WELCOME!

We throw wide our doors to the newest class of Andrews University students—the distinguished ones we know as the freshmen! All week long this campus has been pulsating with the arrival of this university's newest students. I had the privilege of meeting with their parents Monday morning—and I can assure you they (you) are a new force to be reckoned with here on campus. And so we at Pioneer welcome you to your new spiritual home-away-from-home! We hope you'll find within these four walls a place of strength and power, of joy and peace, of prayer and faith, of God and Spirit. This is Christ's House on campus. And our doors are always open to you. Welcome to your first Sabbath at Pioneer!

FERGUSON AND US/AU

The story of the explosive racial divide of Ferguson, Missouri, (exposed last week by the shooting death of an unarmed African-American teenager by a white policeman) has become the headline of the world. For all of our nation's rhetoric about the liberty and freedom of democracy and the American dream and the pursuit of happiness and equal rights for all citizens, we have become an enigma to the editorial talking heads of the international press. I.e., in their eyes, what we preach we don't practice.

The economic blogging website Zero Hedge carried a piece this week: "Why So Much Anger In Ferguson? 10 Facts About The Massive Economic Gap Between White & Black America." It opens with, "When people feel like they don't have anything else to lose, they are likely to do just about anything." And it concludes with, "I wish that I could be more optimistic

“I WILL DO A NEW THING”

THE RIDE

Disneyland! For many the word Devokes immediate memories of anticipation and fun. Since I grew up in Southern California, there were frequent opportunities to visit Disneyland. My first faint memories of this “land of enchantment” come from soon after it opened in 1955. Although not many rides had been built, I remember Dumbo the flying elephant and the Mad Hatter tea cups. Each ride was a different experience; Dumbo went up in the air in circles and the tea cups could make one dizzy! On subsequent visits I rode on Mr. Toad’s Wild Ride, which was a 2-seat car on a track with sharp turns, scary visuals, and sounds to match. Eventually the Matterhorn was built and just like the other rides, once you were strapped in and started, you couldn’t get off until the end.

In many ways Andrews University is a ride. For students returning, it is somewhat a repeat experience. For others, the ride is a new thing, full of anticipation, excitement, and maybe even a little fear of the unknown. Last Sabbath (August 16th) there was a dedication to God of those faculty and staff responsible for creating a safe, profitable, and spiritual ride. And the weekend before that (August 3rd) was the end of the Andrews University ride for many students, but the beginning of their own ride.

But the ride at Andrews is only a preparation—a dry run—for the ultimate ride. When, during the school year—or like the graduates on August 3—you eventually leave Andrews, you will need to decide if you will ride with God the rest of your life or not; whether you love and trust Him with His purpose for your life. Unlike the Matterhorn, the ride God offers is free, requires only your response to His offer of love to “get on,” and even has a “stop” button. For you see, God’s love neither forces you to get on, nor stay on. If you listen closely this coming school year, you will hear many voices on campus proclaiming the value and excitement of their ride with God. When you make the decision to yield to God’s purposes for your life, be prepared to hang on for the ride of your life!

—Dennis Hollingsead

Here are just a few things God has promised when you ride with Him: Matthew 11:28; Psalm 145:14; Psalm 103:1-5; Malachi 3:10.

“ . . . you shall take delight
in the Lord, and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth. . . ”

N2N / 100 YEARS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

If you have lived in Berrien Springs for several decades, you probably remember the long-awaited day when the Adventist Community Services moved from its crowded conditions on 202 N Main Street to the present location on St. Joseph Avenue. That exciting move was made on Sunday, November 22, 1970, and for the next four months, there was much activity that took place. Joe Iverson and son Jack were busy building shelves and hanging doors in the work area. Others were laying carpet, sanding and painting. At the Open House on March 28, 1971, ladies dressed in uniforms served as guides to take groups through the 6,600 square-foot building which included an all-purpose room for nutrition classes and other health-related events. Nearly 500 guests came. U.S. Congressman Jerry Pattis of California (the only SDA in Congress) was one of the guests, as well as Michigan State Representative Harry Gast, Berrien Springs Mayor Edgar Kesterke, and Forrest Jewell, the Sheriff and Director of Civil Defense for Berrien County.

Later the ministry's name was changed to Neighbor to Neighbor and several additions were made to the original building. At the present time, we have a total of 11,422 square feet that are being extremely well utilized.

On September 18th of this year, Neighbor to Neighbor will be celebrating 100 years of continuous organized community service work in Berrien County by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Plan now to come to the Open House (3 to 6 PM) and see what God has done.

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

FLAG CAMP / MAKING A DIFFERENCE

The other day I joined the FLAG Camp staff at Chan Shun Hall for a pasta dinner. It was the end-of-the-summer banquet provided by the staff for the older age group of campers. The young adult staff did great. I watched our young campers watch and react to our young adult staff. The staff might not have ever caught it, but the campers admired them. I couldn't get over it. Really, I think we have cool, talented, and fun staff. But the younger looked to the older. And I sat there eating my pasta thinking about the likes and dislikes, the language and ideas of these late teenage humans that we call staff that are being imbedded into the younger humans that we call campers. These campers will forever have preferences based on this past summer.

