WELCOME

to Pioneer

Today we will recognize a significant moment in the history of sharing the gospel and for this community of faith-NET 98. This global event brought together Christians and churches to proclaim the good news. It reminded me of this passage from an old text called Acts of Apostles.

"The Lord in His wisdom has arranged that by means of the close relationship that should be maintained by all believers, Christian shall be united to Christian and church to church. Thus the human instrumentality will be enabled to cooperate with the divine. Every agency will be subordinate to the Holy Spirit, and all the believers will be united in an organized and well-directed effort to give to the world the glad tidings of the grace of God" (pg 164).

As we look ahead may the Holy Spirit bind us to focus our vision on going to all the world with a message of hope. Welcome and accept the invitation to share the gospel!

COULD THIS BE THE DREAM COME TRUE?

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

In a few hours, the leaders of our faith community will gather in historic Battle Creek, Michigan, for the Annual Council of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. For months both the official and unofficial church websites have been hotly debating the matter of unity and administrative control within this faith community. Far-reaching decisions will be made at Battle Creek.

But could it be that Heaven itself awaits an even more critical decision—the decision of spiritual leaders to demonstrate to an on-looking church and world the nature of Christ-like leadership at every level of the church?

On January 5, 1903, around noon in St Helena, California, Ellen White, one of the founders of this church and a divinely appointed and inspired messenger of God, sat down at her desk to write. Below in its entirety is a letter she wrote to the leadership in Battle Creek. Could it be what she was shown was in fact what might even yet transpire in Battle Creek right now?

To the Battle Creek Church

One day at noon I was writing of the work that might have been done at the last General Conference if the men in positions of trust had followed the will and way of God. Those who have had great light have not walked in the light. The meeting was closed, and the break was not made. Men did not humble themselves before the Lord as they should have done, and the Holy Spirit was not imparted.

I had written thus far when I lost consciousness, and I seemed to be witnessing a scene in Battle Creek.

We were assembled in the auditorium of the Tabernacle. Prayer was offered, a hymn was sung, and prayer was again offered. Most earnest supplication was made to God. The meeting was marked by the presence of the Holy Spirit. The work went deep, and some present were weeping aloud.

One arose from his bowed position and said that in the past he had not been in union with certain ones and had felt no love for them, but that now he saw himself as he was. With great solemnity he repeated the message to the Laodicean church: "'Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing.' In my self-sufficiency this is just the way I felt," he said. "And knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.' I now see that this is my condition. My eyes are opened. My spirit has been hard and unjust. I thought myself righteous, but my heart is broken, and I see my need of the precious counsel of the One who has searched me through and through. Oh, how gracious and compassionate and loving are the words, 'I counsel thee to buy of Me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.'" Revelation 3:17, 18.

The speaker turned to those who had been praying, and said: "We have something to do. We must confess our sins, and humble our hearts before God." He made heartbroken confessions and then stepped up to several of the brethren, one after another, and extended his hand, asking for-their sins.

There was rejoicing such as never before had been heard in the Tabernacle.

Then I aroused from my unconsciousness, and for a while could not think where I was. My pen was still in my hand. The words were spoken to me: "This might have givenness. Those to whom he spoke sprang to their feet, making confession and asking forgiveness, and they fell upon one another's necks, weeping. The spirit of confession spread through the entire congregation. It was a Pentecostal season. God's praises were sung, and far into the night, until nearly morning, the work was carried on.

The following words were often repeated, with clear distinctness: "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me." Verses 19, 20.

No one seemed to be too proud to make heartfelt confession, and those who led in this work were the ones who had influence, but had not before had courage to confess been. All this the Lord was waiting to do for His people. All heaven was waiting to be gracious." I thought of where we might have been had thorough work been done at the last General Conference, and agony of disappointment came over me as I realized that what I had witnessed was not a reality. (Testimonies to the Church 8:104-106)

Could it be what she was shown was in fact what might even yet transpire in Battle Creek right now? Could it be that what "might have been" might even yet become what is now?

Then let us join with brothers and sisters across the face of this earth to earnestly petition God to turn this "might have been" into the very spiritual transformation every leader and member longs for. For without such revival, how can this remnant community ever fulfill her apocalyptic mission? ■

BY RODLIE ORTIZ

It's on people's minds. Millions of books have been sold—too often with the truth left behind. Social media is filled with people sharing and re-sharing conspiracy theories about it. As ongoing wars rage across the world, and hurricanes, and tornadoes and floods rock the planet on a regular basis, people around the globe are asking, "Are these the last days?"

Starting Friday, Oct. 19, during The Appearing, we'll explore that topic by studying what the Bible has to say about the Second Coming of Christ. In addition, you'll take a closer look at the ancient prophecies of the Bible and piece together a startling but undeniable picture of last-day events that may come as a surprise to many people.

This series, hosted by Voice of Prophecy Speaker/Director Shawn Boonstra, will take a documentary-style, Bible-based approach to this topic.

