ILLUMINATION

Welcome and a happy Sabbath to each and every one. To all who have come to Pioneer Memorial—to every student, every guest, and to every member—we extend a most cordial and warm welcome. We are glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we are grateful that you have come to be with us this morning. It is our hope that you experience the love of Christ this morning and His presence during our worship. Psalm 119:105 says, “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” May God’s virtue surround us all in His Light. His Word lights our paths and guides us as He illuminates our way. —Don Dronen

REFRESHMENTS ON THE MALL

*The energy of a new school year is in full swing when you look out the window and see the campus sidewalks filled with students. Here they enjoy refreshments amidst the flags of their countries following the University Convocation. The positive spirit has been palpable on campus these past two weeks. Join with us as we strive to make this the best school year possible for each student.

After the
BEHEADINGS,
Then What?

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

So when do the beheadings stop? The dark revulsion the world community has expressed over these diabolical, taunting, on-camera killings certainly has not dissuaded the terrorists. Today they butcher captured journalists. And when they run out of journalists, who will be next? Subjugated women, children, and men—both Muslim and Christian—have already been the human fodder for ISIS and its grizzly on-camera executions. Who will be evil's next choice for extermination?

Twice now the black-hooded executioner has taunted by name the President of this nation. But the sobering reality is that the greatest political, military powers on earth are simply unable to staunch this hemorrhage of evil. The other day someone suggested that they simply nuke the living daylights out of the entire region. But what would that solve? And besides, wouldn't such a response be guilty of the same black-hooded sin—butchering the innocent for the sake of making a point?

Jesus identified “the increase of lawlessness” as the contributing factor for the moral collapse of this civilization on the eve of His return (Matthew 24:12). In fact, He warned, “as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man” (v 37). And what were “the days of Noah” like? “Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually” (Genesis 6:5). “Only evil continually.” Perhaps we still have a ways to go.

Which is why “go” is the operative command for the followers of Christ in this global descent into darkness: “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation”—“for I am the Light of the world”—“and you are the light of the world, so let your light shine before others that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven”—“for night is coming when no one can work” (Mark 16:15; John 9:5; Matthew 5:16; John 9:4).

The followers of Christ can wring their hands and rage against the dying of the light. Or they can light a candle and move out into the night of human suffering and need—like medical personnel who have flown to the Ebola-racked nations of Africa to minister to the victims, irrespective of the personal cost—like volunteers at an inner city soup kitchen, who incarnate God's love in the midst of impoverished suffering—like self-supporting evangelists who pay their way to a country they can't pronounce to share a message they know by heart, by simply moving next door to perfect or imperfect strangers.

Let the talking heads plot their political responses to earth's unraveling conditions. We who follow “this same Jesus” have but one response He calls us to make—in His name we must go. ■

4 WAYS TO STAY ACTIVE ON A BUSY SCHEDULE

BY TATIANNA DUNN

Physical inactivity has been identified by many studies as one of the leading causes of death in America. It is directly linked to an increased risk of obesity, diabetes, stroke, cardiovascular disease, and even some cancers. On the other hand, an active lifestyle not only reduces the risk of such conditions, but also provides many benefits! Some of these include improving mood, boosting energy, and facilitating better sleep.

With the advantages of physical activity and the dangers of inactivity so clearly laid out it's a wonder that individuals are not more active! However, it isn't necessarily that simple. There are many barriers that keep people from engaging in more physical activity. One of the biggest of these barriers is time, or rather a lack of time. From school, to work, to everything in between, our days are overflowing with things to do and not enough time to do it. A quick glance at our schedules and to-do lists tells us that we cannot afford to set aside time to be more active. A review of the pros and cons, however, would strongly suggest that we should make exercise more of a priority.

But what about the issue of time? How can one accomplish the seemingly impossible task of fitting physical activity into an already packed day? First, one must realize that it isn't necessary to spend hours in a gym or to even go to a gym at all. Physical activity can take place anywhere and at any time! Here are four tips on staying active on a busy schedule:

❶ MAKE IT SIMPLE!

