THE DEFICIT OF SPEECH

When was the last time snow was on the ground in 49 of our 50 states? Welcome to the Winter of 2011. But the tragic killings and attempted assassination of Congresswoman Giffords in Tucson, Arizona, last weekend are a somber reminder that this nation's greatest challenge is not meteorological but moral. On this weekend that remembers the civil rights legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr., it is well for us to ponder the morality deficit America yet faces.

Our civil (or uncivil) discourse has been under heightened media scrutiny since the Tucson tragedy. And while it is not the purpose of this blog to evaluate the merits/demerits of the charged rhetoric of both major political parties in this nation, perhaps there is in all of this a renewed calling to the followers of Jesus Christ.

DAILY DEVOTIONAL \ STEPS TO CHRIST

Last Sabbath PMC launched a new series of daily devotionals based on the classic of the Christian faith, Steps to Christ. We are on a 31 day journey of daily prayer and readings designed to take us to the throne room of Christ and develop a stronger and deeper relationship with Jesus. Ellen White's classic is a well-loved favorite. Whether you are reading it for the first time or pulling it from the shelves of your home library you are sure to be blessed as we actively seek Jesus together. You can also access the daily readings of Steps to Christ on Facebook. Just add the event '31 Days to Peace and Happiness' to your Facebook page and read the devotionals online, already set up for your convenience. If you would like to read the book itself, we have

UNITED PRAYER

Monday to Thursday

12:30-1:00 PM // PMC Sanctuary

UNITED IN PRAYER

In the book of Acts, the disciples came together to pray in unity. Seeking the outpouring of the Holy Spirit they came together to pray. At Pioneer Memorial that is what we are seeking too. Revival and reformation through the Holy Spirit is just the beginning of what God wants to do in our lives collectively. Come and be part of the movement of united prayer.

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

SOUTH BEND \ I PERCEIVE EVANGELISTIC SERIES

For several years Pastor Dwight has been preaching to thousands of viewers in the Michiana area who tune in to our Sunday noon and mid-night airing of New Perceptions, our 11:20 Sabbath worship service broadcast weekly on Channel 46 out of Mishawaka. We had over a hundred viewers come out for the first time to meet and hear Pastor Dwight during the one-night follow-up meetings we held last year at the South Bend Century Center. This year we are inviting the viewing audience to come out for a series of meetings held nightly, February 11-19, 7 p.m., at the South Bend First Seventh-day Adventist Church, 910 Altgeld Street.

Preparations for the meetings include a 40-days-of-prayer experience which began on January 1 in the South Bend Church, a weekend of health presentations, personal invitations from South Bend Church members, 65,000 mail-out advertising cards and five billboards. In addition, Pastor Dwight will be making personal invitations to all Michiana viewers watching the New Perceptions telecasts and mailing invitations to all viewers who have called in over the years to take the Discover Bible Course.

Thank you for your prayers for this series of meetings, and for your contributions to the Master Plan of Evangelism which make programs like this possible.

PRAY

Pray that those who attend these programs will feel the strength and hope that Jesus provides.

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE FROM FINANCE COMMITTEE CHAIR, DON WILSON

It is with joy, abundant joy and thanksgiving that we praise the Lord for the generous response of our Pioneer family in not just reaching, but surpassing each of our 2010 budget goals. A grateful and most appreciative thank you is extended to each and every one. Our Lord challenges us to “Put me to the test, if I will not pour down on you an overflowing blessing” Mal 3:10 RSV. The overflow of offerings to enable the ministry of PMC is evidence of our collective faith in claiming His promise and an indication of a greater work that we are being called to do. Together, we can accomplish much and with God’s blessing, much more.

Over the last year and during the current 31 Days of Prayer, we have entered into intense periods of prayer for the purpose of seeking renewal and revival. While we rejoice in the response to our financial needs, we are humbled and stand in awe when we consider your faithfulness to be evidence of the much sought revival. As we experience the New Year, may we with diligence and prayer continue our faithful partnership with the One who has promised to meet our every need according to His purpose.

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

CONTAGIOUS ADVENTIST \ TAPING BEGINS

Bryan von Dorpowski and Pastor Esther Knott are in Keene, Texas Sunday-Thursday of this week for the taping of the Contagious Adventist (CA) seminar.

In the summer of 2002, Pastor Dwight Nelson commissioned a team of PMC pastors (Pastors Esther and Skip) and lay members (Marilyn Bauer and Dick Mackie) to design a seminar that PMC could use primarily as a follow up to The Contagious Christian (CC) seminar produced by Willow Creek Community Church in Illinois and conducted at PMC numerous times over the years. The CC seminar helps Christians introduce irreligious people to Jesus. The CA seminar helps our members to introduce both Christians and non-Christians to the unique message God has commissioned the Adventist Church to share with the world in preparation for Jesus' soon return.

