It's our annual joy to welcome on the first weekend of March young musicians from across the Great Lakes states and beyond. In this annual Andrews University Music Festival, each year alternates between choral/orchestra and band/keyboards clinics. We welcome the choir/orchestra to our worship experience today—welcome, too, to academy faculty, parents and friends who've joined them and us this weekend. We're delighted you've come!

A HOME MOVIES GREETING

Have you seen the recent video clips making the rounds? I have. And since this blog is called “The Fourth Watch” (the last watch—3 a.m. to 6 a.m.—in the Roman reckoning of night time) and since this blog’s purpose is to track indicators in the world portending the end of this civilization’s long night and the nearness of Christ’s return—I would like to comment on these forwarded web messages that are circulating.

The forwarded link is to a YouTube recording of Bishop Tony Palmer. (His Anglican affiliation is not clear according to online sources—and he is described at this site as a “personal friend” of Pope Francis.) In the clip Palmer is addressing a recent convocation of evangelical Pentecostal ministers in Texas and makes a passionate appeal for unity between Rome and the Pentecostal

GEE & HAW

"Gee" and "Haw" are voice commands used to tell a draft animal to turn right or left, or to direct sled dogs pulling a sled or sleigh. "Gee" (pronounced jee or yee) means to turn to the off side (away from the driver). "Haw" means to turn to the near side (towards the driver). In the United States the driver of draft animals stands on their left—so animals will turn right to the "Gee" command, and left to the "Haw" command. In England the driver stands to the right of the animals, reversing the relative directions they indicate (i.e., English-trained horses "Haw" to the right, while American-trained teams "Haw" to the left—in both cases towards their driver.)

Many today do not know whether to "Haw" or "Gee," are confused as to what to do, and as a result follow their own desires with no ultimate destination in sight. But God has promised to gather and direct His people—those who wait on Him—by whistling and speaking softly to them.

"The Lord of hosts will visit His flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as His royal horse in the battle. . . . I will whistle for them and gather them, for I will redeem them; And they shall increase as they once increased" (Zechariah 10:3, 8 NKJV).

"Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, 'This is the way, walk in it,' whenever you turn to the right hand or whenever you turn to the left. . . . You will throw [your images of silver, and the ornament of your molded images of gold] away as an unclean thing; You will say to them, 'Get away!' Then He will give the rain for your seed with which you sow the ground, and bread of the increase of the earth" (Isaiah 30:21-23 NKJV).

As we spend time with God in prayer and wait on Him, we will hear the voice behind us directing us in the way we should go, either to the right or the left. We shall throw away every "idol" that comes between us and God or spending time with Him. Then He will send the promised rain and rivers of water (Isaiah 32:2).

—Dennis Hollingsead

to the nations
from afar,
and will whistle
to them from the end of the earth;
surely they shall
come with speed, swiftly."

ADULT SS / SMALL GROUPS WITH A MISSION

Adult Sabbath school classes have many objectives. These small groups emphasize Bible study, fellowship, community outreach, and world missions. When I asked Elizabeth Wilson, superintendent of the Adult Sabbath Schools at PMC, if she knew of one of our Adult Sabbath School classes that had their own specific world mission project, she was quick to reply. She told me the group led by Jerry Horton, the successor of the late Dr. Reger Smith (who led this class for more than two decades), meets in the sanctuary every Sabbath and has a long history of sponsoring missionaries. They are currently sponsoring three seminary students on the campus of Ethiopia Adventist College (EAC) through the school's Gospel Workers Scholarship Fund. About two years ago, Brother Merga, a member of the class, reported on the desperate need in Ethiopia for trained workers who could go into the many unentered areas, and also for workers who could nurture established churches. Horton's class agreed to sponsor some young men at EAC and provide two-thirds of what they need for their school expenses. The students are able to earn the remaining one-third by working on the school compound.

Tsegaye Daniel, Ashenafi, and Yeshiwas Endalkachew greatly appreciate the training they are receiving at Ethiopia Adventist College. Soon they will be on the "front lines" harvesting souls for Jesus, and their friends at Pioneer Memorial Church will have had a part in fulfilling God's mission to reach the world with His message of love. Thank you PMC for extending the mercy and good news of salvation to His people!

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

HEALTH MINISTRY / HEALTH PROFESSIONALS NEEDED

One of the fascinating things we find about the ministry of Jesus is that He was not just a spiritual teacher. His ministry was far more holistic than that. Instead, He sought to also heal the body. He would also meet the needs of the people in a very practical way.

The book Steps to Christ tells us that there were villages in which there were no longer any sick people at all because Jesus healed them all.

Imagine the effect that it would've had on you if you were one of the people whom Jesus healed? How would it have changed your perception of what Jesus was like?

His healing would've certainly validated His claims about being the Messiah and you would've followed Him for the rest of your life.

Now, what if something like that would begin in our own community?

What if we could begin to meet the needs of the people in practical ways?

One of the needs that we've discovered about Berrien Springs is that it actually suffers from generational poverty. So what can we do about that?

