INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SABBATH
APRIL 6, 2013

9:00 AM // PAGE 8 — 11:45 AM // PAGE 10

WELCOME!

As the flags on today's bulletin and the flags that line our campus mall all proudly declare, we are truly an international family here at Pioneer and Andrews. One hundred four nations have sent their children, as it were, to be part of us. And so it is fitting that we set aside a Sabbath each year in which we celebrate before God His call to be truly both "global" and "community." Christ's words on the eve of His ascension are unmistakable, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19). And so, as we bow before the Lord of "every nation and tribe and language and people" this Sabbath, let us with joy commit ourselves to follow Him to the ends of the earth. Welcome to Pioneer.

MY MOTHER WAS BORN IN NORTH KOREA

It's true. She was born in Pyongyang, the capital of North Korea. Only it wasn't North Korea back then—it was simply Korea. My grandparents, Ralph and Mildred Watts, were young missionaries in Korea when Mom was born, and they ended up serving seventeen years in that country. So having grown up as a missionaries' kid myself in Japan (where I was born) and having consumed Korean bibimbap (a delectable rice dish) and kimchee (marinated cabbage and chili) throughout my life, you can understand my personal interest in the unfolding saga between North and South Korea these last few weeks.

I never cease to be amazed at how quickly the geopolitical landscape of our small planet can shift. Two years ago it was the "Arab

REVIVAL & REFORMATION

JESUS' HANDS AND FEET

I am Jesus' feet!

I used to run around the hills of Nazareth, have walked past the pyramids of Egypt, and in the temple at Jerusalem. Many lame, deaf, blind, and maimed people have been brought before me to be healed. Jairus fell in front of me and asked my master to come to his house and heal his daughter. Mary sat in front of me. A Samaritan leper fell in front of me to thank my master. When my master was nailed to the cross, I was still dirty because no one had washed me—except Mary. In the tomb, Angels sat where I had been.

I am Jesus' hands!

I have swung an ax to cut down trees, and then sawed the logs into boards. I have used hammers, scrapers, planes, and chisels. I have been nicked, cut, and scraped by these tools and have had wood splinters in me. I have touched lepers and healed them. I raised a little girl back to life and then gave her something to eat. I saved Peter from drowning by grabbing his hand and pulling him out of the water. I washed the feet of my disciples and also Judas' feet, even though I knew he would betray my master. Soldiers gave a reed for me to hold and then bowed and mocked my master. After my master died, Joseph and Nicodemus came to the cross and took a nail puller and yanked the nails from me. Thomas touched me where the nails had been.

Because your feet have followed Jesus and your hands have done what Jesus did, he can admit you to the kingdom. Someday soon, your feet will walk in step with me as we walk along the River of Life with my master, and stand under the Tree of Life. Jesus' hands will pick the fruit and place it in your hands. Jesus and you will eat fruit together with juice running down your chins. And then both of you will wade in the water and rinse off your hands, faces, and feet. When asked, "Who are you?" you can say, "I am Jesus' feet—I am Jesus' hands!" —Dennis Hollingsead

Please pray:

- For travel safety for the attendees of the Women's Ministry retreats April 5-7, 12-14, 19-21

Pray for your friends and family that the Holy Spirit will guide their hands and feet to:

- Work hard without complaint
- Give others encouragement
- Stand up for those being teased or mistreated
- Invite someone home from church
- Visit the sick and those in prison

"Then the King will say to those on His right,...Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me—you did it to me."
Matt 25:31-40

OPERATING EXPENSE

GAP / SUPPORTING GOD'S KINGDOM

My experience with God's Abundant Pantry began when I was about two years old. My Dad was a pastor in Puerto Rico and after much prayer; he decided that God was calling him to go to seminary at Andrews. Moving to a new country with four kids was not easy. Now that I have two young children of my own, I can appreciate the courage that it took to make such a decision.

I still remember the apartment that we lived in during that time—Garland F-8. Being an unsponsored seminary student is difficult. Looking back, I realize that we didn't have much money, that's why I'm so grateful for GAP. Of course it didn't have that name back then. All I knew was that someone named Dr. Trickett and others gave food to students. Every week we'd line up along with others to see what new food had come in. For a family that didn't have a lot to eat, it was like Christmas.

Fast forward about 20 years later. In 2005 I came to seminary with my wife and, sure enough, we ended up staying in the Garland apartments. One day the thought came to my mind: I wonder if they still give out food to students? My wife and I walked over one afternoon and were pleasantly surprised and blessed to receive help from them again.

By being involved and helping to support GAP, you are supporting God's kingdom while on earth. 1 Corinthians 3:6-7 says, "I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase." You may not feel that you are able to preach, or give a Bible study, but by supporting GAP, you are moving God's Kingdom forward. Thank you for your gracious support. I can personally say "thank you." —Rodlie Ortiz

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

YOUTH MISSIONS / WE. NEED. TRUTH

This summer 18 young people will be traveling to Nicaragua to preach an evangelistic series across the city of Matagalpa. From July 15 to August 3 they will preach 18 sermons. I am very proud of the young people who have answered the call—If not me, who? And if not now, when? They are not willing to settle for normal—each one of these missionaries and preachers-to-be have committed a portion of their summer to expand the Kingdom of God far and near. This is not a vacation trip with some preaching thrown in. Each day they will practice and finalize their sermon for that evening before going to their assigned venue.

