THAT THEY MAY BE MORE THAN ONE?

A CHURCH UNITED

As we gather to partake in communion this Sabbath, it is a time to reflect on the incredible gift God has given us—redemption!

It is easy to come to church every Sabbath and worship God by singing songs, reading responsively, and listening to the message. But this is a special Sabbath in which the church body actively comes together by washing each other's feet and partaking of the emblems of Christ's flesh and blood. It is a time to come together as a church united to serve one another and remember how important we are to God:

"But God has shown us how much he loves us—it was while we were still sinners that Christ died for us! By his blood we are now put right with God; how much more, then, will we be saved by him from God's anger" (Romans 5:8, 9).

So today, spend extra time to remember God's plan of salvation, His grace, and His love. —Brenton Offenback

PRAYING FOR AMERICA

BY DWIGHT K. NELSON

My heart is burdened for my homeland today. With the rest of the nation we await the Supreme Court decision on gay marriages—do gays and lesbians have a constitutional right to marry and can state bans against same-sex marriage remain in place? Thus far 37 states in our nation have legal provision for same sex marriage, with the other 13 states banning gay marriage (although in 8 of these states [including Michigan] gay marriage bans have been overturned and appeals are in process). What will the Supreme Court decide? While most prognosticators are predicting that the Court will rule in favor of same sex marriage, past reality is that the nine justices have shown the capacity to surprise the nation.

And so we as Adventists, as American Christians, intercede before God on behalf of our homeland. Does the course of this nation matter to God? Someone gave me a recent book by the Messianic rabbi Jonathan Cahn, The Harbinger, in which he builds a startling case (through a fascinating narrative), claiming Isaiah 9:10 predicts God's judgment on this nation. And while I don't subscribe to his premise that America today (like Israel of old) is God's chosen nation and thus the inheritor of the ancient divine promises for Israel, I do concur with the thoughtful notion that America is morally accountable as a recipient of Heaven's unprecedented blessing. Jesus declared, "Much is required from those to whom much is given, and much more is required from those to whom much more is given" (Luke 12:48 NLT). Ellen White herself once observed, "The Lord has done more for the United States than for any other country upon which the sun shines" (Maranatha 193). In God's judgment much will be required of this nation abundantly blessed—that is clear enough.

And while we are not a constitutionally-defined Christian nation, I came across this observation while reading the Great Controversy on this day of special prayer for our nation and the Supreme Court. In the chapter, "The Pilgrim Fathers," our early history reveals: "The Bible was held as the foundation of faith, the source of wisdom, and the charter of liberty. Its principles were diligently taught in the home, in the school, and in the church, and its fruits were manifest in thrift, intelligence, purity, and temperance. . . . It was demonstrated that the principles of the Bible are the surest safeguards of national greatness. The feeble and isolated colonies grew to a confederation of powerful states, and the world marked with wonder the peace and prosperity of ‘a church without a pope, and a state without a king’” (296 emphasis supplied). The point isn’t that America must be declared a Christian nation—too many well-meaning but mistaken evangelicals have resorted to that sort of revisionist history. But Ellen White is clear that the principles of the Bible—its foundational ethics and morality—were the catalyst for “national greatness.”

But I fear that those Bible principles are now being abandoned across this nation. Yes, we must continue to stand for the constitutional principle of minority protection and thus defend the personal rights of the LGBT community to enjoy every constitutional provision possible. But does that require our faith community to reject the biblical definition of marriage as a covenant between a man and a woman?

On October 17, 2012, the Executive Committee of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists voted the document, “Same Sex Unions,” that included this statement: “We reaffirm, without hesitation, our long-standing position as expressed in the Church’s Fundamental Beliefs: ‘Marriage was divinely established in Eden and affirmed by Jesus to be a lifelong union between a man and a woman in loving companionship.’ Though ‘sin has perverted God’s ideals for marriage and family,’ ‘the family tie is the closest, the most tender and sacred of any human relationship,’ and thus ‘families need to experience renewal and reformation in their relationships’ (An Affirmation of Family, 1990). God instituted ‘marriage, a covenant-based union of two genders [male and female] physically, emotionally, and spiritually, spoken of in Scripture as “one flesh.”’ ‘The monogamous union in marriage of a man and a woman is . . . the only morally appropriate locus of genital or related intimate sexual expression.’ ‘Any lowering of this high view is to that extent a lowering of the heavenly ideal’ (An Affirmation of Marriage, 1996).”

