MOVE OVER, BODE

With the winter Olympic games in Sochi, Russia, nearing their grand finale, you have to admit—the herculean efforts and protracted training endured by these young athletes of the world is astounding. And it's not like they were suddenly impressed or inspired a year ago to take a shot at the Olympics. These athletes have been locked onto this Olympic dream for years. And even longer than that as fellow Michiganders Meryl Davis and Charlie White have shown us. They were just kids (eight and nine years old) 17 years ago when they began skating together. Their mothers thought it was cute. But nobody fathomed that it was the beginning of 17 years of ceaseless practicing, competing, practicing, competing—all for the sake of their pubescent dream to win an Olympic gold—a long seventeen-year dream that came true this week

WAR GAME? IT’S NOT A GAME!

What is a war game? Here are two definitions as found from www.thefreedictionary.com/war+game.

1. An often physical or electronic simulation of a military operation involving two or more forces and using rules, data, and procedures designed to depict an actual or assumed situation.

2. A simulation of a proposed plan of action or a strategy, intended to test its validity when challenged.

In a war game, military strategists use geographic maps and models of the battle terrain to plan their battles. During the battle, representations of troops, armaments, tanks, naval ships, aircraft, and support vehicles are moved as the battle progresses. Can we imagine such a model in heaven? What would it look like? What might it represent?

Since the battle is about God—His character, His love, and how He operates His universe—might the model be His sanctuary? I have imagined a huge stadium-like structure with a trillion-angel seating capacity (probably still too small), and in the middle are representations or little figures of each person on this earth. Billions of these little figures are placed outside the perimeter of the sanctuary. As a person here on earth accepts the sacrifice of Christ, their figure in heaven is moved to the Altar of Sacrifice. When they are baptized, the figure is moved to the Laver. The figure is then moved into the Holy Place where every day the new Christian is praying, studying God’s Word, and witnessing. This would also include those who have no access to, or concept of Jesus and His sacrifice, but treats others with love as he or she wants to be treated (Romans 2:12-16).

I sometimes wonder if, when a Christian slides back into old habits and is not praying, studying, or witnessing, whether their representative figure is moved back out to the courtyard area? They have accepted Christ and been baptized, those facts remain. But the daily spiritual battle continues and God is watching all the “troop” movements and adjusting His strategy accordingly, to bring that person back into His Holy Place where relationship is built: communicating (praying), reading His letters to us, and sharing with others the things he or she has learned and experienced!

The next “troop” movement is to bring the figures into the Most Holy Place, right next to God Himself and into harmony with the foundation of His government—LOVE.

—Dennis Hollingsead

“Thus says the Lord to you: ‘Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God’s.’”

GOD'S ABUNDANT PANTRY

GAP / GOD'S ABUNDANT PANTRY 2013 REPORT

God's Abundant Pantry (GAP) is supported through the generous gifts of people like you—people who are impressed to help international and USA graduate student families by funding a supplemental food bank. The GAP distribution center is located on International Drive. Students are served every Tuesday and Thursday from 5 to 6 PM.

Following are some statistics that reveal how valuable your support is to those blessed by this PMC-sponsored ministry. The average number of family units served each Tuesday and Thursday is 86:

- 3.77 pounds of fresh vegetables and fruit valued at $.79 a pound = $2.98
- 11.98 pounds of staple foods valued at $2.17 a pound = $25.99
- Total value of food provided each family unit each visit = $28.97

Each dollar you donated to GAP for the purchase of food was matched 25.77 times through donations from the Harvest America regional food bank plus local growers, gardeners, and businesses. This means your $50 donation was multiplied to equal $1,289 in the value of the supplemental food provided Andrews graduate student families.

The need is growing as the number of student families seeking this supplemental food increases. You may donate online at pmchurch.org or write GAP on your tithe envelope.

Here is a note from an Andrews student family of five:

"Despite the financial challenges we have faced so far in our experience at Andrews, somehow we have been blessed with more than enough food to meet our family's needs—our deep freeze is filled to the brim with frozen vegetables. Our refrigerator is always jam-packed with bread and fresh veggies and our cabinets are filled with an abundance of canned and dry food! A great portion of this food we have been blessed with has been provided us by God's Abundant Pantry."

MASTER PLAN OF EVANGELISM

YOUTH EVANGELISM / FALLING IN LOVE WITH GOD

Having a baby is like falling in love again! Three weeks ago I fell in love again. I love looking at her . . . it really doesn't matter if she is sleeping, quietly gazing into never-never land, or engaged in a full-throttle cry—mouth stretched open and every ounce of her being focused on the heart-breaking wail. It doesn't matter—I love looking at her. Her birth has drawn out my heart in a way all other births haven't. Her birth brought her to be officially mine. Her birth was a declaration of her being my child.

This last week a group of young people began a baptismal class (there is still room—young people ages 8-13 are invited). Baptism is rebirth . . . an official declaration of one joining the family of God. But, wait. I wonder if God experiences falling in love every baptism. Actually, I don't wonder . . . I know He does.

