WELCOME!

"He is not here, but is risen!" That grave-shattering declaration of the angels to the mourning women on that long ago and far away Easter morning still thunders its Good News to our third millennial generation. "He is risen!" And the tomb is empty. Let the glad tidings reverberate through the arches of this sanctuary into the high heavens as we celebrate Christ's resurrection. Do you bring an empty heart, an empty life today? Then let the One who emptied His own tomb fill your emptiness with the shining light of His resurrection power. Let the peace of the risen Christ be yours. It is He who welcomes us this day!

A NEW POPE FOR EASTER

I've been amazed—on two counts—over the public reaction to the recent election of a new pontiff for the Roman Catholic Church.

The global press has been awash in accolades for Pope Francis. No doubt the dramatic contrast between the personalities of this new pope and his predecessor, Benedict XVI, has fueled the news media's complimentary, sometimes glowing, coverage of this new reign. And Pope Francis' publicly warm and modest persona have only heightened the fascination of the secular press. The reports are nearly daily chronicling the self-deprecating, people-friendly style of Rome's new leader—from his rejection of the armored Pope-mobile and wading out into the crowds to his decision this week to renounce the palatial papal quarters in the Vatican for a much more modest room in the nearby Santa

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

A LOVE LETTER

The following letter was written by a pastor in prison in Eritrea (Posted by Emily F. on March 18, 2013).

“My dearest wife:

God, by His holy will, has prolonged my prison sentence.

My dear, listen to me—not only as a wife, but also as a Christian woman who has come to understand who God is and how deep and mysterious His ways are....In here God has made me not only a sufferer for His Name’s sake [reputation]... but also a prisoner of His indescribable love and grace.

When they first brought me to this prison, I had thoughts which were contrary to what the Bible says. I thought the devil had prevailed over the Church and over me. I thought the work of the Gospel in Eritrea was over. But it did not take one day for the Lord to show me that He is a sovereign God....The moment I entered my cell, one of the prisoners called me and said, ‘Pastor, come over here. Everyone in this cell are unsaved. You are much needed here.’

My dear, the longer I stay in here, the more I love my Savior....His grace is enabling me to overcome the coldness and the longing that I feel for you and for our children. Sometimes I ask myself, ‘Am I out of my mind? Am I a fool?’ Well, isn’t that what the apostle had said, ‘Whether I am of sound mind or out of my mind, I am Christ’s!’

My most respected wife, I love you more than I can say. Please help the children understand that I am here as a prisoner of Christ for the greater cause of the Gospel.”

Let us think of creative ways to relieve suffering and visit those in prison, writing letters of encouragement to prisoners locally as well as Christians overseas who are being persecuted.

To write to Berrien County prison inmates, contact:

• Brodrick Morris at bmorris472@gmail.com or phone: 269.277.4472.

To write to Christian prisoners overseas, contact:

• www.opendoorsusa.org/take-action/write/

To stay informed and pray, go to:

• www.persecution.org/how-you-can-help/pray/

The first Sabbath of each quarter has been designated as a day of prayer and fasting for the SDA World Church.

Please pray:

- On Sabbath, April 6, for increased desire for Bible study by individuals and families.
- Daily at 7 AM and 7 PM for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

OPERATING EXPENSE

NURSERY SABBATH SCHOOL / EARLY FOUNDATION

Nursery Sabbath School ministers to the youngest children of our church. Each Bible truth is taught through simple music, large body movements, and pictures. Repetition during teaching time results in feelings of safety and confidence.

On the day I visited the class many wide-eyed toddlers were learning about the Sabbath. Little hands held dust cloths as they wiped the table clean in preparation for the beginning of a special time with Jesus. On Sabbath morning, they eagerly parked toy cars next to a church. And on Sabbath afternoon they snuggled on a quilt with mother while she told them a Bible story.

Rebecca Twomley has been playing piano for Nursery SS for more than ten years. "To be very honest," Rebecca confided, "I love to be there because the precious babies give me such a lift and so do their beautiful parents. Just watching them come to us as tiny babies and develop to the place where they can go up to the front alone and place their felt hearts on the board is a pleasure."

Parents' needs are also considered in Nursery SS. The last 20 minutes of class is Parents' Time. While toddlers play, relevant topics are discussed. The books guiding discussions are: Amazing Health-8 Bible Secrets, Your Money Map, Love and Respect Building Blocks, and Revolutionary Parenting. "When a parent volunteers to lead in a discussion," explained Lois Burn, "we give them one of the books for free."

Not everybody thinks children so young matter, but a reading of Mark 10:13-16 reveals that Jesus certainly did. Jesus welcomed them and pointed to their pliable hearts. Isn't this then a prime time to be laying a strong foundation? -Sue Rappette

PASSION PLAY / COME GET INVOLVED

In just one week, over 7,000 guests will experience the life-changing events of the AU Passion Play. At the end of the Play, the PMC Hospitality Tent creates an opportunity to meet community members at a time they are contemplating the life, death, and meaning of Jesus. The Hospitality Tent volunteers demonstrate the welcoming spirit of Jesus as they serve, converse, and pray with those community members. Simple refreshments will be served like hot chocolate and cool water and there will be chairs for tired guests to relax in and allow the Play experience to be shared with friends and other guests.

