WELCOME!

Visitors, newcomers, and friends returning home, we welcome you on this last Sabbath before the new year begins. Today we gather to worship the God of both prescience and peace, who makes an astounding promise: "I will do a new thing" (Isaiah 43:19/44:3). Visitors, come join us after second service in the Commons for a home-cooked dinner.

GUARDIAN ANGELS IN CAIRO

The news bulletins out of Syria this week have cast a desperate pall over the already bleak Middle East. Observers on the ground in Damascus reported that the Syrian government launched a major WMD (weapons of mass destruction) attack on its own hapless citizens in the suburbs of that ancient city. Early rumors placed the nerve gas death toll at over 1300 victims. The Syrian government has denied the charges, with the insinuation that rebel forces themselves instigated a self-inflicted strike in order to arouse global sympathy for their plight. Who can say?

The political situation in Egypt is hardly much better. Muslim Brotherhood loyalists to ousted President Morsi have engaged in street battles with armed soldiers of the military coup that toppled the

CONNECT CARDS VISUALIZED

The following graphic shows the 60 most common words used in the Connect Card prayer requests since January. Your concerns and prayer requests are very much like those of every other church member. May we daily spend time with God.

"And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the Lord: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the Lord." 2 Chronicles 20:4

"Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:6, 7

OPERATING FUND

KINDERGARTEN II SS / A MISSION FIELD

One Sabbath many years ago a bored and very imaginative 9-year-old was taken by his father into that father's 5-year-old Sabbath School room. After about two Sabbaths his father gave him the responsibility of being one of the three lesson story teachers, telling the story three times as each group of children rotated through crafts, lesson story, and puppet corner. He soon began using various props to help illustrate the week's lesson. He quickly became the very popular "Teacher Troy," and at only 9 years old had a knack for both keeping the children's attention and keeping order at his table. His stories included Veggie Tale peas wrapped in Ace bandages placed there gently by The Good Samaritan cucumber, real hammers and nails for building an ark, and a construction paper flaming sword to guard the entrance of the Garden of Eden.

Nine successful years have passed and now this young man is leading the Kindergarten II main program every week; from welcoming the children and opening with the song

"Let's Talk About Jesus," to closing an hour later with the concept that we all have to MAKE A CHOICE, and then decide with the song "I Choose Jesus." As we wait for parents, we view his ever-changing Lego table, where we search for Jesus in scenes depicting our everyday activities.

Over the years many eager children have insisted their parents bring them to Sabbath School every week, and many youth have found a mission serving in a Sabbath School. It's a win/win! For this is, after all, The Mission Field. –Julie Furst

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

FLAG CAMP / BRINGING KIDS TO CHRIST

This summer has been an especially great summer for us at FLAG camp. We had a team of 22 staff members and an excellent group of volunteers. The kids enjoyed many field trips and special events at camp such as Christmas in July and Water day. Every morning we sing songs with the kids. The staff especially enjoys putting on a skit or a puppet show twice a week to illustrate God's love to the kids.

Camp is not only a blessing to kids who attend, but it also ministers to the young people who work there. The staff consists of high school and college students. For me, FLAG camp is where I really developed my personal relationship with Christ. I have learned how important it is that we put our focus on Christ. Every morning, the staff comes together to have worship before the kids arrive. Our daily pray is that our kids will see Christ through us. After four summers of working at FLAG camp I have realized that I often see Christ through the loving attitudes of our kids.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these." If you are looking for a way to serve Christ come join us at FLAG camp next summer! Let's bring our kids to Christ. —Vanna Giddings

PRAY

That FLAG Camp kids will remember the lessons they learned this summer

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

RMES / OUR FAITHFUL VOLUNTEERS

Ruth Murdoch Elementary School offers many exciting programs for our students. Mrs. Hickerson created a one-on-one reading program in her third-grade class where students and volunteers spend time reading together. We offer trips to various orchards, the Andrews dairy, Greenfield Village, Camp Au Sable, museums in Chicago, and other destinations. Andrews University's Dining Services provides the students with a phenomenal hot lunch program four days a week. We have a full library with hundreds of new titles each year, classroom teacher assistants, and more.

What do all of these things have in common? They would not be possible without our faithful volunteers!

The individuals who volunteer in our school are simply amazing! They use their talents to fill numerous roles including grading papers, serving over 600 lunches a week, managing an entire library system, creating set props for musical performances, supervising groups of students on field trips and more. Our faithful volunteers sacrifice their time and energy for the good of our teachers and students. What a great reflection of Christ's selfless character!

The Bible says, "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10 ESV).

If you would like to join the important work that is Adventist Education, contact RMES for more information on becoming a volunteer. If you know someone who volunteers at RMES, take the time to tell them that they are appreciated and needed.

democratically elected government of Egypt. The death toll is still climbing. Whatever happened to the much heralded Arab Spring of two years ago? Yemen, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Egypt—is there no resolution for this desert turmoil?

And in the cross-fire, what of the fledgling Seventh-day Adventist church with its small membership in that sea of Islam? Actually, the news is not all bad. In fact, on the front page of the August 18 edition of El Akbar, one of the main daily newspapers in Cairo, were two pictures of the Cairo Seventh-day Adventist church. The article reported that some 300 unruly demonstrators marched up the street past our Adventist church. But not a stone was thrown, not a flame ignited, as was the recent fate of other church premises. Why? The two front page photographs are of a group of bearded Muslim men, who with clasped hands, are surrounding the church, preventing it from destruction. Muslim friends who stepped forward in that crisis—as one church official noted, “It is these kinds of people that are the hope of Egypt, and we are grateful to them.”

“I will do a new thing” is the promise of the Almighty enthroned above this earth. If ever this civilization needed the intervention of its Creator and Redeemer, it couldn’t be more needy than right now, could it? All summer long we have been claiming God’s promise in Isaiah 43:19/44:3 to “do a new thing” by pouring His Spirit on His people. The recent newspaper front page in Cairo is a reminder that the friends of God are all over the earth, in every communion and every community. Which in turn must become a reminder to us here at Andrews University that the “new thing” we have been calling upon God for isn’t only for us—it is truly His promise for all. How relentless is God’s love that longs to rescue and save as many of His earth children as He can!

After all, those two newspaper photographs—the object of God’s compassion isn’t the building in the pictures, is it? The object of God’s love has to be those Muslim strangers who stepped forward to protect that little church. Guardian angels indeed. So pray on.

PRESIDING PASTOR: Don Dronen; ORGANIST: Kenneth Logan
WORSHIP IN MUSIC: Lizette Ochoa, soprano, and Ashlee Dollar, mezzo-soprano

As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him.

Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Jesus stopped and called them. “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

“Lord,” they answered, “we want our sight.”

Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

BLESSED TO BLESS

“Showers of Blessing” is a hymn text by Daniel Whittle, a Civil War major, who suffered serious war injury. Hospitalized, he began to read a New Testament. Convicted, but unwilling to surrender to God, it is said that he was awakened one night. An orderly assumed Whittle was a Christian, having seen him reading scripture. Another soldier was dying, and the orderly asked Whittle to pray for that soldier. Whittle said, “I dropped on my knees . . . [beside the soldier] and I confessed my sins and asked Christ to forgive me . . . I believed . . . that He did forgive me. I then prayed earnestly for the boy. He became quiet and pressed my hand as I prayed and pleaded God’s promises. When I arose . . . he was dead. A look of peace had come over his troubled face . . .”