Within the next two months, the North American Division will begin promoting use of the CA seminar to Adventist churches across the nation in preparation for the NET 11 evangelistic series that will be uplinked from Madison, TN, in September. The taping this week is a re-taping of the program taped earlier at PMC, and will be the last piece to be included in the CA seminar kit for other churches to use.

Thank you for your prayers for Bryan and Pastor Esther this week, and for your continued support of the Master Plan of Evangelism which makes programs like this possible.

Pray for God's blessing on this project.

RUTH MURDOCH \ CLASS OFFICERS

Ruth Murdoch Elementary School Jr. High students recently went through the process of electing their class officers. Students had to decide whether or not to run for office, and if they would run, they had to find the right office to run for. Maybe they didn't want to be President, but Vice-President would be okay, or maybe Class Pastor was a good fit for them. Posters lined the hallways with slogans like "Wanna Banana? Vote for Anna!" The speech process was next. Those who were running wrote carefully so that they could convince their class members that they were best for the job. And delivering the speeches – that was probably a challenge for some of them, but every one of them did great.

Watching the entire process was amazing. While listening to the students give their speeches, I realized that certain themes occurred again and again. The first was Christ – students told their classmates that they could be trusted and worthy of their votes because they loved Jesus. The second was organization – their classmates could rely on their leadership because they were ready for the extra responsibility and could handle the work with ease. The third was humility – students realized that some things were out of their hands, but they would trust God and trust the school's administration to do what was best.

We are proud of the things students are learning about leadership at RMES! Praise God that our newly elected student leaders have an amazing love for our Savior and are ready to trust in Him.

PRAY

Pray that our student's become dedicated leaders for Jesus.

CALL TO WORSHIP

The voice of one crying in the wilderness: prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things.

Blessed be his glorious name forever;

May his glory fill the whole earth! May people bless themselves by him, and all nations call him blessed!

Let us worship God.

THE WORD

ROMANS 1:13-17 NKJV

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that I planned many times to come to you (but have been prevented from doing so until now) in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.

I am obligated both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish.

That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile.

For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed—a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: “The righteous will live by faith.”

MUSIC ALIVE

LOVE AND SHALOM

Such are the words to which Martin “Marty” Goetz attaches his name in the book containing the music of “Blessed Is the Man With a Vision”. What led Goetz, a Jew who experienced his Bar-mitzvah in Cleveland at age 13, to be singing for a Billy Graham rally in New York’s Central Park twenty years later? It is an amazing route coursing through cabaret, pop and Broadway. Finally, Goetz was provoked by numerous “born-again” around him to read the Bible “looking for loopholes”. He came to realize that “the Jesus of the New Testament was the Messiah my people have been longing for”. As a Messianic Jew and vocal soloist, Goetz has ministered in many congregations and for many ministries. Today Rachel Hyman, a Messianic Adventist Jew, sings his joyous music.

“Blessed are the peacemakers,” our Master once intoned (Matthew 5:9). So stepping away from last weekend’s violence (perpetrated perhaps by one in the clutch of mental illness), how can radical disciples of Christ live out his calling to peace-making? Couldn’t we reject the use of violence in all its forms to advance peace? We could. But beyond that—what about our own discourse? How civil is it in our board rooms and dorm rooms and bedrooms? How civil is it with those we like, with those who don’t like us? If we infused Jesus’ call to become peacemakers into our daily conversations, what effect would it have on the words that pass our lips?

“Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone” (Colossians 4:6). At some point radical Christianity and Adventism have to move beyond petitions against hand guns and protests against war. For those who insist on these forms of public advocacy, Jesus’ enjoinder—“This ought you to have done, and not leave the other undone” (Matthew 23:23)—is timely. Namely, until peace-making infects/affects the very words we articulate in public discourse or in private conversation, until our speech as radical followers of the Christ is “full of grace” and “seasoned” with the salt of the Golden Rule (saying to others what we wish they would say to us), what good is all the championing of peace and justice and morality on the broad stage of public attention, when our private speech is uncivil, unkind, uncalled for?

But in the end could it be that the example of our Master under provocation and verbal assault is peace and grace’s unassailable weapon? “But Jesus kept silent” (Matthew 26:63). No words at all are sometimes the most potent of all, aren’t they?

So then why despair? In a world of such wanton violence, let us renew our choice to follow the Peacemaker. And with words carefully chosen and seasoned by his grace, let us win the heart of both friend and foe with language—private or public—that honors the Christ we follow.

HOUSE OF PRAYER

WEDNESDAY @ 7 PM, SANCTUARY

John Wycliffe is our Radical this next Wednesday in our new winter theme, "The War You're In." Through the apocalyptic classic, The Great Controversy, we'll explore a new spiritual warfare strategy that offers God's winning hand for your daily battle. Have you read the new NKJV The Great Controversy? Pick one up at the ABC Christian Bookstore in town and check it out. Discover the classic that it really is. Wednesday at 7 PM in the Pioneer sanctuary. Co-curricular credit for university students.