I was struck with the realization that we weren't using up time, or training a pet (although that is a worthwhile endeavor also), we are being used by God to finish the creation process (the devil knows this and gave his effort to distract and confuse).

So I am still sitting there watching everyone, eating my pasta, and I begin feeling very grateful for the team that leads FLAG Camp—and these young people who spend their summer serving. Many a morning I would walk into the camp building, to find the young leaders starting their day spread out around the building with Bible in hand and heads bowed in devotion.

Back at my pasta I was overwhelmed with this gigantic thought that I, our church, our staff, we are all part of this beautiful journey of growing each other to be who God made us to be. And we are all making up this big, important work but it happens in such a way that we are each an important but small part.

By now . . . I finished my pasta . . . and I wanted to go out and make a difference. —Micheal Goetz

God for the FLAG camp staff

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

AA / GOD WILL MAKE A WAY

Exodus 14 paints a picture of the Red Sea and the children of Israel standing before the expanse of water. They saw a giant body of water, and as they turn around to look for another way, they saw Pharaoh and his army coming after them. Where to go?

Growing up in poverty, my attendance at an Adventist school hinged on someone choosing to step in and make a way financially for me. Today, I am convinced that God intentionally placed individuals in my life so that I would be able to afford an Adventist education. I was also blessed to have parents who saw the value of an Adventist education and were persistent about finding a way for their children to attend, knowing God would be faithful.

They took the hardest step—the first step, walking into the Adventist school and completing registration papers. The Israelites were caught between a sea and an army; not until Moses raised his staff and stretched his hand over the sea to divide the water did God perform His miracle.

In the same manner that God made a way for the Israelites, He can also make a way for you. If you've ever questioned: "Should I send my child to this school where I can't see the way?" know that the hardest step to take is simply take the first step.

Are you considering putting your child in an Adventist school? Remember Exodus 15, God will do a new thing in your life! The Lord will make a way in hard times, in what appears to be the impossible! Will you take that first step?

Thank you PMC members for your generous gifts that help make Adventist education possible for many of our youth.

about the future of this country. I wish that I could believe that we won't see a tremendous amount of chaos in the streets of America in the years ahead."

And in between those lines the blogger lists "10 startling facts" about the economic racial divide in this nation: (1) for decades "the unemployment rate for black Americans has consistently been more than twice as high as . . . for white Americans" (July 2014—11.4% v 5.3%); (2) African Americans also have an "underemployment rate" twice as high as white workers (20.5% v 11.8%); (3) a 2012 study reported that "the average white household has 22 times as much wealth as the average black household"; (4) African-American households, 13% of the population, "receive more than 26% of the food stamp benefits"; (5) high school graduation rates reflect the racial divide (82% for white students, 63.5% for black students); (6) Pew Research reports that the "income gap" between the two races "has continued to grow ever since the late 1960s" (the difference in media household incomes growing from around $19,000 to "roughly $27,000" in 2011 [measured in 2012 dollars]); (7) in this nation 12% of white children live in "areas of concentrated poverty" v 45% of African-American children; (8) the percentage of children living in single parent homes is 19.9% for white children, 52.1% for black children; (9) since 1960 the decline of the percentage of adults getting married has been from 74% to 55% for whites and from 61% to 31% for blacks; and (10) "the incarceration rate for black men is more than six times higher than it is for white men." (<http://www.zerohedge.com/news/2014-08-19/why-so-much-anger-ferguson-10-facts-about-massive-economic-gap-between-white-black-a>)

How does the church of Christ live with disparities like this? When Jesus declared that "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:39) is the second half of "no commandment greater than these" (Mark 12:31), what was He trying to tell us? When Desire of Ages pronounces that—"[in the final judgment] their [our] eternal destiny will be determined by what they [we] have done or have neglected to do for Him [Christ] in the person of the poor and the suffering" (637)—what does that tell us about our responsibility in Ferguson or America? Or how about Benton Harbor, twelve miles up the road from us?

What difference will the racially diverse student body of Andrews University make this new school year? How will we respond to this "massive economic gap"? What would Jesus do if He were a student or a faculty member on this campus?

Makes you wonder, doesn't it?

CALL TO WORSHIP

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things.

Blessed be his glorious name forever;

May his glory fill the whole earth! May people bless themselves by him, and all nations call him blessed!

Let us worship God.

THE WORD

DEUTERONOMY 6:4-9 NIV

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts.

Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.

Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

MUSIC ALIVE

A MOTHER'S NOTE

George Beverly Shea was about 30 years old when he drafted a melody that is in today's worship services. But let's have the story from him: "[Mother left] little notes... around the house for her children to read. Her communiques to me were always left on the piano or on my violin case. One Sunday morning, she placed on the piano a little poem.... Mother thought its message beautiful. I did, too....Melody just seemed to form around the words. When I played and sang it through for the first time, mother came in from the kitchen where she had overheard. She wrapped both arms around my shoulders and placed her wet cheek next to mine. In church that morning, I sang for the first time, 'I'd Rather Have Jesus.'"
