MARCH 2, 2013

WELCOME!

It's our annual joy to welcome the young musicians from across the Great Lakes states and beyond. This annual Andrews University Music Festival each year alternates between choral/orchestra and band/keyboard clinics. As you can see, this year we welcome the brass ensemble to our worship experience today—welcome, too, to academy faculty, parents, and friends who've joined them and us this weekend. We're delighted you've come! Visitors, join us after second service for a home-cooked vegetarian meal in the Commons.

AND THAT'S AN ORDER

I keep wondering: Does the intransigence of the politicians and legislators of this nation somehow portend a dark chapter ahead for this government? That's hardly an uncommon thought, given the headlines these days out of Washington. But could it be that the political and ideological gridlock we are witnessing plays into a much deeper and darker narrative than the public or its leaders realize? And if so, how?

One of these days the game of political chicken will backfire. In the current financial showdown, each side has been banking on their opponents' unwillingness to be labeled the cause of this nation's fiscal crisis. Thus each party has bet the last dregs of their already historically low approval ratings on the hope that their opponents will blink just before the deadline and sue for a compromise. But what has surprised observers

TO CONGREGATE

BY DENNIS HOLLINGSEAD

One of the problems facing large churches like PMC is that individuals and families feel disconnected from each other. You don't always know the people you see from Sabbath to Sabbath and you cannot always ascertain who is a visitor and who is a member. Over the last several years I have noticed a trend at PMC. Not so much after first service because of time limitations, but usually after second service. Groups of members congregate together in the various sectors and quadrants of the sanctuary. Some of this is due to the cold weather and the fact that we do not have a large lobby for visiting. It is apparent that those meeting in the eight sectors of the church recognize each other and have developed relationships. Maybe it is because friends and acquaintances are sitting near each other in anticipation of visiting afterwards.

What if all of us as a church were more intentional about developing friends and acquaintances in the sectors where we sit? It is well known that we are creatures of habit, sitting generally in the same area, and even the same pew every week. What if each of us took the time to introduce ourselves to someone nearby when we sat down, and wrote a note to remember their name and other shared information such as e-mail, phone numbers, or Facebook. Then from week to week greet them again by name and ask how their week has gone. Even offer to pray for them right there in the pew! How might an intentional strategy such as this, by even 25% of our congregation, help to build a church within the church?

Consider how you can reach out to someone today and start building your own mini-congregation in the area where you frequently sit. And don't be ashamed to do it today, thinking that after reading this, others will think it only a "canned" greeting out of obligation. It takes courage to reach out first, but know that God is wanting us to do this. Be real in greeting others, and by so doing we will be able to claim the blessing in Psalm 133, "Life forevermore." Let us do our best to congregate together within the congregation!

Please pray for:

- The PMC church, that we may become a place where all want to congregate and make friends.
- Your own personal involvement in helping PMC become known as a caring and friendly church.
- All of our young people, that they will become interested in spiritual things and developing a relationship with Christ.
- God's guidance over the committee selecting the Andrews Academy Assistant Principal position.

NEIGHBOR TO NEIGHBOR

N2N / AN EXCITING PLACE TO WORK

When you are part of an organization that does so much good in the community, it's easy to be excited about working there! Six or seven years ago I started volunteering at Neighbor to Neighbor—the place is just amazing! N2N is a thrift store open to the public on Tuesdays and Thursdays, but every day of the week it's a beehive of activity. Let me tell you some lesser known facts about N2N:

One of the best-kept “secrets” is that N2N has a symbiotic relationship with Goodwill Industries of Michiana. We give them items that we can't use or sell, in exchange for coupons entitling us to shop their stores to obtain things that we need for our clientele.

Stained and torn linens get used by local pet shelters for bedding. There's a quilting bee, making baby quilts for the hundreds of layettes we prepare. Warm clothing is shipped to Indian reservations. Small stuffed animals are taken overseas to give to children at medical clinics and VBS. Cardboard is picked up by Gateway, metal is recycled; broken pottery is given to someone for crafts. A couple of volunteers sell valuables for N2N on eBay or in nearby antique malls.

N2N provides training internships for the Social Work Department of Andrews University by providing hands-on experience interviewing people who need assistance.

God blesses N2N! Approximately 90 people volunteer in some capacity. Plus, we appreciate all the people who give donations. Without you, N2N could not be a beacon of light and hope throughout SW Michigan.

If you are interested in helping, stop in and talk to Laura Meyer or Lucy Randall. You will make a difference in the lives of many and find new friendships. “If you have done it unto one of the least of these, you have done it unto Me,” says Jesus. —Rosie Nash

PASSION PLAY / WELCOMING OUR NEIGHBORS

When 7,000 of your neighbors visit you in two days, how would you say, “Welcome! We are so glad you’ve come”? If you are Pioneer Memorial Church, you would use a very large tent and lots of warm, friendly volunteers just like you. And that’s just what we do!

The PMC Hospitality Center, located outside Johnson Gym, is the home for this gladness and warmth and operates during the two days of Andrews University Passion Play. (Yes, two days...!) The Hospitality Center is positioned to greet the Passion Play guests as they exit the Resurrection scene from Johnson Gym. Besides offering the guests hot chocolate or a cool drink, the Center volunteers and other Passion Play volunteers are there to listen to and pray with many who have been moved by their experience of the Passion of Christ.