Last year, the guests were also given the opportunity to leave comments in the Book of Memories. These comments reflect the positive impact that the Passion Play has had on those who experienced it. A small sample of the comments:

An anonymous guest wrote "Makes me want to study the life of Jesus more..."

Another wrote "What a moving experience. We often need a reminder of what God has done for us. Amen."

Lastly, "Thank you so much for all the beautiful work that you have done for all of us. Thank you!"

This year, the Passion Play will take place on April 6 & 7. We've made it easy for people to register as a volunteer in two ways: First, you can register by going directly to pmchurch.org/hospitalitytent or, second, you can register by letting us know on the Connect Card. We've listed the times below to make it easy for you. Simply write "Hospitality Tent" and the time and date you want to volunteer for and we'll take care of the rest.

The shift times are:

Sunday

10:30-12:30 PM

12:30-2:30 PM

2:30-4:30 PM

4:30-6:30 PM

6:30-8:30 PM & clean up

Please volunteer for this wonderful community contact! You'll meet some of the nicest people reflecting on the life and death of Christ.

PRAY

That the Hospitality Tent will be a witness to those attending

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES / GARDENING AND CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT

Spring has sprung! Though it may not feel like it when we walk outside, it is officially time to start gardening. At Ruth Murdoch Elementary School, that means it's time for a new mini-course.

Habitat Improvement is one of our Jr. High mini-courses offered this spring. This mini-course focuses on the beautification and vitality of our outdoor areas and especially our many garden areas around the school building. Students will learn why a habitat is vital to life, what the various aspects of a habitat are, why it's important to grow plants from the soil, how gardening benefits the students, how it benefits others, and the marvels of one of God's most amazing gifts—the seed.

"No one can succeed in agriculture or gardening without attention to the laws involved....The attention required in transplanting...the pruning and watering...keeping out weeds, disease, and insect pests... not only teach important lessons concerning the development of character, but the work itself is a means of development." (Ellen White, Adventist Home, Chapter 21)

Focusing on respect for our human habitat also encourages care and respect for the habitats of other living things such as various plants, insects, birds, and small animals. By caring for the plants in our own habitat, we care for the habitats of the creatures that live there with us.

God created plants to sustain us and for beauty, to teach us lessons in patience and obedience. What a wonderful gift, and what a fun way to teach our Jr. High students about our Savior. —Wendy Keough

That students recognize God's amazing gifts

Martha hotel-style residence that he will share with other priests. The International Business Times reported: “In what seemed to be a further confirmation to his simple, humble and laidback lifestyle, one-week-old newly installed Pope Francis has shunned the Vatican Palace and instead has chosen to remain living in the Vatican guesthouse where he has actually been staying since coming to Rome to participate in the papal conclave that chose him to become its supreme spiritual pontiff” (<http://au.ibtimes.com/articles/450767/20130327/what-seemed-further-confirmation-simple-humble-laidback.htm#.UVL83RysiSo>). The news media have dutifully pointed out that the new domicile for the resigned pope will be more opulent than that for Pope Francis!

But just as amazing as the press coverage has been the scramble among the faithful to show that Pope Francis indeed fulfills the predictions of the canonized Irish archbishop Malachy (1094-1148). Purportedly Malachy predicted the cryptic identity of every pope (112 of them) between his day and the endtime judgment of the world. According to the faithful, Pope Francis is that 112th pope, and now expositors are showing that in fact his family name, along with his chosen name of Francis, are a literal match with Malachy’s identification of the final pope, when “Rome, the seat of the Vatican, will be destroyed and the dreadful Judge will judge the people.” How eager the human mind to latch onto a date for the terminus of history!

But the genuine end of human history was writ large on that early Sunday morning when the incarnate God of the universe rose up from the dead, shattering not only His borrowed sepulcher, but also the very barred gates of Death and the Grave itself! “I am the Living One; I was dead, and now look, I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades” (Revelation 1:18 NIV). There were no media to adulate over the risen Jesus—just a smitten band of Roman guards and a handful of women. And yet history was rent in twain by His triumphant resurrection, its ending forever secured for His friends—“Because I live, you will also live” (John 14:19).

So never mind the popes, who come and go—for they, like we all, can only hope in the grace and power of the risen and soon-coming Christ!

But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man.

For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.

But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him.

For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality.

When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."

"Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?"

But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

MUSIC ALIVE

ALLELUIA!

"Alleluia!" rings out in today's worship music. The word is Latin, from the Hebrew "hallelujah" meaning "praise ye the Lord." This radiant word appears in Psalms 111 to 113 and 115 to 117, as well as in several verses of Revelation 19 as the cry in heaven "of a great multitude." As commonly sung, Charles Wesley's joyful text "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," has alleluias interspersed (although these alleluias were not in Wesley's original). Indeed, "alleluia" often is an expression of joy over Christ's resurrection. Other prominent hymns use this wonderful word differently, including "Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise" (no. 176) and "All Creatures of Our God and King" (no. 2). But today "Alleluia!" rings out in celebration of Jesus Christ's resurrection.
