WELCOME

to Pioneers

Today on this first Sabbath of August, we welcome you to worship here at Pioneer and the summer preaching series: God and Mister Rogers: Won't You Be My Neighbor? In this series, our associate pastors have used the theme of visiting different areas of a home to present the biblical teachings of how to be good neighbors:

- Front door of evangelism—Rodlie Ortiz;
- Living room of hospitality—Ben Martin;
- Dining room of Bible study/faith—Sabine Vatel;
- Bedroom closet of prayer—José Bourget;
- Kitchen of service—Sharon Terrell;
- Porch of making friends—Don Dronen; and ending with the
- Yard of outreach—Taurus Montgomery.

Now that we have heard the talk, let us walk the walk and love our neighbors as ourselves (Matthew 19:19).

HIS Neighbor's WIFE

BY FELECIA DATUS

The soldier was faithful and loyal to his lord, the king. When deployed to the palace, he preferred to sleep outside rather than be comfortable while his comrades were facing dangers on the frontlines of war. Even in a drunken stupor, the soldier maintained his allegiance. A short time later, the king ordered the death of this most devoted soldier, not because of anything the soldier had done wrong, but because the king wanted something that belonged to him. The soldier was the king's neighbor and the king wanted his neighbor's wife.

What a lamentable state many Christians have fallen into as a result of coveting their neighbors' belongings! The Lord knew that thoughts lead to action and so to combat the issue, he targets the root: our attitude. "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor" (Exodus 20:17 NIV).

Coveting what belongs to your neighbor means to "yearn or long to have something" that already belongs to another person. Ill feelings and wishes accompany these thoughts. You begin to attribute negative qualities to your neighbor which helps to justify why they are not worthy of their property and why you should have it instead. This commandment goes even deeper. When we fall into covetousness, we indirectly tell God that His judgment is flawed in that He gives to someone else what He should have given to us. Avariciousness is an attitude that conveys the erroneous idea that God is unfair in His dealings toward you. In other words, God does not know what He is doing and He fallaciously gave your neighbor what is rightfully yours by virtue of your education, good looks, position, or background.

If we look deep enough, we will find that perhaps many of the quarrels that occur among the church family are deep-rooted resentment toward someone, not because of something they did, but because they own something that we ourselves wish we had. King David had Uriah executed by the enemy because he wanted what belonged to Uriah, and not because the soldier committed an act worthy of death.

Sister Jane* has a beautiful church wardrobe and you wish that you had her clothes. Her flaws become magnified in your eyes, which gives you more reason to think she is undeserving of her own dresses. Coveting her belongings and inwardly resenting her lead to a subtle dislike which becomes malignant over time. Brother John's* house and car appear more appealing than what you own. Based on a variety of factors, you feel that you are more deserving of the nice things he has. Before you realize it, you begin to malign him during Sabbath lunch conversations. By this time, the sin of covetousness has so clouded your judgment that you are convinced that this person did something to harm you and therefore deserves retribution.

Lucifer coveted the throne of God, Korah and Dathan unlawfully desired the priesthood, and Absalom, with ill-intent, sought-after David's kingdom. Why? Pride. This angel and these men, despite the position already afforded them, were so lifted up in their hearts that they desired more. Many times Christians feel that they should possess more than they have when God already blessed them beyond measure. "Isn't it enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the Israelite community and brought you near himself to do the work at the Lord's tabernacle and to stand before the community and minister to them? He has brought you and all your fellow Levites near himself, but now you are trying to get the priesthood too" (Numbers 16:9-10 NIV).

Being a good neighbor goes beyond the way you act toward your fellow man. You can mow their lawn, invite them for dinner, have Bible study every Tuesday evening, feed their dog when they leave for vacation, offer to take them to the grocery store, or lend your blender when you know they will take two weeks to return it. But if your attitude toward your neighbor is not Christ-like, before God your actions mean nothing. Be content with what God has blessed you with and be joyful for your neighbor's good fortune. ■

BCYF: THE HEALTH TENT

BY GIVAN HINDS

For over 40 years, the Health Tent has been a haven for people of all ages and stages. The Berrien County Youth Fair has hosted this engaging and dynamic initiative where fairgoers can enjoy themselves and learn about the benefits of living a healthy life. The Health Tent is a church-sponsored initiative which aims to share the health message with members of Berrien County and beyond. Volunteers at the Health Tent are involved in providing health counseling, leading out in health-related recreation for kids, and engaging in prayer with interested participants. In addition to its vibrant environment, the Health Tent is also a place of respite where fairgoers can enjoy a cool drink of water, have their blood pressure checked, and simply interact with our enthusiastic and service-oriented volunteers. In the evenings, free massages are available, and musical selections soothe participants and passers-by on Sabbath. The Health Tent serves as a “one-stop-shop” for the physical, mental, and spiritual health of all who participate.

Each year, the Health Tent promotes a particular health theme, such as Nutrition, or NEWSTART (the eight principles of a healthy lifestyle). This year, the Health Tent’s focus is on exercise and fitness, and the theme is “Exercise Extravaganza!” The main attraction will be exercise demonstrations and activities, run by exercise professionals and students. We hope to convey the important message that anyone, young and old, can engage in healthy physical activity that is fun. We want to change the perception of exercise as a punishment for eating unhealthily, and portray exercise as a celebration of what our bodies, fearfully and wonderfully made, can accomplish.

The Health Tent could not be the success that it is without its precious volunteers. From professional clinicians to youth studying in the health sciences, health enthusiasts have found the Health Tent to be a satisfying opportunity for outreach and service. The volunteers at the Health Tent proudly provide 100% free services, along with plenty of literature and materials, from healthy recipes to coupons for the Christian Bookstore. Participants may enter to win the daily drawing for Apple Valley gift cards, which encourage healthier food choices. Fairgoers may also sign up to be contacted for future health-related events, including vegetarian cooking courses or exercise sessions sponsored by the District 9 churches.

There are various opportunities to encourage healthy behavior at the Health Tent, including volunteering in the capacities of: Greeter, Registration, Measurements, Health Age Data Entry, NEWSTART Counselor, Kids’ Korner, and Prayer Warrior. No formal training is required except for an orientation held on the Friday before the first day of the fair at 5 PM in the PMC Commons. Information on each of the areas of volunteering, as well as the official volunteer sign-up sheet, can be found on the official website at www.ichoosegreathealth.com.

These days, we as Christians should be especially concerned about the physical, mental and spiritual health of those around us. This year the Health Tent needs you to be a smiling face and a shining personality that will reach out to fairgoers and the people of Berrien County. ■

The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, "Follow me." Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida. Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

"Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?" Nathanael asked. "Come and see," said Philip.

When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, "Here truly is an Israelite in whom there is no deceit." "How do you know me?" Nathanael asked. Jesus answered, "I saw you while you were still under the fig tree before Philip called you."

Then Nathanael declared, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the king of Israel."

Jesus said, "You believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. You will see greater things than that."

LET THEM GO!

The theme of freedom runs both wide and deep among songs used by slaves in the American Civil War era. "Go Down, Moses" appears to have originated in about 1850, perhaps in Virginia, growing from unclear roots but actively used by slaves. According to a Harriet Tubman biographer, Tubman said that the song was one of two songs that she used for fugitive slaves' coded communication at the time of their escaping Maryland. The song exists with sets of words that differ in some particulars. Central to it is connection with the history of Israel, and in particular the freeing of the people of Israel from their captors in Egypt. Scripture connects with the motif of freedom, too, as John 8:36 speaks of freedom indeed, if the Son shall make you free. ■
