHBOR / BAGS OF LOVE

We are all aware of the drug problems that have ravaged our country. The sale and use of illegal drugs destroy lives, homes, relationships, and dreams. Often innocent children suffer because of the wrong choices their parents have made. When police charge through a house to make a drug bust, frightened children watch their caregiver being arrested and taken away. They are usually removed from the situation by Child Protective Services and leave behind all of their possessions. It's a heartbreaking scene that is repeated more than we can imagine.

"Bags of Love," a program at Neighbor to Neighbor, was created to give comfort to children in this kind of situation. Bags of Love are homemade duffel bags that contain a blanket, pillow, bath towel and washcloth, personal care items, and a stuffed toy or activity appropriate to the age and gender of the child. The items are collected at N2N and assembled by a team of volunteers. Lynn Steen, one of the volunteers, reports that an order for 75 bags was recently filled. Some of the agencies we work with to get these bags to children are the Hope Rescue Mission, Berrien RESA, Safe Shelter Services, Benton Harbor Emergency Shelter, and Hope Ministries.

You can be a part of bringing comfort to a child by donating items for the bags, contributing to Neighbor to Neighbor (line 10 on the tithe and offering envelope) or becoming a Bags of Love volunteer. "Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me" (Matthew 25:40 NKJV).

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

PANAMA TRIP / LIVES CHANGED FOR THE KINGDOM

J.N. Andrews would be very proud and I am sure his Facebook posts would have sounded a lot like those from the Panama Youth Evangelism team this summer. Look at a couple of the lines that were copied and pasted from Facebook:

- I went to Panama to change people's lives, but the person who ended up being changed the most is me.

- Today has made me realize how this Mission Trip has already changed me....My relationship with God has grown SO much greater, and I've witnessed countless miracles.

- I've never felt the Holy Spirit move so much in my life and in the life of the people in my church. PANAMA PARA CRISTO.

Our team of 17 spent those 20 days in the country of Panama. Each of these young people preached 19 sermons in 16 days. God did what He promised, and the final Sabbath we were preaching, there were 136 baptisms.

We are Seventh-day Adventists—and we have been given a message to preach to the world, even other Christians. Our young people took the call this summer and preached.

As William Little, one of our team leaders, points out, "The theme of mission is lives changed...for the kingdom." And as a pastor, I have not seen anything that does as much for young people as an opportunity like this.

This next year (2013) we are working and praying toward organizing two evangelistic trips. And the young people are already asking how they can sign up and what they can do in our local area to be evangelistic.

Thank you for your committed giving to the cause of Jesus and the Kingdom of Heaven.

That we will find evangelistic opportunities

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES / EXPERTS IN THE CLASSROOM

Ruth Murdoch Elementary School has once again teamed up with our PMC Youth Pastor, Micheal Goetz, and Andrews University Seminary student Pastor Ben Martin, for weekly classroom worship. Our school pastors visit classrooms for a fun worship with songs, stories, and prayers. If RMES students have a biblical or spiritual question, the expert is right there and can answer it on the spot. If students have a question when he's not there, they can fill out an "Ask a Pastor" slip and a pastor will answer the question on his next visit.

Pastor classroom worship time is special for all of us. It connects our students and pastors and gives our children a chance to form a relationship with their church as well. These can be valuable steps in forming and maintaining a true friendship with Jesus.

Seventh-day Adventist biblical and spiritual experts in our classrooms for our teachers and students—you can't find it anywhere else!

from their homeland. Thus it was my privilege to stand beside Pastor Don Kim and preach nightly—in English and Korean—to the fifty to sixty downlink sites across the continent.

The truth is we were flying on the updraft of ten thousand prayers! The Korean Christian community is known the world over for its deep commitment to collective praying. Korean houses of worship on any continent open early in the morning and close late at night for prayer meetings. As we were preparing to leave our hotel this Sunday for the drive home, a Korean family stopped by to say good-bye. I apologized to them for having to awaken early to meet us before we left. Iris, a young board certified pediatrician at nearby Johns Hopkins, said not to worry, “We were at prayer meeting this morning at 6.” On a Sunday morning? At 6? Korean Adventists believe in the power of collective prayer!

And it was clear to me that God honored both their intercessions and their evangelism. Anchorage, Toronto, Los Angeles, Atlanta, Boston, New York City, Chicago, and yes, Berrien Springs—as the nightly reports came in from the multiple sites, our team of pastors and church members at the host site in the Baltimore First church rejoiced. This is the first time the Korean Adventist community has undertaken a project like this in North America. (Previous events were uplinked from Seoul and relayed to America.) And so you can sense the enthusiasm in the air at our site with the large white HOPE-TV satellite truck outside—LA reported 40 guests in attendance and Napa called in with news that nine individuals will be baptized this Sabbath (two reports in English I could understand), and our own attendance in Baltimore grew nightly until Sabbath morning’s full house of worship. The Korean women’s choir, Bistori (“The Sound of Light”)—replete with colorful garb and heavenly music, flew in from LA Friday for the final two sessions. It was a God-blessed event—because you prayed.

And so I end this brief report with a personal word of thanksgiving to my home congregation. Your own passion to share the everlasting gospel and your commitment to partner in prayer are two very special gifts for which I continually thank God. And I dream of the day when team after team of young and not-so-young evangelists-to-be are sent out from this campus and congregation to a world that desperately needs to know Jesus. After all, who better to obey His command, “Go into all the world,” than this university named after a missionary, whose bronze arm outside our front door keeps pointing to the lost world that is our mission, too?

HEALTH MINISTRIES / 5K / 10K RUN

On Sunday, September 30, over 300 runners and walkers came out to participate in the 5k/10k "Race to End the Status Quo" on campus. The proceeds from the race went to the Student Missions Department to support student missionaries "ending the status quo." The perfect weather was enjoyed by all the community members, faculty and staff, and students who raced the course. The event was sponsored by the PMC Health & Wellness Department, Nutrition & Wellness Department, and the Alumni Department. Thank you to all who participated and volunteered!

In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.

Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.

I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.

And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

MUSIC ALIVE

BLYTHE, EMMA LOU, MARGARITA

What do these names have in common? All these women composed music for organ, all earned doctorates in music, and all have been in the Berrien Springs area, among other things in common! Two are living, and two served long terms in Seventh-day Adventist higher education: Dr. Margarita Merriman at Atlantic Union College and Dr. Blythe Owen (1898-2000) at Walla Walla

College and Andrews University. Both of them were prolific composers of sacred music, as was the third woman composer, Dr. Emma Lou Diemer. However, Dr. Diemer has composed especially aptly for organ based on many years experience as a church organist. This trio's compositions in worship today represent a small subset of the creativity and quality that women bring to worship music.
