WELCOME

to Pioneer

Our guest preacher today is John Peckham, professor of Theology and Christian Philosophy at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary here. I have come to admire this bright, humble and gracious man, who as both consummate scholar and prolific writer has blessed my own life and ministry. His Reader's Choice best-seller, The Love of God: A Canonical Model (IVP 2015), is not only comprehensive and convincing—it will stir your soul. And just this week I received his newest book, Theodicy of Love: Cosmic Conflict and the Problem of Evil (Baker Academic 2018). I thank God for thinkers like John in our faith community. His parents, Ernie and Karen Peckham (pastor for years in Indiana), are friends of mine and worship with us today. John and Brenda, his nurse wife, and son Joel, their 7-year-old pride and joy, are members of our Pioneer Family. May God bless us all this Sabbath!

OF WINNERS & LOSERS

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

Guess what. Politics isn't the only realm preoccupied with winners and losers. So is Scripture. As it turns out, on this morning after the midterm elections across the nation, my summer journey through the Apocalypse ended. Looking back now I must admit, Revelation really is all about winners and losers!

Here's a short list of them compiled just this morning:

• God wins. The triumph of the Lamb of God on Calvary (repeated and reiterated throughout this revealing) is the crimson heart of the divine forever triumph. Over and over again the strong assurance that "though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the ruler yet" (Maltbie Babcock) vibrates through the book, and crescendos in the mighty Hallelujah chorus of Revelation 19: "Hallelujah! For the Lord God the Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory" (19:6-7). No wonder the angelic throngs shouted their praise to Christ our Savior at His inauguration: "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" (5:12). God wins!

• Satan loses. Hands down, big time the "biggest loser" in the Apocalypse is our constant arch nemesis and foe: ". . . but he was defeated .

. . . the great dragon . . . that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world" (12:8-9). Loser! But let's not taunt him yet. For the divine Voice warns us: "But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath ["filled with fury" NIV], because he knows that his time is short!" (12:12). Nevertheless make no mistake about it, the ending to this brutal cosmic war, “the great controversy,” is unequivocal: “. . . and the devil who had deceived them [and us] was thrown into the lake of fire” (20:10).

All the heartache, pain, suffering and death he has inflicted upon us one day will be avenged (6:9-11). Satan loses!

•The seven-headed sea beast, the two-horned earth beast, the seven-headed scarlet beast, the prostitute who rides the scarlet beast, and Babylon lose.

I.e., the satanic trinity’s reign of terror just before the collapse of history will be crushed by the returning Christ—defeated, obliterated forever and ever. As the Apocalypse loudly pronounces: “They will make war on the Lamb, and the Lamb will conquer them, for he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called and chosen and faithful” (17:14). And who are these who conquer with the Lamb?

•The Bride wins. The wildly glad tidings that peal through Revelation is that the Bride of Christ—and in this book the church of Jesus is distinguished through a series of monikers: the servants of Jesus Christ (1:1), those who overcome (chapters 2-3), the 144,000 (7:1-8), the innumerable “great multitude” of the saved (7:9-10), the remnant of the woman’s offspring (12:17), the saints (13:10), those who “keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus” (14:12), “those who had conquered the beast and its image” (15:2), the “called and chosen and faithful” (17:14), “My people” (18:4), the Bride of the Lamb (19:7), the priests and kings of God (1:6, 5:10, 20:6), and the New Jerusalem (21:9-10)—at long last the Bride of Christ wins! And to “roar of many waters and the sound of mighty peals of thunder”, the Bride—the people of God robed in “fine linen, bright and pure” (19:8)—takes her place at the marriage supper table of the Lamb (19:6-9). She wins because He won!

I plan to be there—how about you? Too preposterous, too prideful an ambition and prayer? Not at all. Never forget this Book of winners and losers ends with the divine secret to winning: “He who testifies to these things says, ‘Surely I am coming soon.’ Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen” (22:20-21).

The Bible’s last words: Lord Jesus . . . grace . . . Amen. You win! ■

MUSIC ALIVE

"ALLELUIA!"

