THE PUGWASH FACTOR

HOW TO TURN
MINGLE INTO MISSION

I'M GLAD YOU'RE HERE

"Heaven is a ceaseless approaching to God through Christ," declares Ellen G. White in Desire of Ages (p. 331). It was God's plan from the beginning to "be with us." By the time we read the book of Revelation, God's dream is fully realized.

The Good News is that this reality of "approaching God" starts right now as you and I gather together today to hear God's Word and pray for the strength to follow Him. It was also God's plan that we would live as a community for the sake of showing Him to the world. We grow better together in Christ. We are not meant to walk alone. As we worship the Lord together today, let's make sure we notice one another and tell someone next to us: "I'm glad that you are here. Welcome."

PEDALING THIS LABOR DAY?

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

The Journal of the American Medical Association published research this Tuesday that might be of particular interest to those of us planning on some Labor Day biking. If the report had simply stated that biking accidents are on the rise, who'd be surprised, given the increased number of bikers of all ages across the country (the result of what some are calling "the Lance Armstrong effect"). But thanks to the celebrity crashes this year of rock star Bono, 55, injured while biking in New York City, and Secretary of State John Kerry, 71, breaking his femur while enjoying a ride in France, researchers are sitting up and taking notice.

According to urologist Benjamin Breyer, lead author of this study and researcher at University of California (San Francisco), "the biggest spike [of bicycle accidents] is an increase in the proportion of injured riders over age 45"—i.e. GenXer and Boomer bicyclists (USA Today 9-2-15). And perhaps not surprisingly male riders dominate the statistics (many suffering urethral damage from their accident). Data collected by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission from 100 emergency rooms across the nation (comparing 1998-1999 with 2012-2013) indicate: bike injuries rose from 96 to 123 per 100,000 adults (28% increase); hospitalizations resulting from injuries jumped from 5.1 to 11.2 per 100,000 adults (120% increase); and the "share of injuries occurring in people older than age 45 increased from 23% to 42%" with hospitalizations of this older group increasing from 39% to 65%.

The statistical point? If you're male and over the youthful age of 45 and you ride a bike, be careful. In fact be careful whoever you are!

BIKER, WALKER, DRIVER—WHOEVER WE ARE AND
WHATEVER OUR MEANS OF TRANSPORTATION, THE
GOOD NEWS OF LABOR
DAY FOR ME IS THE QUIET
ASSURANCE THAT WHEN IT COMES TO OUR SALVATION
THE LABOR HAS ALREADY BEEN DONE.

How can we keep safe? "Basic safety precautions are absolutely essential, Breyer says: Wear a helmet and reflective gear, have lights for night riding, and drive defensively" (<http://www.npr.org/sections/health-shots/2015/09/02/436662737/as-more-adults-pedal-their-biking-injuries-and-deaths-are-spiking-too>). Because the good news is that biking remains an exhilarating and effective outdoor exercise sport that's hard to beat for all ages and both genders.

And by the way, if you're a biker in Portland, Oregon, or Madison, Wisconsin, or San Francisco, or Berrien Springs, Michigan—you are blessed. Because these are among some progressive communities in this nation making provision for biking lanes and rider safety. (Kudos to our village fathers who opened the new biking/walking lanes along Kephart Avenue just a week ago here in Berrien Springs!)

Biker, walker, driver—whoever we are and whatever our means of transportation, the good news of Labor Day for me is the quiet assurance that when it comes to our salvation the Labor has already been done. The God who created us on the sixth day and then rested on the seventh day is the same God who redeemed us at Calvary on the sixth day and then rested in the tomb on the seventh day. "It is finished." Because it really was, and it still is. The infinitely heavy lifting has been done—the divine labor completed. And we can rest—all of humanity—in the "blessed assurance" that He is ours and we are His.

So this holiday let's give thanks to God for His blessed Labor Day. On the sixth day. Both times. So that on the seventh day we can rest in Him. Every time. He pedals. We ride. In peace. Amen. ■

RMES TOWARDS EXCELLENCY

BY BECKY ST. CLAIRE

Evelyn Savory was raised in a small mining town in Guyana by Anglican and Catholic parents. The town was too small to have regular church services, but their home was strictly Catholic.

