□ Matthew 28:1-4

- Timothy Keller, The Reason for God: Belief in an Age of Skepticism: “The only way to doubt Christianity rightly and fairly is to discern the alternate belief under each of your doubts and then to ask yourself what reasons you have for believing it. How do you know your belief is true? It would be inconsistent to require more justification for Christian belief than you do for your own, but that is frequently what happens. In fairness you must doubt your doubts.” (xviii)
- “Doubt, like faith, has to be learned. It is a skill.” (13)

□ Ephesians 1:18-21

- Three very different Greek synonyms for divine power:
 - Synonym for power #1—dunamis (“dynamite”)—the power to eliminate _____.
 - Synonym for power #2—kratos—the power to exert _____.
 - Synonym for power #3—ischus—the power to evidence _____.
- The power that emptied Christ’s _____ is the promise that can fill our empty _____.
- Desire of Ages 371: “The means in our possession may not seem to be sufficient for the work; but if we will move forward in faith, believing in the all-sufficient _____ of God, abundant resources will open before us. If the work be of God, He Himself will provide the _____ for its accomplishment. He will reward honest, simple reliance upon Him.”
