

“The Chosen (5): Blood on the Doorposts—Lest We Forget”
www.pmchurch.tv

- ❑ Moses’ passionate appeal in Deuteronomy
 - ◆ The word “remember” appears ____ times in this farewell address.
 - ◆ The word “forget” (as in “forget not”) appears ____ times as well.
 - In one earnest appeal, Moses utters them back to back (9:7).
 - And in another pleading, he repeats in Hebrew what we miss in English—“forget, forget” (8:19).
 - ◆ The theme of the book is the call to _____ .
- ❑ And what shall we remember?
 - ◆ #1—Remember the _____ (Deuteronomy 4:9).
 - ◆ #2—Remember the _____ (Deuteronomy 4:23).
 - ◆ #3—Remember the _____ (Deuteronomy 6:12).
 - ◆ Deuteronomy 16:1-3
 - That you may remember _____ were there.
 - Blood on the doorposts
- ❑ I Corinthians 11:23-26
- ❑ Seven divine blessings that accrue to the one who remembers the cross:
 - ◆ #1—Collective memory of deliverance is what keeps a _____ alive and advancing (Dt 4:7-9/Rev 12:11).
 - ◆ #2—Personal memory of deliverance is what keeps the sense of being _____ fresh (Dt 7:6-8/Eph 1:3-7).
 - ◆ #3—Remembering the cross is the vital requisite to experiencing release from _____ through the daily assurance of forgiveness (Jn 1:29/I John 1:9).
 - ◆ #4—Not forgetting Calvary is to remember the divine Source of our _____ and to rekindle gratitude for our Savior (Is 53:4-6/Rom 3:23-26).

- ◆ #5—Keeping the memory of the cross fresh is vital to intelligent _____ of our mighty God who is both our Creator and Redeemer (Rev 4:11, 5:9-13).
- ◆ #6—Recalling the cross is a perpetual reminder of the supernatural, divine _____ available to all to live in victory free of sin's bondage (I Cor 1:23, 24/Jude 24, 25).
- ◆ #7—Remembering the cross brings to our own hearts that same self-sacrificing _____ of Jesus towards the unlovely and the unrighteous (Lk 23:34/Jn 4:11).

“Do this in remembrance of Me”

14, 14, remember, story, covenant, Deliverer, you, movement, chosen, guilt, salvation, worship, power, love