LEND ME YOUR HOPE FOR A WHILE

Neil T. Anderson in his book Victory Over the Darkness relates this poem, both poignant and anonymous:

*Lend me your hope for a while,
I seem to have misplaced mine.
Lost and hopeless feelings accompany me daily. . .*

You are invited to an Open House for the Agriculture Education Center at Andrews University today—located at the site of the former dairy. Come and see what is already happening at the Center and what is planned for the future. Agriculture in Adventist higher education is alive and well!

Thank You!

To My Pioneer Memorial Family—I want to thank you for the beautiful bouquet of flowers sent to me following my surgery. I appreciate all of your thoughts and prayers. Please continue to pray for me. —Judy Schalk

Traffic Ministry

Volunteers are needed to commit to one Sabbath a month to help with the flow of traffic during services. If interested or for more info call, text, or email Derrill at 732.379.1300 or legoh@andrews.edu

Youth Missions Trip —Honduras

SEPT 29 • 11:00 AM

BULLER HALL, RM 108, ANDREWS UNIVERSITY

Join the PMC Youth Missions team going to Honduras from December 12-23 to volunteer at the Hogar de Ninos (children's home) operated by REACH International. The team will be conducting a day camp for about 125 children so energetic, creative team members are needed. Volunteers will need to cover their own costs including airfare. If you love children and want to make a positive difference in their lives, contact Glenn Russell (glenn@andrews.edu). For more information come to the orientation meeting.
