WELCOME

to Pioneer

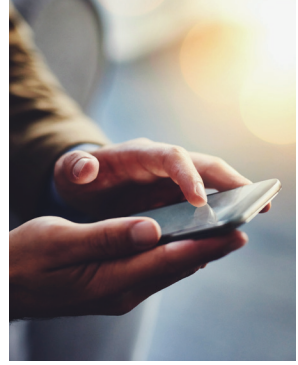

Each week we use this space to welcome you to our faith gathering so – Welcome! Now that I’ve done that I invite you to approach today in a different way. First, take a moment to declutter your heart and mind. Beware, it may take a few moments to get clearer. Second, give yourself permission to expect more and different from today’s worship. Understand this may have more to do with what happens inside of you than what is shared with you from others. Third, WELCOME the Holy Spirit to take residence in you. If the Holy Spirit is new or strange to you, it’s ok. We can start by asking God to knock on your heart’s door in a way that makes it compelling for you to open up. Simple but powerful, try it!

SYNCHRONICITY

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

The Google dictionary defines “synchronicity” as, “the simultaneous occurrence of events that appear significantly related but have no discernible causal connection.” Someone taught me the word twelve months ago, and it has opened my eyes to a dimension of life I never really gave much thought to before.

With my new friend Vincent Dehm preaching his heart out each morning this week for our university Week of Prayer—his theme, “Residence: The Holy Spirit Inside”—it seems the right moment to invite you to brood with me over this notion of synchronicity.

Here’s how Douglas Cooper describes it: “Synchronicity is experienced. Once you have placed yourself in oneness with God and He is living in you by His Spirit, you are connected everywhere you go and everywhere you are (think broadband, Wi-Fi, DSL, 4G cellular network!) with the same great creative super-intelligent [Being] that created and sustains the world and continues to expand the very dimensions of the unfathomably immense universe. ‘Meaningful coincidences’ begin to happen. (A coincidence is God’s way of working a miracle anonymously!).” (Gentle Dove: The Holy Spirit, God’s Greatest Gift 17). What’s that have to do with the Holy Spirit? Much—let me explain.

A year ago God used Helmut Haubeil’s little book, Steps to Personal

Revival: Being Filled with the Holy Spirit, to change my life—simply because it introduced me to a Bible teaching I had never heard or been taught before. The daily baptism of the Holy Spirit. Oh yes, I knew all about the “early rain” and the “latter rain” of the Holy Spirit, even preached a series of sermons on it years ago. But nobody ever told me that the Bible in fact repeatedly teaches the daily baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus Himself taught it: “If you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who [Greek—continually, daily] ask Him!” (Luke 11:13). Paul himself taught the same: “Be filled [Greek—contin- ually, daily] with the Spirit”

(Ephesians
5 : 18) .

And “Walk
[Greek –
continually,
daily] in the Spirit” (Ga-
latians 5:18).
But did they
practice what
they preached?
“Morning by
morning [Jesus]
communicated
with His Father
in heaven,

receiving
from Him daily a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit” (Signs of the Times 11-21-1895).

So a year ago I decided to take these verses seriously and pray each morning
for a fresh baptism of the mighty Third Person of the Godhead. And as I just said, my life has not been the same since.

Synchronicity? It began happening everywhere. Little and not so little “coincidences” (God’s anonymous miracles, as Cooper put it) that not only caught me by surprise, but were direct responses it seemed to the very prayers I was praying. Synchronicity—what God Himself promises: “Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking I will hear” (Isaiah 65:24). Amazing—God is so engaged in the very details of your life (and mine) that He anticipates our prayers and before we even breathe

them (sometimes even days before),
He initiates a chain of events/circumstances that synchronize themselves
to the very moment we petition His throne . . . or the very moment we pick up the phone . . . or the very moment
we get an email . . . or the very moment
we bump into a stranger . . . or the very moment we look in our wallets . . . or the very moment we are broadsided by a crisis! Synchronicity, “the simultaneous occurrence of events that appear significantly related but have no
discernible causal connection.”

Only you and I now know better—for by faith we can perceive the “discernable causal connection” of the Holy Spirit!

So every morning I invite you to join me with the humble prayer: “Lord Jesus, please abide with me today,
and let me abide with you.” Which,
of course, is a prayer for the daily
baptism of the Holy Spirit, since the Bible is clear: “And this is how we know that He [Jesus] abides in us:
We know it by the Spirit He gave us” (1 John 3:24). ■

Flower Ministry

BY LLONA CHAPMAN

Imagine the worry that you face as you lay in a hospital bed, unsure of what is wrong or what will happen next. Maybe you are recuperating from surgery and are not sure of the outcome. Then, someone appears at your door with a bouquet of flowers to cheer you up and remind you that you belong to a caring church family who is praying for you.

How would you feel if you just lost someone precious to you and are not sure how you will go on without them? Again, flowers arrive to remind you that your church family cares.

Do you notice the flowers in front of the pulpit each Sabbath? They add color and a sense of reverence to our worship. They show us the beauty of the changing seasons that are all around us, from the first tulips of Spring, the garden full of sunflowers in the Summer, to the bright colors of the mums in the Fall. They remind us that just like the flowers, Christ created us and loves and cares for us.

When Christ created this world, He knew how important the little things in our lives would be. He knew that just like the flowers, each one of us would be unique and beautiful. And that He has a special plan for each of our lives.

Our church uses flowers to remind us that we are a member of God's church family and that He uses us to care for those all around us.

We are looking for two more members to add to our flower committee. If you enjoy working with flowers and can help provide one Sabbath each month for the Sanctuary, please give me a call at 269.471.5417, so that we can talk. It is a very fulfilling way to use the talents that God has given you.

If you have any special occasion such as a birthday or anniversary, contact Llona Chapman if you would like to sponsor the flowers for that Sabbath (same number as above).

I am glad that our church uses flowers to remind us that just like the lilies of the fields, we can put all our trust in a loving Heavenly Father who cares for us. ■

Llona Chapman is one of the leaders for the Flower Ministry.

THE CLEANSING

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them." —John 13:12-17 NIV

In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

MUSIC ALIVE

"HUMBLE BEGINNING: A LEMON BOX"

The first two stanzas of today's Worship in Music / Offertory are by Frederick Lehman (1868-1953). According to the author, "While at campmeeting in a mid-western state, some fifty years ago in [my] early ministry, an evangelist climaxed his message by quoting the last stanza of this song. The profound depths of the lines moved [me] to preserve the words for future generations. Not until [I] had come to California did this urge find fulfillment, . . . One day . . . [I] picked up a scrap of paper and, seated upon an empty lemon box pushed against the wall, with a stub pencil, added the (first) two stanzas and chorus of the song." The third stanza has been credited to a Jewish writer, from approximately one thousand years ago. ■

FINANCIAL FEATURE

MICHIGAN ADVANCE PARTNERS

Did you know there are 188 SDA congregations in Michigan? From time to time some of those churches need some financial assistance to help with needs such as building or repair projects. It's easy to see how a church with a small number of members would find it challenging to cover large building/repair expenses without help. Some of the funds for MAP (Michigan Advanced Partners) are used to cover such costs. By giving generously to today's offering you might have the joy of helping a sister church in our conference.