Interestingly enough, yesterday in Columbus, Ohio, the Southern Baptist Convention voted: “What the Bible says about marriage is clear, definitive and unchanging. We affirm biblical, traditional, natural marriage as the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. The Scriptures’ teaching on marriage is not negotiable. We stake our lives upon the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus. Consequently, we will not accept, nor adhere to, any legal redefinition of marriage issued by any political or judicial body including the United States Supreme Court. We will not recognize same-sex ‘marriages’, our churches will not host same-sex ceremonies, and we will not perform such ceremonies. . . . We also believe religious freedom is at stake within this critical issue – that our first duty is to love and obey God, not man.” (<http://www.ajc.com/news/news/local/southern-baptists-statement-opposing-gay-marriage/nmflH/>).

Neither statement abandons the church’s commitment to be a loving, healing community for all, irrespective of sexual orientation. But both statements clearly define the church’s stand on the biblical foundation and precedent for marriage. As we await the decision of the nation’s highest court, let us all “watch and pray.” For hasn’t God promised: “If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land” (2 Chronicles 7:14)? ■

from a summer student's perspective

BY RYAN JARVIS

I am one of the few, the few who stick around long after the school year has ended. It is summertime at Andrews. With barely any students around, many would agree there is a feeling of emptiness and loneliness. However, I have realized that this does not have to be the case. Take the opportunity to grow while having fun. Summertime at Andrews can be a beautiful thing!

① GROW PHYSICALLY!

For those who like to scrimmage, open gym takes place Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday at 7 PM at the Johnson Gym. For those who like to swim, open swim is on Sundays from 11:30 AM to 5:00 PM and Mondays to Thursdays from 5:00 to 7:00 PM. For those who want to just work out, the various gyms on campus remain open for students and community members. It's never too late to start working on your summer body.

② GROW SPIRITUALLY!

Campus Ministries has started something new this summer—UV: Summer Edition. Join other fellow summer students every Friday night at 8:00 PM. The small amount of students makes the event more personal and intimate. UV: Summer Edition usually takes place in the Youth Chapel at PMC, however, we like to mix things up from time to time. So, come mingle with those who want to get to know Jesus better this summer.

③ GROW SOCIALLY!

There are community service opportunities, such as the "Summer Blood Drive" that will occur on June 29 from 12:00 to 5:45 PM at PMC. Take the opportunity this summer to give back, donate blood, and save a life!

④ GROW MENTALLY & EMOTIONALLY!

There is a side to Berrien Springs that can only be seen when you stay here during the summer: the warm weather, the beautiful flowers, the trails and the creek. Most people only have the opportunity to see these places during winter weather and with a little luck, you'll have the opportunity to see it during the spring. However, all these places are completely transformed during the summer. Take the opportunity to enjoy it by taking a walk around campus! Take a moment to walk around and clear your head. Enjoy what many others do not have the opportunity to.

For whatever reason you are here at Andrews University during the summer, make the best of it! Look around, if you look close enough, you'll find something unique and inspiring to do, even during the summer. ■

Ryan Jarvis is stuck in Berrien Springs because of Physics class.

HEALTH AWARENESS

BY CHRISTINE WALLACE

In 1960, less than 15% of the American population was obese. As of 2014, that rate has ballooned to 34.9%, according to the Centers for Disease and Control Prevention (CDC). Obesity is defined as having a Body Mass Index (BMI) of 30 or higher. What is BMI? Our BMI is determined by our height and weight, and for most people, is indicative of body fat percentage. How do you calculate your BMI?

1. Metric:	$\text{BMI} = \frac{\text{weight (kg)}}{(\text{height (m)})^2}$
2. English:	$\text{BMI} = \frac{\text{weight (lb)}}{(\text{height (in)})^2} \times 703$

Youth Fair Health Tent. Is it possible to promote health at a fair that sells thousands of hot dogs, soda drinks, cotton candy, and other sugary and artery-damaging foods? Yes, indeed! In fact, in 2011, this tent hosted 7,000 participants and 200 volunteers. From fitness challenges to children's activities, this tent was one of the most popular exhibits. This year, we want the tent to be even better! The Michigan Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists and its District 9 churches have pooled their funds to promote better health in our community in a practical way at this week-long event. Do not miss out on the opportunity to help this community gain better access to health, primarily through our SDA health message. This year, the health tent is fitness-focused. So, bring your running shoes, t-shirt, and water bottle, and plan on participating or volunteering with us!

If you are interested in being a part of the 2015 Berrien County Health Tent please contact Ryan and Christine Wallace: ryanandchristine@gmail.com.