This series will address questions such as:

- What does the Bible say about the battle of Armageddon?
- Did the Bible predict the storms, wars and political unrest we see today?
- What will it actually be like to experience the Appearing of Jesus?

- What does the Bible say about a "secret rapture"?
- What are the signs that point to the Appearing?
- What will heaven really be like?

Pioneer Memorial Church is thrilled to be hosting this series. The Appearing will involve both documentary-style presentations by Shawn Boonstra, and live elements that I'll be facilitating.

All are welcome to attend this free event.

"Each session highlights key Bible passages that dispel many of today's most popular myths about the last day, and then reveals a future of hope," said Boonstra.

Topics will include: "A Planet in Upheaval," "The Abomination of Desolation," "The Appearing," "Prophecy Interrupted," and "The Battle of Armageddon." The Appearing begins Friday, Oct. 19, at 7:30 PM in the PMC Youth Chapel.

You may register to attend on-site during this free event, by calling 269.471.3543, or by visiting www.Appearing.org/berriensprings. ■

TECHNOLOGY IN MINISTRY: IT JUST MAKES SENSE

BY RICHARD PARKE

There's no question that Pioneer's call to Media Ministry is stronger than ever! We've gone from door-to-door ministry and literature mailings to the addition of satellite, and now Internet delivery systems. On this, the 20th anniversary of Net 98, we reflect on the unique calling Pioneer has to Media Ministry, both locally and across the globe.

I was a student at Andrews Academy when the Next Millennium Seminars came to town. In some way, I think this sparked my interest for technology and media. I am invested now in the Media Ministry here at Pioneer because of its focus on media evangelism. To this day I still feel the pull to use technology to spread the love of God.

Although many things have changed, Pioneer's mission of outreach remains the same. In 1998 the Internet was just slowly starting to take shape and the infrastructure to send large amounts of data to homes wasn't yet viable. The advancement of technology has allowed us to connect with larger audiences than ever before.

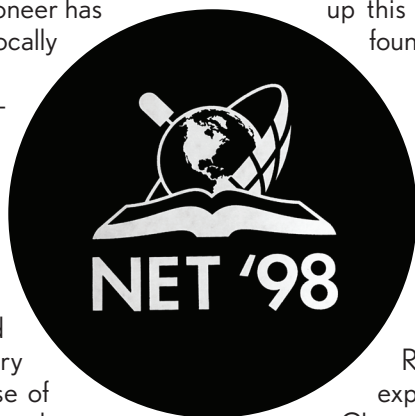

Our website live stream continues to be popular, but the most significant increase comes through Facebook. Our online community chat creates a space for viewers to interact with our host, whereby we receive multiple weekly requests for prayer. During a recent weekly Facebook Live experience, one of our viewers, Anthony A. posted,

"What amazing praise music, it must be rolling into the throne room!" Carina V. asked for "prayers for healing between a mother and older daughter." And Cynthia B. asked for us to pray for them financially. "We are struggling to keep our home and I'm so fearful," Cynthia writes. By opening up this forum, viewers have found a way to connect.

Our New Perceptions television ministry has its widest reach ever as we continue to broadcast on stations like 3ABN, and multiple online outlets such as Vimeo, YouTube, and Roku. We have also expanded through Hope Channel into markets in Fiji, India, and Romania. All this is part of the media outreach evangelism that Pioneer supports.

Net 98 helped shape our focus today. We are thankful for God's call to our unique mission and press forward into the future with a renewed heart for media evangelism. ■

Richard Parke is the director of Media Ministries here at PMC.

MUSIC ALIVE

"MUSIC DIRECTION FOR NET '98"

Twenty years later, these excerpts from the official Net '98 music philosophy statement, adopted early in the planning process, still bear significance and importance. This statement established a context of "seeking to illuminate . . . timeless truths concerning God's character in service to the vibrant proclamation of the Word." Further, ". . . the music of Net '98 . . . will seek the best vital musical offerings in a carefully-chosen blend of contemporary and time-affirmed styles, in the effort to encourage sustainable commitment and church growth among its hearers." The statement affirmed evident directness of expression and "static-free" message communication. It concluded, "All of the music of Net '98 is to point toward the ultimate message of this satellite event: to communicate the timeless beauty of character of the eternal God in a special revelation for hearers of this time." ■

PMC OPERATING EXPENSE

Pastor Jim and Vera Hoffer shared that, as newlyweds, they rented a basement apartment from Pastor and Mrs. Eric B. Hare, the famous missionaries to Burma. All was well until the Hoffers awoke on their first morning in the apartment. There was a scream from Vera. The sink was full of roaches! Sadly, they went upstairs to ask their deposit be returned. When Mrs. Hare heard that, she said: "My dear, you will never make a missionary." She was mistaken! Not many years later the Hoffers went overseas as missionaries. Satan has "roaches" that sneak into our lives. These "roaches" try to convince us that giving an offering is not important. Yet, your offering today goes toward our church budget, which allows for us to be a strong presence in our community.