The good news is that their adventure doesn't end when they return from Nicaragua. In September, each young person will be presenting at a nine night evangelistic series titled "We.Need.Truth" in Benton Harbor as a joint effort with the Fairplain Adventist Church. More details about this later this summer.

These young people have stepped out in faith. They want to go but don't have all the finances. Many of you will be getting letters inviting you to help support them and this evangelistic effort. But you can help even if you don't get a letter, just mark your offering envelope "Nicaragua Trip."

We are going, and we are going now.

—Micheal Goetz

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

AA / THE CYCLE OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

One of the great pleasures of working in an SDA secondary school attached to a university is the opportunity I regularly have to mentor future teachers. For many years, I have enjoyed welcoming students in training to become English teachers themselves into my classroom both for observation and, ultimately in some cases, for student teaching. Since I consider myself particularly fortunate to have been prepared for teaching by first-rate educators like AU's Dr. Doug Jones and Andrews Academy's Mr. Tom Baker (in whose classroom I student taught more years ago than I now care to admit!), it is truly gratifying to now feel able to contribute to the cycle of Christian education.

This term, that opportunity has presented itself in the form of Mr. Nic Reichert, whom it has been my great good fortune to work with not only as he now student teaches, but formerly as my own student (I keep telling myself that this does NOT mean I'm old)! Watching Nic's energy, creativity, and enthusiasm infused into his interactions with students is gratifying; but knowing that this young teacher has deliberately chosen to dedicate those gifts to God's service fills me with overwhelming gratitude and humility. This is as powerful a testament as I know to the true impact of Christian education. Thank you, PMC community, for the role you play in fostering and supporting Adventist educators at all stages of the journey! –Rebecca Wright spring”—Tunisia, Egypt, Libya, Syria, Iran—then it was back to Libya, Iran and Syria. And in between it all has been Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iraq, and then back to Afghanistan, Pakistan and Iraq. And now the Korean peninsula is once again embroiled in the noisy nuclear saber rattling that has characterized the unsettled coexistence of these two nations since the armistice of 1953.

Somewhere I remember reading—was it the words of Jesus?—about “nation against nation” and “wars and rumors of war” being a chronic and perpetual harbinger of earth’s eventual collapse. Welcome to our third millennial world.

But on this International Student Sabbath here at Andrews University we are a campus of Christian Adventist optimists—optimistic in the midst of our world’s chronic dysfunction, simply because we have learned that upheaval and change are allies with God’s strategic mission to reach this generation. Sociologists and psychologists tell us that when a human being is experiencing sudden or radical change—be it the death of a loved one, personal illness, the loss of a job, et al—that person is significantly more open to spiritual change than usual. God is not the author of chaos and confusion—His archenemy is. But divine omnipotence being what it is (all-powerful and all-creative), Heaven seizes the dark upheaval on earth and transforms it into a glorious opportunity to transmit the everlasting good news of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Which being interpreted means that right now in earth’s history is a profound opportunity to engage in Christ’s mission to reach this planet with the good news of His soon return. Right now is a significant opening door for you and me to personally join with the Spirit of Jesus in reaching this generation for Him. In fact, right now is splendid opportunity to enlist as a full-time or part-time missionary for the Kingdom. “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature” (Mark 16:15). Jesus’ parting command to His followers clearly includes both South and North Korea. Which means it is possible that someone reading these words right now is being tapped by the Holy Spirit to prepare to enter North Korean the moment that wall comes down and the door opens. It could very well be that you are being called and, unbeknown to you, are already being prepped by the God of the universe to become a strategic player in His endgame to reach “every creature” north of the 38th parallel. (Go to www.afmonline.org to explore God’s opportunities.)

This much I know on this International Student Sabbath—Calvary’s crimson mission has been international from the beginning. Which explains this terse line a century ago: “God’s people have always been aggressive missionaries, consecrating their resources to the honor of His name, and wisely using their talents in His service” (Maranatha 123). Let’s go!

MATTHEW 28:16-20 NIV

Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

MUSIC ALIVEEAST MEETS WEST

Eastern sounds meet "western" instrument today in organ music ("Here, O Lord, Your Servants Gather," today's opening voluntary) on the hymn melody titled TOKYO. Seemingly the pipe organ is an instrument only of importance in the western world, yet it is in fact an instrument significantly represented in Japan. TOKYO is just one of many Japanese Christian melodies that bear such names as KAMITAKATA, KIYOKI FUMI, and OMIYA. Such hymns may have evocative titles as "In Lonely Mountain Ways," "O, You Fertile Soil," and "A Grain of Wheat," along with other, more Western-sounding, titles. Whether "here" is in the East or in the West, speaking Chinese or pidgin English or Japanese or Swahili, where two or three are gathered in His name, there He is.
