WELCOME

to Pioneers

“The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him” (Exodus 15:2).

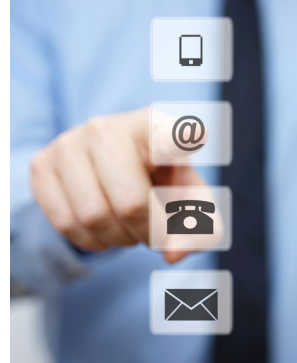

What a wonderful privilege and blessing to know God as our God. And what assurance it is that we can rely on the sure promises of God and that we can come to Jesus just as we are with all our weaknesses and sinfulness. It is His glory to forgive and bind up our wounds. With great hope and expectation, we come to worship the God who loves and saves us.

BEFORE TURNING OFF THE LIFE SUPPORT ...

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

Thornton Wilder in his The Bridge of San Luis Rey wrote: “Some say that to the gods we are like flies idly swatted by boys on a summer day. Others say that not a hair falls from our head without the will of the Heavenly Father.” But for too many the jury is still out—with the margin between life and death growing thinner with each passing day. And therein lies the mission of Hope Trending. But first this story.

Twenty-two year old law graduate Sam Hemming was riding with her boyfriend on the busy M-6 motorway in England a few weeks ago when suddenly his car flipped over, smashing Sam’s head through the windshield, sheering off an ear, breaking her neck, and leaving Sam brain dead with “no hope of recovery.” Airlifted to a hospital, Sam underwent six hours of emergency surgery and was placed in a medically-induced coma.

Nineteen days later doctors indicated Sam was brain dead and counseled the family “to prepare for the worst and to switch off her life-support machine.” The family gathered about Sam’s bed with their tearful farewells. The life support was turned off, when suddenly Carol, Sam’s mother, screamed. Everyone froze. Carol pointed at Sam’s big toe—it was wiggling. The medical team immediately reactivated life support, keeping Sam in an induced coma. Days later Sam was given a tracheotomy, and “when her life-support machine was turned off again, she was able to breathe on her own” (www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-3814394/Student-22-left-coma-horror-car-crash-saved-wiggled-toe-moments-doctors-turn-life-support-machine.html).

Remarkably eight weeks later she was declared well enough to return home. And today, despite brain damage, Sam has learned how to walk and talk again. (Click on to the above link for pictures of Sam before and after—all with smiles!)

The moral of Sam’s story—don’t pull the plug too soon. Because “where there is breath, there is hope” (and sometimes hope even when there is no breath at all, as with Sam). Even for a society as utterly confused about God as Thornton Wilder described. Hope.

And who better, may I humbly ask, to point the nation and world to hope than this faith community with hope embedded in the name we call ourselves, “Adventists”—people who joyfully embrace the hope of Jesus Christ and His soon return?

One week from last evening Hope Trending begins its quest to connect the hopeless as well as hope-seekers with the greatest Hope of all. Here are some bullet points (courtesy Rodlie Ortiz) to lock into our seven-day countdown:

- Pick up some of Hope Trending’s custom invite flyers at our Welcome Station(s) this morning and pass them on to individuals who need an uplift of hope in their lives. Sam’s story is a reminder that even when you think the spiritual plug has already been pulled, hope can still ignite a person back into full-orbed life with Christ. It’s not too late to make that invite!

- New resources are available at hopetrending.org/resources for Watch Party hosts (including the custom invite flyer). Click the link that says “Public Flyer (Add an address).” With this resource, a group can click on the white box towards the bottom and customize the address and time of their gathering.