"Alleluia!" rings out in today's instrumental worship music. The word is Latin, from the Hebrew "hallelujah" meaning "praise ye the Lord." This radiant word appears in Psalms 111 to 113 and 115 to 117, as well as in several verses of Revelation 19 as the cry in heaven "of a great multitude." In common usage, the word is focused particularly on the celebration of Christ's resurrection. By stark contrast, many local churches omit the word in the weeks leading to their celebration of Christ's resurrection. This practice can serve to underscore the joy of the word once it emerges after weeks of waiting. But many other churches would welcome this ebullient word throughout the year. Alfred Reed's "Alleluia! Laudamus Te" expresses the word instrumentally. ■

*UNDER THE ROOF:
Capturing the Heart of PMC*

BY JOSÉ BOURGET

Take a moment and google “the art of making a tapestry”. You’ll find a really informative video explaining the history and process of this centuries-old art form. Interestingly, it is more than a beautiful display of colors and patterns; it intends to tell a story. The storyteller is the weaver who guides each strand through the skillful and patient work of crafting, line by line, an intelligent and inspiring snapshot of history.

RENOVATE
heart & house

PIONEER MEMORIAL CHURCH

Question: if we step back for a moment to see the picture of the spiritual vitality at Pioneer Memorial Church, what would we see? Would a pattern emerge? Could you see the skill and intentionality of a Master Weaver?

We are launching a series entitled, “Under the Roof: Capturing the Heart of PMC”. At first, we will get to see individual strands, a close up of Immanuel—the many ways the Spirit is weaving its way through the life of individuals, families, and the community. Each week, as the colorful strands build on each other, a pattern emerges. Maybe you already know what the picture will look like, so don't spoil it for the rest of us!

The stories will come from the various ministry teams that serve year round. You may not know this, but we do have a strong pulse driving this faith community. For example, here is a partial snapshot of the lifelines that are crafting the tapestry of Pioneer's mission on average on a weekly basis:

- 6 Elders
- 120 Volunteers for Sabbath School's birth - 14 years old.
- 26 Deacons
- 6 Traffic Volunteers
- 20 Media Ministry Volunteer Specialists
- 23 Adventurer leaders
- 20 Pathfinder leaders
- 38 Hospitality Volunteers

- 35 Collegiate and Adult Sabbath School Leaders
- 16 Youth Sabbath School Leaders
- 40 Grow Groups

Let's be clear: this is a partial snapshot. There are dozens of more ministry teams that are pulsating with the heart of God each week. Stats are great, right? Sure, but they lack the beauty and intricacies of a handmade tapestry. Stats don't tell us about the people—the distinctiveness of names, the answered prayers and divine appointments only made possible with the artistry of the Master Weaver at work. I'm confident that the tapestry of Pioneer is a beautiful picture. But let's take a closer look at the uniqueness, creativity, and intentionality that the Spirit is moving through our lives in this campus community.

Do you have a Pioneer story to share about how God impacted your life or the life of someone you know? Email us at undertheroof@pmchurch.org and one of our story scouts will come to capture your story. We want to retell the creative and compassionate work that God is doing in your life. In our retelling, we will see how the heart of God is moving in us and through us.

I wonder if the art of tapestry is what Auntie Ellen (an endearing way of referencing Ellen G. White) was imagining when penning the following line: "Every human being is to work with his/her life thread, weaving it into the fabric to help complete the pattern." (6T 115.1) I'm on the edge of my seat as we take a closer look at the tapestry that makes up the heart of Pioneer.

WORLD BUDGET (ANNUAL SACRIFICE)

Dale Walters tells this story: "As a small child, I was taught to tithe. My parents gave me offerings to give for Sabbath School and I gave it. During my early college years I was impressed that I needed to give offerings. "One year I found out that I was going to get a small raise. I thought—'I'm living just fine on what I'm making now. I will give 2% of my gross income for offerings.' I finished college debt free and with several thousand dollars in the bank. I have continued this plan my whole life. God has truly blessed just as He said He would.