The principal of the town's school was a Seventh-day Adventist. "He was my mentor," says Savory. "He really lived his faith and ran our little public school like an Adventist school. Several students were baptized because of his influence—including me. That was the beginning of my journey."

Savory was introduced to Adventist education when students from Caribbean Union College (CUC), now University of the Southern Caribbean, came home to Guyana and raved about their school. Later, while attending her first Bible camp, the pastor spoke about CUC and the benefits of Adventist education and captured Savory's imagination. She quit her job, became a literature evangelist, and at the beginning of the semester enrolled at CUC. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in elementary education and served as a missionary. After immigrating to the United States, she earned a master's degree in education administration and curriculum & instruction from Atlantic Union College while teaching full-time.

As a new Seventh-day Adventist Savory pledged to go wherever the Lord calls. She has served for 33 years as teacher and/or principal of a number of Seventh-day Adventist schools in the Caribbean and the United States. Savory is passionate about service and embraces her work with commitment to making a difference in the lives she touches.

Obedying the call to further hone her skills, Savory enrolled in the PhD program in leadership at Andrews University. "I chose the leadership program at Andrews because it is job-embedded so it caters to the working person," she says.

While at Andrews, Savory served in the School of Education as internship coordinator and teacher at the University Center for Reading, Learning & Assessment. She also worked as a substitute teacher with Berrien RESA, Andrews Academy and Ruth Murdoch Elementary School (RMES). She also found time for activities such as serving on the Lake Union Accreditation team and making presentations for webinars with the Department of Leadership team in the School of Education.

Savory's leadership philosophy is encapsulated in the acronym OPEN. Ownership: you're vested. Partnership: we're doing this together. Empower: build capacity, provide resources and support. Nurture: my responsibility as a leader. Given her experience as an administrator, Savory knows about the challenges facing Christian education and parents who struggle to keep their children in our system.

SAVORY IS PASSIONATE ABOUT SERVICE AND EMBRACES HER WORK WITH COMMITMENT TO MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES SHE TOUCHES.

Savory plans to promote RMES's unique education philosophy which she has dubbed "STEAMS," an extension of what many recognize as STEM: Science, Technology, Engineering and Math, but with Arts and Spirituality added. She also wants to revitalize RMES as the laboratory school for Andrews University, and to foster continuous quality improvement with an emphasis on best practices for teacher and student development.

"I've always told God I am open to Him and His plans for me," she says. "Today, I am just as open to Him using me, in concert with our teachers and staff, to keep RMES moving on the trajectory of excellence and a commitment to educate our children for here and eternity." ■

MUSIC ALIVE

STORY TELLING

She loved to tell the story—and she left eloquent poems as witnesses. Katherine Hankey was born to privilege, the daughter of a London banker. Her father became prominently involved in a religious evangelical movement of wealthy philanthropists, Bible students and prayer warriors. One hallmark of this movement was practical compassion for the impoverished. Katherine caught this fervor and was active in organizing influential Sunday-school classes. During lengthy poor health and extensive bed rest, she wrote a 55-stanza poem titled "The Story Wanted," followed with another lengthy poem, "The Story Told." Major portions of two hymns come from these poems: "Tell Me the Old, Old Story" (No. 196) and "I Love to Tell the Story" (No. 457). Also, today's offertory uses a text transplanted for today's services, "Jesus, What a Friend for Sinners." ■

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

BY NORITA LACHICA

Homebound visits are a very important part of the ministry here in Berrien Springs. Norita Lachica and her team minister to over 70 homes all over Berrien County and beyond each month. When members of the homebound ministry team visit members, they sit and visit with them, sometimes bringing food and other gifts to brighten their day. Because these people spend most of their time at home, members will sometimes ask for a religious book to read. A lot of the people we visit are lonely and just need someone to talk to. We organize holiday parties and Sabbath dinners for them, which they truly enjoy.

Knobby Mauro, one of our homebound volunteers, visits not only PMC members, but has begun to reach out to others as well. Knobby visits members of the Methodist church here in Berrien Springs. He states that this is not a ministry exclusive to PMC members, it is a ministry that is here to touch the lives of everyone who needs it.

There are many people who need to be catered to. While the ministry team makes visiting these members their priority, there is always room for improvement and help. The people who help out in this ministry are the ones who make it, not me.

To get involved and volunteer with the Homebound Ministry please contact Norita Lachica. ■