- You can host a Watch Party in your living room, but don’t forget you can also host an online Watch Party. If you have friends that live outside of your local area, invite them to attend an online Watch Party. Inviting them couldn’t be easier. Go to hopetrending.org and click Watch Live. Find a time that is convenient for your friend and then click the invite button. There are experiences across 11 different time zones, so it’s easy to find a convenient time. Additionally, people will be given opportunities to make decisions online, right from the comfort of their computer or mobile device

- Want to know a way you can reach hundreds of your friends at the same time? In addition to being able to view Hope Trending on the website, you will also be able to view it at the Hope Trending Facebook page. So here’s a two-fold challenge: (1) go to Facebook.com/hopetrending and like the official Facebook page; (2) when the program actually starts, share the video feed from the Hope Trending Facebook page to your own page. By doing that, you’ll instantly be sharing the program with hundreds or even thousands of your friends. There could potentially be tens of thousands of people seeing the program through Facebook.

- And whatever else you do for the next seven days and the nine days afterwards, please pray for Hope Trending and the people God will lead to this event. We’re all well aware that in the end it won’t be the technology or the panel or the host or the speaker that will make the difference—in the end it will be, “Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit,” says the LORD” (Zechariah 4:6). Hope after all has always been His mission.

And on a personal note, thank you for your prayers for me. Paul’s appeal is mine, too: “Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador. . . . Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should” (Ephesians 6:19-20). ■

UNTO THE LEAST OF THESE

BY KATHLEEN CAMPBELL

The Andrews University Student Missions (SM) program derives its inspiration from Matthew 25:35-36 where Jesus instructs us to feed the hungry, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, heal the sick, and visit the prisoners. Each year, the SM program sends out approximately 30 students to do just that. Harkening back to when the University still carried the name Emmanuel Missionary College, these student missionaries have raised funds to give 6 months to a year of their life in service, offering aid as teachers, medical workers, Bible workers, deans, and so much more; while sharing the love and gospel of Christ.

The Student Missions Department is primarily funded through the generosity of donors, allowing the program to function and facilitate students as they go through the process of becoming a student missionary. This generosity also aids in providing scholarships for the student missionary, as well as support while in the field.

This year the Student Missions Program is celebrating its 55th year of sending out missionaries. Join us in celebrating this milestone and purchase a piece of our 550-piece Student Missions Anniversary puzzle. All proceeds from this fundraiser will benefit the Student Missions Program and enable us to continue sending student missionaries around the world for years to come. Each puzzle piece is $55. Following your purchase, your name will be written on the back of your puzzle piece. After all of the pieces are sold our Anniversary puzzle will be framed in glass, displaying both sides and mounted on campus.

Whatever you can give, small or large, every donation counts. We use that money to pay for care packages, promotional materials, student workers, missionary training, and international phone calls to various mission organizations around the world. Donate online at www.andrews.edu/go/give/2sm or mail a check to: Andrews University, Office of Development, Missions, Berrien Springs, MI 49104 (Please make checks payable to Andrews University and indicate Donation for Missions). If you are purchasing your puzzle piece be sure to write "a piece of the puzzle" on your check or in the "my instructions" box of the online donations page.

We also always appreciate prayers for the program and its growth, as well as the students who are currently serving. Listed below are the current or soon-to-be Andrews University student missionaries for the 2016-2017 school year. These students are serving in a multitude of functions all over the world. We encourage you to list them up by name in your daily prayers.

For additional information, contact Chaplain June Price at juneprice@andrews.edu or call 269.471.3211. ■

MUSIC ALIVE

BURIALS AND AWAKENINGS

"Wake Up!" is a clarion call in today's worship services, enhanced through composers' creativity. Speaking of creativity, we could adopt the title "Sleepers, Wake! A Voice Astounds Us" instead, a free rendering from the German by Carl Daw, a contemporary American poet. Philipp Nicolai wrote the striking original text during an appalling epidemic in Germany in the late 1590s that claimed some 1300 lives over seven months. His parsonage overlooked a churchyard where often more than two dozen people per day were buried. Speaking of another kind of burial, the burial in the waters of baptism, today's Worship in Music, both words and music, was written by Charles Reid's late father, Robert, for the singer's baptism in Texas. ■
