WELCOME

to Pioneers

"I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God! He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he" (Deuteronomy 32:3).

What a wonderful privilege we have to come before the Monarch of the universe and worship Him. Our God is a great, loving, and compassionate God. He is big enough to rule the whole universe, yet small enough to dwell in our hearts. I thank God that He is in our presence to bless, to encourage, and to lift us up as we worship Him. May the Lord bless you.

3 Easy Spring RECIPES

BY REBECCA COLEMAN

This week has been great. The weather warming up always brings out the creativity in me. Experimenting with new recipes in the kitchen is one of my favorite ways to spend my Spring free time. Here are a few fun, healthy recipes to try out as the weather warms up.

SPICY ROASTED POTATOES WITH CREAMY DRESSING (VEGAN)

Potatoes

- 1 lb small red potatoes (quartered)
- 1 Tbsp olive oil
- ½ tsp Paprika
- ¼ chipotle powder
- ¼ tsp salt
- ½ tsp onion

Creamy Dressing

- ½ veganaise
- 1 avocado
- 1 lemon (juiced)
- 1 Tbsp parsley
- ¼ tsp salt
- ½ tsp garlic powder

Potatoes: Preheat oven to 450°F. Combine potatoes with olive oil and spices. Line baking sheet with parchment paper and spread potatoes out cut side down. Bake for 10-15 minutes, flip potatoes and bake for another 10-15 minutes or until crispy and tender when poked with a fork.

Creamy Dressing: In a blender combine all the ingredients and blend until smooth. Add a splash of unsweetened non-dairy milk if you want a thinner consistency. Taste and adjust the seasonings if needed. Serve the potatoes with a side of the dressing or drizzle the dressing on top of the potatoes and sprinkle with fresh parsley.

GARLIC PESTO BITES

- 1 puff pastry dough
- ¼ cup Parmesan Cheese
- ½ cup Pesto

Pre-heat the oven to 400°F/200°C. Roll out the puff pastry dough. Spread the pesto on the puff pastry dough, leaving out the bottom border. Sprinkle Parmesan on top. Roll the puff pastry dough in and close the edge. Cut the puff pastry dough roll in about 30 pieces. Place the Pesto Bites on a baking sheet and place them in the oven for 10 to 15 minutes. Cool and enjoy!

BLACKBERRY LEMONADE

- ½ cup your choice of sweetener
- 1 cup blackberries
- 7 cups cold water, divided
- 1 ½ cup freshly squeezed lemons

Combine ½ cup sweetener and 1 cup of water in a small sauce pan over medium high heat. If your sweetener choice is in sugar/crystal form, cook until dissolved completely and the liquid becomes clear. Set aside. Combine your blackberries and 1 cup water in a blender. Pulse until blackberries are pureed. Push blackberry puree through a fine mesh strainer. Add puree to a large pitcher. Add lemon juice, simple syrup, and remaining 5 cups of water to the pitcher and combine. Serve over ice.

CHURCH IN HEAVEN

BY DENNIS HOLLINGSEAD

Have you ever wondered what church is like in heaven? Maybe church is held sitting in lawn chairs on the grass outside the City, or there are places to sit in groups on the Sea of Glass. Maybe there are rooms in the New Jerusalem where everyone can meet in smaller groups to talk and share about what God has done for them. Maybe there is a large room where 100,000 groups of 20-25 individuals meet to discuss the weekly topic (what would that sound like?!). Maybe there is an early service for those wanting a more traditional service; a second service with a more contemporary emphasis; a third service for the avant-garde worship service; and a fourth service for . . . well you get the idea. Does the heavenly “Church Manual” say anything about membership, organizing new worship groups, or ordination?

Of course, all of this is pure speculation—putting a human construct into a heavenly setting, which can only be imagined. However, it is apparent that Lucifer and His comrades did not like the way church was conducted in heaven. They complained about the way the church was run, and made an alternate suggestion. It might even be said that Lucifer was the first Protestant—although the designation “rebel” would be a better description. And what was he protesting/rebelling against? The manner in which church was conducted; the “Church Manual” was too restrictive for his liking. He wanted church to be conducted his way.

If you were able to construct a society with the possibility of existing forever, would selfishness of any kind subvert your efforts to place that society on an eternally sustained basis? Can a galaxy that does not obey the law of gravity exist for even 10 minutes, let alone millions or billions of years? If you really think about it, in heaven the church is the government, and the government is the church; the perfect union of church and state that only works or can be sustained for eternity when all individuals are other-centered instead of self-centered.

But Lucifer complained about how God was conducting His church-government. In response, God has given Satan the opportunity to put forth his alternative church-government model(s) for running the universe. In many ways, earth’s history is a multi-faceted demonstration of the failures to govern or conduct church. Kings and rulers have either claimed to be, or allowed themselves to be worshiped as God; priests and kings have worked together to control and manipulate the masses for power and financial gain; governments have not allowed churches to exist; governments have even denied God’s existence. Have you ever heard the saying, “Don’t complain unless you have a good alternate suggestion”? It must be obvious to the loyal angels by now that Satan did not, and does not, have any good alternate suggestions; a fact questioned even before this earth was created.

Are the tools of selfishness—force, coercion, or manipulation—used in God’s church-government? No! And to the extent that individuals in my church use those methods, I ask myself, “Does my church reflect the heavenly church? Is there even one church or government on earth that operates like God’s church-government? Can I brag about how much my church is like the church in heaven? If not, why not? Is there anything I can do to change my church? Am I responsible as ‘an army of one’ to do what I can to facilitate that change?”

Multiple iterations of church and state demonstrate the utter futility to replicate on earth that which exists in heaven. Every earthly church and government has collapsed due to the principle of selfishness. The intended theocracy of Israel was the only church-state example on this earth that was remotely close. But Israel’s theocracy was derailed by their own selfish interests, so God’s intended demonstration was never permitted to fully develop. Even a democratic republic, based on freedom of choice, is imploding, because humans have chosen the path of self-service and greed, rather than becoming other-centered.

God will have a demonstration of how church should operate. The question is, do we understand how God’s church and government work? Have His principles been ingrained into our heart, mind, and soul? Are we sharing the good news about how His government works? Isn’t that a place where we could live for eternity? ■

Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

Call to Worship

Don Dronen

“I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh” says the Lord.

Our sons and our daughters shall prophesy, our old shall dream dreams, and our young shall see visions.

The Spirit helps us in our weakness for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words.

Let us walk by the Spirit that we may be the children of God.

I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.

Then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; you shall be My people, and I will be your God.

MUSIC ALIVE

PMC ORGAN AT 50 YEARS

March 12 and 13, 2016, mark the 50th anniversary of the dedication and inauguration of the Pioneer Memorial Church organ, in 1966. "It was the most beautiful music I expect to hear this side of the Better Land," remarked one of those who heard Andrews University's new Casavant pipe organ when it was dedicated..." reported the Lake Union Herald. The periodical stated further, "A testimony to [the organ's] effectiveness were the many moist eyes of members of the congregation during the recitals as the organ, choir, and ensemble participated." Most of the core tonal and mechanical elements of the 1966 instrument remain in use today. And the 1966 "Service of Dedication" printed program asserts a high purpose for the organ: "To kindle the flame of devotion, that Thy people who assemble here may worship the Father in spirit and in truth . . ." ■