On April 6 we would like to have a medical clinic for the community. It will be held at Crossfit Berrien. There will be Medical/Dental check-ups as well as nutrition and other health services.

The church would like to invite our health professionals to join us. Specifically, we're looking for nurses, PAs, and physicians who can help to do practical medical exams, check blood pressure, and also examine blood glucose levels.

If you have questions and want to volunteer, please contact us.

AA / CHECKING OUT OUR SCHOOL

On February 25, Andrews Academy greeted the sixty guests who came for our annual Academy Day. This event is designed to give eighth-grade-students a good look at what we have to offer at our school.

The day began with registration and worship in the gym. Principal Overstreet welcomed the group followed by special music from the orchestra, band, bells, and Silhouettes. Jordanne Howell-Walton, Student Association President, presented the worship thought.

After worship, all students went to classes. Each teacher had a lesson designed for interaction with the visitors. For example, I introduced the eighth-graders to the parts of the human digestive system and then my current biology students quizzed them on the information. Mrs. Sanchez's Spanish class held a bingo game, challenging the group with Spanish words. And in Mrs. Butler's Foods class, students learned how to make a healthy smoothie.

After our guests had attended eight 20-minute classes, they ate lunch in the commons with the freshmen Academy students. The afternoon also included time to look at class displays in the commons, to join in sports activities in the gym and attend a closing assembly.

It was great to have these young people on our campus. We will be praying that God will guide them in the important decision that they are going to make for next year.

movement: "We are living in an incredibly important generation. I believe that God has brought me here to this year's ministers conference in the spirit of Elijah." Palmer then describes this Elijah spirit as the spirit of reconciliation that brings back the fathers to the sons and the sons to the fathers (http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player\_embedded&v=b5TwrG8B3ME).

And then seven minutes into this clip this Protestant bishop brings a personal message from Pope Francis. But in a rather unusual manner, this message is more than a read statement relayed through an emissary. After quoting Jesus' prayer in John 17, "That they may be one as We are One, Father," Palmer directs the convention's attention to the big screen for a seven minute video recording of Pope Francis personally greeting the gathered ministers. I must say it is an amazing piece of personable, warm, collegial greeting from the Pope, given in Italian with English subtitles, apparently filmed (it feels like a home movie) by Bishop Palmer himself, whom the Pope describes, "we've been friends for years." And the message is unmistakably clear. We are separated now because "it is a long road of sins that we all shared in. Who is to blame? We all share the blame. . . . I am nostalgic [yearning], that this separation comes to an end and gives us communion." At one point appealing to the story of the reunion of Joseph with his brothers in Egypt, Francis declares: "But we have to encounter one another as brothers. We must cry together like Joseph did. These tears will unite us. The tears of love. . . . I thank you profoundly for allowing me to speak the language of the heart. . . . And this is a miracle. The miracle of unity has begun. . . . [God] will complete this miracle of unity. I ask you to bless me, and I bless you." (If you want to watch the Pope's message by itself, go to <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dHXKTKYunYo>).

Is there something sinister in Christian brothers seeking unity in Christ? Hardly. But on the basis of the Apocalypse and the Great Controversy I remember that there is predicted before the return of Jesus a global unification that will transcend religious and theological lines. A global, ecumenical, political unification championed by Rome and the United States. "The opinion is gaining ground that, after all, we do not differ so widely upon vital points as has been supposed, and that a little concession on our part will bring us into a better understanding with Rome" (Great Controversy 563).

But there is a line Bishop Palmer did not read from Jesus' prayer for unity: "Sanctify them by Your truth; Your word is truth" (John 17:17). Lasting, meaningful unity in Christ can only be built upon the solid Rock of the Word of God. Which means you and I, whatever our persuasion, must only be persuaded by a "Thus says the Lord." Unity pursued on any other ground will never be unity. No matter how many home movies are played.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things.

Blessed be his glorious name forever;

May his glory fill the whole earth! May people bless themselves by him, and all nations call him blessed!

Let us worship God.

THE WORD

ISAIAH 49:1-6 NIV

Listen to me, you islands; hear this, you distant nations: Before I was born the Lord called me; from my mother's womb he has spoken my name.

He made my mouth like a sharpened sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me into a polished arrow and concealed me in his quiver.

But I said, "I have labored in vain; I have spent my strength for nothing at all. Yet what is due me is in the Lord's hand, and my reward is with my God."

He says: "It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept.

I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth."

THE POWER

In revolution's shadow appeared the first stanza of "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Following this appearance in 1779, six additional stanzas appeared with it the next year. The Seventh-day Adventist Hymnal uses stanzas one, five, six and seven. In an 1787 publication appeared all seven stanzas, of which the hymnal's four stanzas were headed with titles respectively in this order:

Angels, Sinners of Every Age, Sinners of Every Nation, Ourselves. So this hymn starts with angels and sweeps over time and the face of the earth, finally bringing the message home concerning "ourselves." Its author, Englishman Edward Perronet, was of Swiss Huguenot lineage. He worked ardently for Methodism to the point of suffering physical abuse occasioned by his preaching.