As previously mentioned, being physically active does not require a gym membership or fancy equipment. Activities such as walking or running, as well as doing exercises using your own bodyweight, are excellent and FREE ways to get your body moving.

② MAKE IT FUN!

Not everyone finds running for miles or lifting weights appealing, and that's okay! There are so many ways to be active. Find activities that YOU enjoy doing. Whether you like playing sports or enjoy hiking in nature, there is something for everyone! Spend less time on the computer and in front of the television, and more time doing active hobbies!

③ MAKE IT SOCIAL!

Even with a busy schedule it is important to make time to spend with family and friends. Why not get your loved ones active as well? Try to incorporate physical activities into your social routine and family time. Finding an exercise partner or joining a class is a great way to spend time with friends as well as to stay accountable!

④ MAKE IT INTENTIONAL!

For many, a large majority of the day is spent at work. In such cases, especially if the job does not require much activity, being intentional is key. If possible, walk or bike to work instead of driving. If you do drive, park farther away from the building. Take the stairs instead of the elevator. While at work make it a point to get up and walk around as much as possible. Try walking to give a message to a co-worker instead of calling or emailing them. You can also arrange walk-and-talk meetings rather than sitting to talk at a table. If phone calls need to be made, walk while you talk. These same ideas can be applied outside of work as well.

Staying active is essential to living an optimally healthy and happy life, even if it is a busy one! Some activity is always better than no activity at all, so get up and get moving! ■

MUSIC ALIVE

FRIEND FOR SINNERS

“The musical quality of his voice stirred and yet quieted an audience. His words, clearly enunciated, could be heard without strain by an immense crowd (often 10,000), even when hushed to a quiet whisper.” In these words a 1920 commentary describes the author of the words of the stirring hymn, “Jesus, What a Friend for Sinners.” Author J. Wilbur Chapman was born at Richmond,

Indiana, but in time he undertook evangelism far and wide. The melody of this hymn in today’s services, HOLY MANNA, is widely-known with several sets of words. An inspiring alternate set of words, “God Who Stretched the Spangled Heavens,” appears as number 536 in the Seventh-day Adventist Hymnal. This is the set of words of choice for Dale Wood’s organ setting, today’s children’s offertory. ■

Thank You

Thank you to the PMC family for the many thoughtful deeds and kindnesses: prayers, visits, calls, flowers, cards and transportation—during my surgery and recovery. I'm home now and continuing to heal. —Barbara Hamlin

Thank you, Dear Church Family, for your tender regard and expressions of sympathy concerning the death of my mother, Lorraine Foll Clark. They meant more than you know and helped to ease my grief. I long for the return of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. —Dee Gilliland

GROW Group Signup Coming

A new season of GROW Groups begins October 1. Don't miss your copy of the new catalog coming on Sabbath, September 13. In it you'll find multiple options of group activities, themes and studies to choose from. For a university campus congregation running on a 24/7 calendar, there will be a group that fits your busy schedule and matches your personal preferences. Plan now to sign up for a new chapter in your walk with Christ.

CAMPOREE REPORT

BY KAYLENE CHADWICK

We're back from the Oshkosh International Pathfinder Camporee. There are so many things I would love to share with you about our Oshkosh experience—the pin trading, the food we ate, the puddles of water in the tents, the evening programs, the Girls of Mercy singing on stage, the Moore brothers creating wonderful music with their string instruments (also on stage), but here are just a couple of highlights.

At 6 o'clock each evening, just before the evening program, there were a total of 250 baptisms. Lake Union's turn was on Wednesday and ten of our Evergreen Pathfinders chose to be baptized. The candidates were honored during the Sabbath morning program and they all released balloons into the air.

Sabbath afternoon was spent taking part in the community parade that took place in the town of Oshkosh. It was a very hot afternoon and the kids left the campground with water bottles in hand as they loaded the buses. The theme for the parade was Health. Our slogan, to complement our name of Evergreen, was "Get Out, Get Active." We held up various signs on this theme, one of which was "Nature: God's Gym." Our Pathfinders did us proud and marched well, even though it was so hot.

Thank you so much for your support of our Pathfinder Club and helping to make this trip a reality. It is now a memory for a lifetime. ■
