

WELCOME!

Today we welcome the world to Pioneer as the HOPE Channel broadcasts live the Celebration of Creation events this weekend here in our sanctuary. We welcome as well our guests and visitors who have joined us for this festive Sabbath, including our new General Conference president, Ted N. C. Wilson. Let every worshiping heart and mind draw near to the Creator this Day. “Make a joyful shout to the LORD, all you lands! Worship the LORD with gladness. . . . It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves. We are His people and the sheep of His pasture” (Psalm 100).

SAVIOR SIBLINGS?

“Savior Siblings” was the newspaper headline. Molly Nash is sixteen years old now—and very much alive. But in 2000 the promise of any future at all was doubtful. Molly was born with a severe type of Fanconi anemia, “a blood disorder that almost always results in leukemia by the age of 10.” Her only hope a bone marrow transplant. And the optimal transplant donor needed to be a sibling with genetically identical tissue. But Molly was an only child. Until Dr. John Wagner—a bone marrow transplant expert at the University of Minnesota—suggested a brave, novel protocol. Would Molly’s parents be willing to undergo in-vitro (“test tube”) fertilization to create multiple embryos—with the hopes of finding one embryo without the genetic coding for Fanconi anemia?

After multiple rounds of in-vitro fertilization “and tens of thousands of dollars borrowed from Jack's parents," at last a genetically "perfect" embryo was formed. Nine months later little Adam was born into the Nash family—and six weeks after that, Molly received her transplant from the blood in her baby brother's umbilical cord. Today ten years later she's the picture of health—and seemingly unimpressed with her "irritating little brother" who became a "savior sibling" in order to save her life. (SBTri-bune 10-20-10)

Two reflections on this news piece. #1—When something is truly worth it, you don't quit trying. Jack and Lisa Nash, Molly's parents, apparently thought so. So they invested multiple attempts at tens of thousands of dollars in order for their prayers to be answered. Shouldn't we do the same? For 53 days now we've been asking God to revive our hearts and church and school, and to save our lost friends and family. Shall we quit now? Hardly! Jesus' command to "ask for the Holy Spirit" (Luke 11:9, 13) literally means "to keep on asking." And keep on we must! Beginning next week, the opening page of our worship bulletin-booklet will feature fresh ways we can keep on asking. After all, isn't the promised answer worth it?

#2—Our Creator became our Savior Sibling. On this Creation Celebration Sabbath we remember that the Creator of this universe was born in a manger to become our Elder Brother. "In these last days [God]

has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe. . . . For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that . . . he might make atonement for the sins of the people"

(Hebrews 1:2; 2:17 NIV). No wonder our Creator is twice worthy of our worship—first he made us, and then he saved us. With our Savior our Sibling, is it any wonder we must never quit praying now?

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

WAUS \ A SPECIAL INVITATION

Recently one of our WAUS listeners called the church. "I live in Indiana and I keep my radio dial tuned to your radio station," the man said. "Recently I heard the most beautiful music during your Saturday morning service. I've got to get a copy of that music."

WAUS listeners have been given a special invitation to visit Pioneer Memorial Church for the pre-Thanksgiving service on November 20. They will participate in the hymn-singing, bringing food items for the Pathfinders' Thanksgiving baskets, and writing notes of thanks to people who have been a blessing in their lives. After the service they will be treated to a holiday meal and a short presentation aimed at helping them make healthy choices during the holidays while still having a good time. Invitation cards have been printed and are handed out at all station functions; announcements are being read on the air, and Pastor Dwight will soon be recording an invitation to be played on the air. Please pray that the message will reach searching hearts and that there will be a good response.

PRAY

That our listeners will feel the tugging of God's Holy Spirit on their hearts.

AA \ JESUS IS MY PERSONAL FRIEND

A week before he was scheduled to present the "All About Jesus Seminars" at PMC, Lee Venden spoke at Andrews Academy for their Week of Prayer. "You could hear a pin drop during chapel as students soaked up each word," said teacher Steven Atkins. Pastor Lee offered tangible, practical and simple suggestions on how to develop or deepen a meaningful friendship with Jesus. Following are quotes from the teens who were touched by this revival.