How can we, as a church community, help combat this growing epidemic? Here is one way: The 2015 Berrien County

THE CLEANSING

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them. -John 13:12-17 NIV

For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. -1 Corinthians 11:23-26 NIV

MUSIC ALIVE

CHRISTMAS...ON SUMMER'S EDGE?

We are nearly as far in time from Christmas as it is possible to be in any given year: June 20 compared with December 25. Yet today's Hymn of Praise, "Worthy, Worthy Is the Lamb" (No. 246) has striking connections both with communion and with the Christmas season through Handel's beloved Christmas favorite, his oratorio Messiah. This is so because the spirit of the music seems highly compatible with the style of simpler portions of Messiah. Also, two of the most widely-known choruses of Messiah are "Worthy, Worthy Is the Lamb" and "Hallelujah." These phrases receive repeated settings in this hymn, as they do in Handel's masterwork. And is it not appropriate to celebrate Christmas on next-to-last Sabbath of June? Is not the communion service about rebirth and fresh hope, also central to Christmas? ■

Grow Michigan Evangelism Offering

Many of you are taking part in Grow Michigan by:

- Preparing hearts through relationships
- Planting seeds with the Glow Challenge
- Cultivating spiritual interests by being part of the Bible Study Reformation
- Harvesting souls through evangelistic outreach and the coming Unlocking Revelation
- Mentoring new members with the new Discipleship Handbook

Michigan Conference Churches, along with other Conferences in the Lake Union, are planning approximately 300 sites for Unlocking Revelation in 2016! This is fantastic and we are anticipating the outpouring of God's Spirit! To accomplish this we need to raise an additional $200,000 beyond what we normally spend for evangelism in a year. Ask the Lord what you could do to support Grow Michigan and Unlocking Revelation. Mark your tithe envelope Grow Michigan Evangelism and may the Lord give you great results as you personally participate in Grow Michigan!

Celebrating the Lives and Service of Elder & Mrs. Eric B. Hare

A few of us remember reading or hearing recorded mission stories told by Eric B. Hare, a pioneer in the Adventist work among the Karen people of Burma. This year Karen Adventists in North America are celebrating the 100th anniversary of the arrival of Eric B. Hare and his young bride as missionaries to Burma. This celebration will take place on the campus of Andrews University, July 24-26. Three generations of Hares will be present. Several of the meetings will be of special interest to members of the local community who may not know of the Karen. More than 500 Karen immigrants and refugees from different parts of the US are coming. However, many of the Karen are making a great sacrifice to make the trip here, and some will have difficulty being able to pay for a place to stay. If you are willing to help them with lodging in one of the following ways:

- Space in your home (indicate how many refugees).
- Loaning tent(s) and sleeping bag(s).
- Space on your property where tent(s) can be pitched.
- Loan an RV or motor home.

Contact Judy Aitken (269.240.7997), Trudi Starlin (269.449.1175), or e-mail office@asapministries.org (put "Karen Centennial Housing" in the subject line) as soon as possible. Also, If you want to make a tax-deductible donation toward the expenses of the reunion, checks should be made payable to: ASAP Ministries (write "Karen Centennial Reunion" in the memo line) and mailed to ASAP Ministries, PO Box 84, Berrien Springs MI 49103, OR you may go online at www.asapministries.org.

BAGS OF LOVE

BY KRYZIA ABACAN

Bags of Love is an initiative that Neighbor to Neighbor provides for foster children who have been removed from a difficult situation and placed into foster care in hopes of a better situation.

BAGS OF LOVE IS JUST ONE OF THE MANY PROJECTS THAT THE NEIGHBOR TO NEIGHBOR MINISTRY KEEPS UP ON A REGULAR BASIS.

On May 14, Neighbor to Neighbor volunteers gathered together to create personalized bags full of items that many may take for granted. They created bags for more than 30 children. Items included a towel, a toothbrush and toothpaste, shampoo and conditioner, lotion, bath soap, a washcloth, deodorant, a pillow and blanket, a book, crayons and a coloring book, and a toy. Volunteers walked through three rows of tables, ensuring that one of each item was placed in the bag.

Bags of Love is just one of the many projects that the Neighbor to Neighbor ministry keeps up on a regular basis. The ministry hopes to continue to meet the ongoing needs of their neighbors, ministering to all who come through their doors and providing resources for families in crisis.

With an increasing need of space and services, Neighbor to Neighbor is currently in the process of raising support in their plans of expansion. They hope to expand their facilities to create more space for the services they provide, as well as the thrift shop that they maintain.

Neighbor to Neighbor sincerely appreciates your prayers and support as they continue to do God's work in this community. ■
