THE FOURTH WATCH

WWW.PMCHURCH.TV

9-11 + 10

This Tuesday I sat with rapt attention, along with the rest of the student body (you could have heard a pin drop), as Stanley Praitnath recounted his harrowing survival on the morning of September 11, 2001. An associate vice-president with Fuji Bank (which occupied floors 78 through 81 in Twin Towers #2), Praitnath was on the phone in his 81st floor office, when he happened to glance across the space and out a far window. For a split second, he watched a United Airlines jet (“I saw the giant U on the tail of the plane”) hurling at eye level (“I could hear the engines accelerating”) directly toward his office space. In that slow motion instant, Praitnath threw the phone, instinctively diving under a nearby desk at the moment of impact. His world exploded. Choking jet fuel, thick dust, darkness, the floor above him collapsed onto the only desk that withstood its weight—the one he was

Day of Prayer & Fasting

Join us in a day of prayer and fasting for Net 2011 on Friday, September 30. Lift up Ron Clouzet and all who are participating in this important outreach across North America. We are not asking anyone to abstain from food and drink that day unless you choose. Fasting does include some form of abstinence whether that be giving up dessert, junk food, Facebook, or computer games so that outside of regular work and school activities our PMC Church family can pray for God's blessings on the Net 2011 meetings.

HOUSE OF PRAYER

WEDNESDAY @ 7 PM, SANCTUARY

Jesus lived a life of prayer on this earth. Fused with the Holy Spirit of God, He was empowered for ministry, for worship, and for hard times. At House of Prayer we are going to study the life of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew. Together we will journey through the life of Christ to discover who Jesus really was and is today. Come join us to receive a fresh vision of Christ this year and join in on a collective conversation with God that will empower your prayer life!

AU OUTREACH / COMPASSION FATIGUE

Perhaps you have heard of “Compassion Fatigue”. Simply put, it is where we can end up as part of the rapid cycle of responding to the very real, very worthy, and very immediate needs of world around us. The truth is we do care. And we feel compelled to help any way we can. So how do we keep it from happening?

Since its inception 7 years ago, AU Outreach Ministries has grown beyond its original “borders”. The creativity and synergy between the Outreach Chaplains, students and this congregation helped to multiply the geography and scope of evangelistic efforts. Actively serving in three very different communities, we cover a gamut of ways for different types of people with varied passions to have a space to share the good news of Jesus Christ.

But there are two more reason why AU Outreach can do all of that and more. First, we can do this ministry because this congregation offers support by way of time, money, and commitment to seeing students thrive in sharing the gospels. Second, there is a synergy of teamwork so that no one does anything alone. Both are key ingredients for combatting “Compassion Fatigue” and building the Kingdom of Heaven.

AA / WELCOME FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Please let me extend my personal WELCOME to you and your family for this 2011-2012 school year. When you first walk into the main doors of Andrews Academy, your eyes are immediately drawn to the sign that reads "Create in man the image of His maker". This is what we are all about! It is our desire to be a reflection of Jesus Christ every day. For those of you who are new to our school, you are joining a school family that takes great pride in its superior education, diversity and great faculty and staff. We, at Andrews Academy, believe you are sending your child to one of the finest schools in North America. Our teachers are some of the finest and they have some exciting ideas and plans for this school year. I hope and pray that this school year will be the best you and your child have ever had. If there is anything that we can do to be of service to you and/or your child, please know that we are here to serve and will be available to you and your needs.

There may be some PMC families that have just moved into the Berrien Springs community and have not registered for the school year yet. Please call the school at 471-3138 or go online to andrews.edu/AA to start the process. We would love to have you join the Andrews Academy family for this school year.