"God showed up and talked through our speaker Pastor Lee Venden. It was amazing and a blessing just to see how much God loves us even though we rebuke Him when all He does is provide for us. Personally God showed up in a way to me that I never expected for Him to do. And just because Week of Prayer is over doesn't mean I'm going to go back to who I was. I am going to have a deeper relationship with Him because that is what matters. I want people to see Jesus in me without words coming out of my lips."

"It was the best talk I have ever heard in my life. I never knew that Jesus was our friend. I thought He was the creator coming down to take us to heaven. It was great finding out that I have a best friend who is so awesome."

"It made me want to be more out in the open about what I believe."

"I usually am not interested (in Week of Prayer) and look at it in a negative way. When Pastor Lee talked, he was amazing. The stories he told were not boring...God spoke through him to my heart."

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE \ HELP IN TIME OF NEED

Sometimes the unexpected happens. It may be a medical emergency for someone in the family. Or the vehicle used by the family breadwinner suddenly goes dead. The circumstance puts the family in crisis. A total of 49 families in similar situations were helped so far this year from PMC's Emergency Assistance Fund in the dollar amount of $22,097. Each application for aid was carefully screened by a volunteer social worker. Applicants must be either members of Pioneer Memorial Church or referred by one of our members.

The main purpose of our emergency aid fund is to meet survival needs like shelter resulting from some short-term or temporary problem. We do not give cash and if food is needed, we work with local community agencies like Neighbor to Neighbor and God's Abundant Pantry to provide it. The program does not help with rent before or when it is due.

Assistance with rent is only available in a crisis, to prevent eviction or homelessness.

Recently the church received a note of thanks from a grateful recipient. "Thank you for your support and prayers and your gracious contribution towards my living expense during this difficult time. Many blessings to you and may Heaven sustain your powerful ministry to those in need."

Currently we are looking for a volunteer with a background in social work to lead in this ministry. If you are interested in serving, please contact the church.

PRAY

Pray that we will find a leader for this important ministry

CALL TO WORSHIP

People ask, "Who is this one you worship?"

He is the Christ, the one whose word calls creation into being.

People ask, "Who is this one you worship?"

He is the Messiah, the one who is before all things and in whom all things hold together

Come, then, let us worship him who made heaven and earth.

THE WORD

JOB 38:1-7 NIV

Then the LORD answered Job out of the storm. He said: "Who is this that darkens my counsel with words without knowledge? Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.

"Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation? Tell me, if you understand. Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it?"

"On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone—while the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy?"

MUSIC ALIVE

Creation sparkles and glows in today's Hymn of Praise. We reflect on God's creatorship with a hymn about the resplendent beauty of His creation, "All Things Bright and Beautiful." Irish author Cecil Alexander (1818-1895) wished that children would understand the beliefs stated in the catechism, so in children's hymns she rephrased and amplified various beliefs. The particular subject of this hymn is, "I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth." Things small (st. 1) and large (st. 2), atmospheric conditions and garden fruits (st. 3), join the grand testimony to the Creator, "Who has made all things well" (st. 4). This grand hymn text is set to an English traditional melody, picturesquely named ROYAL OAK, the melody's very name furthering the imagery of creation's wonders.

SABBATH SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

OUTLIVE YOUR LIFE

On Pentecost, the Spirit came down and ignited the hearts and minds of believers to preach the gospel and live out justice for the forgotten. Max Lucado wonders, Might it happen again? Does God still free hearts, minds and bodies from the ravages of sin and poverty? The answer is yes! He does it through you, and in Outlive Your Life he challenges you to make a difference that will last beyond your time on earth. Take a stand for children, widows, and families who only need an opportunity to live. Join Something in Common Sabbath School at 10 a.m. in the commons for this inspiring series.

HOUSE OF PRAYER

WEDNESDAY @ 7 PM, SANCTUARY

Wouldn't it be nice if the Bible came with pictures? The apostle John tells us in John 1:18 that no one has ever seen God. But He has revealed Himself in His Word, Jesus Christ, and in His revelation, the Bible, which is full of rich word pictures of God, who is working behind the scenes, so to speak, of our common existence. At HOP we are going to take a new look at glimpses of the Divine reality, snapshots that some people had the opportunity to see for themselves and record for our benefit. Co-curricular credit for university students.
