WHY WHAT IS HAPPENING A BILLION
LIGHT YEARS AWAY
RIGHT NOW MATTERS
TO YOU

WELCOME BACK!

We want to extend a very special welcome back to all of our students. Can you believe that the summer is gone already? Some went to work at summer camps. Some went home to their families or other jobs. To those—welcome back!

But maybe you're here for the first time today. Through a handshake, hug, or a smile, we hope you'll feel welcomed. So from our family to yours—whether you're here for the first time, or are back after a long summer—we're glad you're here. We hope you'll experience God's love in a special way today. —Rodlie Ortiz

THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR

This week, students, both new and old, moved into the dorms. As they begin the school year, we at PMC look forward to doing our part to help them on this journey (Photo by Darren Heslop, IMC staff photographer).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PAY IT FORWARD!

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

In the midst of all the bad news headlines at summer's end, here's a feel-good story from St. Petersburg, Florida. At 7 a.m. last Wednesday a woman drove up to the Starbuck's window and was prepared to place her order. And then on a whim, she told the cashier, "Make that two orders—I want to pay for the driver behind me." She had no idea who that driver was. On the spur of the moment she simply decided to pay for both beverages, hers and the stranger's.

So when the driver behind her drove up to the window, the cashier announced: "The driver ahead of you just paid for your order." Oh really? "Well then, let me pay for the driver behind me." And so it went all morning. And all afternoon. And into the evening.

Three hundred and seventy-eight drivers had their beverages paid for by the anonymous driver ahead of them. All because a stranger, who at 7 that morning practiced a quiet, no-fanfare act of random kindness.

As it turned out, the 379th driver drove up to the window to order her beverage and was informed that it had already been paid for, "and would you like to pay it forward for the next customer." "No," she replied, "I only want to pay for my own drink" (which, of course, had already been paid for). Maybe she just didn't get it. No matter, the chain of kindness was quietly broken.

That last driver reminds me a lot of me—poor chain-breaker me. Two thousand years ago the Man on the middle cross paid it forward (and backward) for the entire human race. But when I drive to Calvary's window, I have the temerity to announce I want to pay for it myself. It's not about ingratitude. It's about being in control. And so if you don't mind, I'll pay for my own drink. Poor chain-breaker me.

Andrews University's theme text for this new school year declares: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind"—the words of Jesus on the banner over the circle outside (Matthew 22:37). After all He has paid it forward for every one of us. We owe Someone (besides this university) big time! James Denny was right: "I do not hesitate to say that the sense of debt to Christ is the most profound and pervasive of all emotions in the New Testament" (Death of Christ 158).

So how shall we respond? Jesus answers: "And you shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Matthew 22: 39). Because you don’t pay back God’s love—you pay it forward. “For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen” (1 John 4:20 NIV).

Pay it forward. Love your neighbor. With random acts of thoughtful kindness. You’ll not only be the most popular person on campus. You’ll be the one

God uses to start a brand new chain that may eventually stretch around the world. From here. From you. For Him. 379 and counting. ■

GOD

“Follow God’s example, therefore, as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.”
(Ephesians 5:1-2)

BY JUNE PRICE

Welcome back to Andrews University. Since you last sat in the pews of PMC where have you walked? What soil have you found under your feet? Some of you have trekked the rugged terrain of Iceland, or walked the dusty streets of Jordan. Some have strolled the cobblestone streets of Italy and France and still others have stepped where the lions themselves have trod in Tanzania.

IN THIS NEW SCHOOL YEAR, BE FOREVER CERTAIN THAT GOD WANTS TO WALK WITH YOU AND THROUGH YOU.

Where and how you walk makes a difference. Enoch walked with God right off the face of the earth (Genesis 5:24). Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego walked in the flames of the furnace with the Son of God and not a single hair on their heads was singed (Daniel 3:25). Cleopas and another believer walked along the road to Emmaus with the Risen Lord and their hearts burned within them (Luke 24:13-32).

Consider how you want to walk in this new year as you traverse the sidewalks and corridors from Smith Hall to Chan Shun or from Buller to Bell Hall. Will the sum total of your steps equal only a great distance or will the way you walk better the place around you? Will you, in the steps you take, seek to serve others or will you only serve yourself? There was a Man who once walked this earth like none before have ever walked and like none after Him ever will. The sum total of His walk was salvation for every soul and in Ephesians 5:1-2 we are given this challenge: “Follow God’s example, therefore, as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us...”

In this new school year, be forever certain that God wants to walk with you and through you. As He walks with you, your life and the lives of those around you will be transformed. At the beginning of Scripture we find God seeking to walk with Adam and Eve in the Garden (Genesis 3:8) and at its conclusion we see the Son of God walking among the churches (Revelation 2:1). He has been actively seeking to walk with you from the beginning to the end. Please consider walking with Him! ■

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe.

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word.

After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

The powerful prayer of Jesus known today as “The Lord’s Prayer” is the topic of many musical versions. But how does Felix Mendelssohn’s striding organ setting “Our Father in Heaven” relate to the well-known text? It uses and develops a sturdy German hymn (“chorale”) melody for the words “Vater Unser im Himmelreich” (literally, “Our Father in the Heavenly Kingdom”) by reformer Martin Luther (1539). But as we listen to Mendelssohn’s stirring setting, we may reflect on Martin Luther’s continuation, in Catherine Winkworth’s English rendering: “Our Father, Thou in heaven above, Who biddest us to dwell in love, As brethren of one family, And cry for all we need to Thee; Teach us to mean the words we say, And from the inmost heart to pray.” ■

IS JESUS ALLOWED AT YOUR SCHOOL?

BY WILLYTA RUIZ-WAMACK

Have you chosen a school where your children's teachers are allowed to talk about Jesus or are prohibited from talking about Him?

At Ruth Murdoch Elementary School, Jesus Christ is welcomed every day. Our teachers meet every morning to pray for each other and to ask God for guidance as they lead our children to the feet of Jesus.

RMES teachers include Bible principles in all of the subjects. Even getting a locker in Junior High included a reminder of Jesus' Sermon on the Mountain. Phil Giddings, Jr. High teacher, surprised them on the first day of school by leaving a healthy treat and a message inside of each student's locker that said: "Welcome to the Junior High. We hope you are hungry for learning and hungry for Jesus. 'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled'" (Matthew 5:6).

God's highest purpose for Christian parents is to pass on their faith to their children. He reminds us of this in Deuteronomy 11:18, 19 (NIV). "Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up."

Thanks for your continued support. ■