The tent is expertly decorated in the interior by Karen Nash and her team of artists who transform bare ground in the tent to a soaring cross motif with fresh flowers and shrubbery donated by Twixwood Nursery. More than a few guests have their picture taken next to the Cross because of its beauty and meaning. In addition, there is ample seating scattered around the tent so that tired walkers may sit and enjoy the warmth of the hot chocolate beverage served in the tent.

As the guests exit the Hospitality Center, we offer them an opportunity to leave comments in a Passion Play memory book. Last year, guests wrote: “Amazing spiritual experience! God bless all the participants”; “I was really touched. Thank you guys so much”; “Your program was 100%. I enjoyed it from beginning to end. God bless the entire cast. May God hold the entire group in the palm of His hand”; and, “This was an excellent portrayal of Jesus’ life. Thank you for all your hard work. Well done!”

As you give to the PMC Master Plan for Evangelism, you give to this ministry. Please give generously. If you wish to join this two-day ministry, which this year is being held on Sabbath and Sunday, April 6 and 7, see the contact information below. —David Nowack

RMES / YOU'RE INVITED TO OUR SCHOOL!

Caring for animals, "playing" with Legos for course credit, learning foreign languages, discovering the world of modern technology, playing many musical instruments, being on an intramural sports team, choosing new books to read each week, making ceramics, mentoring younger students, ... Whew! That's a lot of fun stuff! How can students possibly do all of this at school?

Ruth Murdoch Elementary School offers all of these opportunities and more!"Each grade at RMES provides a very rich curriculum that encourages students to participate in many character-building exercises, foreign language classes, music, and more," says Principal David L. Waller. "The educational opportunities in the Jr. High in particular are very progressive and appealing to that age group."

RMES uses today's technology in the classroom, allowing students to learn in fun and often interactive ways. We have large and well-equipped classrooms, a science lab, three 30-station computer labs, half-day and full-day Kindergarten sessions, single- and multi-grade classrooms, and a partnership with Andrews University. Our Physical Education coach provides a rigorous P.E. program for all grades, as well as after-school intramural sports. Our rich music program features both vocal and instrumental classroom music for grades K-4, 5th Grade Band, 6th Grade Choir, String Orchestra, Concert Band, Chimes, and Handbell Choir. A healthy vegetarian and vegan hot lunch program is provided by Andrews University, which often features fresh, locally grown produce.

Come experience RMES for yourself on Visitors' Day, March 5. Go to page 13 for more information. -Wendy Keogh

(Received to-date 2012)	$23,018

As of February 23, 2013

this time around is that neither side is blinking. It is growingly apparent that both political camps are willing to risk a head-on collision rather than back down. Period. So what lies ahead? Only God knows, since it is more than clear our leaders don't.

While it isn't the purpose of this Fourth Watch blog to handicap all the possible outcomes of rapidly unfolding current events on this planet or in this nation—be they political, social, economic, ecological, or religious—this blog does seek to keep a careful, watchful eye on the those events for one simple reason—Jesus commanded His followers to do so: “But the exact day and hour [of His return]? No one knows that, not even heaven’s angels, not even the Son. Only the Father. So keep a sharp lookout, for you don’t know the timetable. It’s like a man who takes a trip, leaving home and putting his servants in charge, each assigned a task, and commanding the gatekeeper to stand watch. So, stay at your post, watching. You have no idea when the homeowner is returning, whether evening, midnight, cockcrow, or morning. You don’t want him showing up unannounced, with you asleep on the job. I say it to you, and I’m saying it to all: Stay at your post. Keep watch” (Mark 13:32-37 The Message). Did you catch that? “Keep a sharp lookout.” “Stay at your post.” “Keep watch.” Thus the mission of this Fourth Watch blog.

Two asteroids, one papal resignation and a government in gridlock, all within the last few days—anybody want to handicap the odds of all three turning out to be apocalyptic indeed? As any social scientist will remind us, all it takes for a society or a government or a nation to undergo a rapid paradigm shift is the injection of a single catastrophic event. Knock out the last vestiges of personal and collective security, and all bets are off. History has played out that scenario too many times to be wrong. So Jesus is right. “Keep a sharp lookout.” “Stay at your post.” “Keep watch.” And if you’re a follower of His, that is an order.

THE WORD

COLOSSIANS 3:12-14, 17 NIV

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

MUSIC ALIVE*THE TIE

Blest Be the Tie That Binds" as a celebration hymn can at first seem inherently contradictory. But today a uniting of an old concept with the music (no. 350) of this hymn yields such a surprising result. Around 1600, church music included large blocks of sound—"chords" that were unusually massive for their time—calling and answering to each other. This must have been especially impressive in large, resonant worship spaces. And the effect of such music played in large spaces today can be very celebrative indeed. Today, brass and organ imitate features of Renaissance and Baroque music, mixed with the hymn "Blest Be the Tie." The brass ensemble is associated with the university's music festival. Here from many different places, they form a community of belonging facilitated through music.