Baptism is not just a formality in church—a rite of passage for our young people (or old people as the case may be). It is the experience of a person falling in love and Jesus falling in love and the church falling in love . . . with their new family.

Really, the baptismal class that is going on right now, the Sabbath Schools, and even FLAG camp in the summer, are all about setting young people and God up for falling in love.

AA / WINTER BIBLE CAMP

Young people at Andrews Academy look forward to Winter Bible Camp, an annual spiritual retreat held at Camp Au Sable. This year 66 excited teens took advantage of the wonderful opportunity to recharge their spiritual lives and learn how to be positive leaders.

Friday afternoon was filled with activity as students prepared for a memorable Friday night communion service. The ladies prepared a hearty soup for an outdoor picnic and made communion bread. The young men ventured to the other side of the lake to prepare the site for this special event. As the Sabbath hours began, Pastor Glassford told the story of forty martyrs, a story of Christian commitment. Footwashing was done in the snow as students sat on wood and snow benches prepared earlier in the afternoon. Then they surrounded a roaring campfire to break bread and drink the grape juice that symbolized Christ's body and blood.

On Saturday evening our group hiked to Chapel in the Woods at Hartwick Pines State Park. The wooden structure provided beautiful acoustics as we spontaneously sang hymns for more than an hour. I was standing near the door and noticed cross-country skiers stopping to enjoy the music. They commented on how beautiful it sounded. Parents, your hearts would have been blessed if you could have witnessed the scene.

Between the spiritual activities of this busy weekend there was time to enjoy the abundant and beautiful snow. Almost everyone tried out the sledding hill and many took snowmobile rides. Students (and sponsors) came back to AA changed . . . having a deeper relationship with Jesus and with each other. We thank the team of teachers that planned this weekend.

with their celebrated gold medal for pair figure skating (the first in U.S. Olympic history). Wow!

I'm not suggesting we all drop our what-feels-so-mundane-in-comparison living and embrace the Olympic dream (do they have an Olympics for "old" people?). But if these young athletes are willing to endure the relentless rigors of prolonged and protracted training and pain and practice and retraining and more pain and falling and failing, over and over again for years, what are you and I willing to endure for the sake of Christ's calling?

One of the Olympian greats of sacred history actually referenced the Olympic games to make a point I hope we don't soon forget: "Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown [gold medal] that will not last; but we do it to get a crown that will last forever. Therefore I do not run like a someone running aimlessly; I do not fight like a boxer beating the air. No, I strike a blow to my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize" (1 Corinthians 9:24-27 NIV). Like an Olympic athlete, Paul envisioned himself under intense unrelenting spiritual training, with one unshakeable dream—to win the gold. "Run [run, run] in such a way as to get the prize" (v 24).

A rather testosteroned call for our generation, wouldn't you say? But why not? If the Sochi athletes have poured their lives out for the sake of standing on the Olympic podium, shouldn't we who are known followers of Jesus be willing to sacrifice what we have—our time, our energy, our resources, our reputation, our careers even—for the sake of standing tall on the podium for Christ? What is it Jesus is calling you to do for Him with your life or what is left of it? Of course being a disciple of His is costly. But wanting it cheap is like a couch potato dreaming of gold. The gold will cost you everything. It did for Jesus on the cross. And it will for you and me if our sights are higher than Sochi.

CALL TO WORSHIP

A voice cries: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be lifted up and every mountain and hill made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken."

The Lord's name be praised!

THE WORD

DEUTERONOMY 32:2-3, 9-11 NIV

Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew, like showers on new grass, like abundant rain on tender plants.

I will proclaim the name of the Lord. Oh, praise the greatness of our God!

For the Lord's portion is his people, Jacob his allotted inheritance.

In a desert land he found him, in a barren and howling waste.

He shielded him and cared for him; he guarded him as the apple of his eye, like an eagle that stirs up its nest and hovers over its young, that spreads its wings to catch them and carries them aloft.

MUSIC ALIVE

"OUR"

What a word of power "our" is in hymns of Christian faith! Yes, many hymns are meaningfully in the first person singular, using "I," "my," "mine." Those occupy an important place as hymns of devotion. But what is the profound message of a hymn like "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" (hymn no. 103), having four occurrences of "our" in its first stanza alone! In fact, an alternate version has even the first word as "Our": "Our God, Our Help in Ages Past!" Whether four or five, the "ours" communicate subtly, yet importantly, a message of community. For God not just to be one's own help, but "our" help, should be a profound encouragement in "our" church life.

Smoothies require some prep work, like chopping mangoes, pineapples, or peaches. Try using frozen fruit instead—check out your store's frozen fruit section or prepare and freeze your own fruit!

CHALLENGE

This week's challenge is to Tweet your favorite smoothie recipe to #pmcsmoothie and then find some new recipes you would like to try!