OPERATING EXPENSES

SMALL GROUP / I BELONG

I was attending an orientation for new University students a couple of Friday nights ago. The speaker listed three things that he felt were important in order to have a successful year. One of them really caught my attention. “Become a member of a small group”, he said. Yes! I wanted to stand up and cheer. It’s one thing to be associated with a community; it’s something altogether different to have friendships within that community. After all, Jesus’ entire public ministry modeled what living in community meant. Following Jesus means following Him into community. What better way to have our spiritual and social needs met, in a caring environment, than in a small group?

O.K., you’re convinced and would like to be a part of a small group, but you are a new student or maybe new to this community. You don’t know of any small groups and you want to be a part of one that has people in it with similar interests as you or a certain age group, etc. We can help! Call or email us. Let’s get together!

under. Praitnath's horrendous ordeal to survive had begun.

On this tenth anniversary as the nation pauses to remember, what is it we will collectively recall? We remember the 2,976 victims of this four-site tragedy—the innocent victims in the air and on the ground, the heroic first responders in New York City. We also remember the 3,000 people who, like Stanley Praitnath, survived the infernos but who bear the scars and still relive the nightmare a decade later. We remember all the families who have had to go on surviving without the one they loved about their table. We remember people.

We remember the 236 foreigners, citizens of other lands, who perished on September 11. And while we know little about the perpetrators of this crime against humanity, we can only imagine the pain of those families, as well.

The truth is September 11, 2001, broke not only ten thousand hearts, but deeply wounded the heart of the Father of humanity. "In all their affliction, He [is] afflicted" (Isaiah 63:9). Ideologies, theologies, geo-politics aside, the greatest grief over the human plight still breaks the strongest heart of all, doesn't it? Christian, Muslim, Jew, pagan—the labels we conveniently affix are in some visceral sense immaterial to him, are they not? Ten years later the statistics keep exponentially mounting. This year relief aid workers estimate that one million men, women and children will die from starvation—in Somalia alone! Nationality and religion and ideology pale before so immense a human loss, so far away from our evening dinner tables. But if not even "two sparrows . . . will fall to the ground outside your Father's care" (Matthew 10:29), to quote the Master, then how much more do the 2,976 of September 11 and the one million of 2011 matter to him?

This weekend it is right that we remember. But let us not take refuge in the remembering. Let us instead transform our memories into proactive, specific responses to the immense human needs all around us. Helping one child in Benton Harbor's inner city—by joining the street ministry teams at 3 PM today, or by marking your gift in an offering envelope "Benton Harbor"—can turn remembrance into life-changing assistance. Somalia? You'll never go there. But Benton Harbor—we can make a difference right now here at home. Then their deaths were not in vain. Then September 11's legacy can yet be one of healing and hope.

Stanley Praitnath survived because a stranger with a flashlight came seeking. How many other survivors could there be, if you and I would do the same?

CALL TO WORSHIP

We seek to live in Christ that we may die in Christ,

To be one people, of one mind and one spirit,

To be the gospel, alive in the world,

To be good news to those who need good news.

We come together so that we may be sent out

To bring joy to the oppressed, to bring hope to the fearful.

THE WORD

JOHN 14:6-11, NIV

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you really know me, you will know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him."

Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us."

Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me?

The words I say to you I do not speak on my own authority. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work.

Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the works themselves.

MUSIC ALIVE

STURDY, SURE

Among the sturdiest of hymn melodies, with one of the sturdiest of hymn texts, Ludvig Lindeman's melody in today's postlude supports a text ribbed with strong assurance. The melody links well with the text in the SDA Hymnal, "Built on the Rock" (hymn 347). A selection from this text provides context for this Sabbath's worship journey: "Built on the Rock the Church shall stand, / Even when steeples are falling;

/ Crumbled have spires in every land,
/ Bells still are chiming and calling—
/ Calling the young and old to rest, /
/ Calling the souls of those distressed, /
/ Longing for life everlasting." Interestingly, the SDA Hymnal adopts a version that says "Built on the Rock", where another version says, "Built on a Rock". The definite article "the" makes a significant difference!
