Grief and Loss Colloquium

SEPT 22 • 9:00 AM

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY S340

In this time of earth's history, losses of all types are inevitable. We will not only face "normal" death events of loved ones and church members, but traumatic events with large-scale death. This resulting trauma must be anticipated. Preparation to be of help to others even while grieving ourselves will become essential. Now is the time to become prepared to use a set of skills that will be helpful and reflect the process that Jesus used when He was on earth.

Thank You!

Thank you so very much to the PMC family for the beautiful plant provided at the Memorial Service of my husband. Thank you also to the Hospitality team for the wonderful reception they generously provided after the service. The outpouring of love from the Church family was very appreciated by our family! –Shirley Moyer and family

Youth Missions Trip—Honduras

SEPT 29 • 11:00 AM

BULLER HALL, RM 108,

ANDREWS UNIVERSITY

Join the PMC Youth Missions team going to Honduras from December 12-23 to volunteer at the Hogar de Ninos (children's home) operated by REACH International. The team will be conducting a day camp for about 125 children so energetic, creative team members are needed. Volunteers will need to cover their own costs including airfare. If you love children and want to make a positive difference in their lives, contact Glenn Russell (glenn@andrews.edu). For more information come to the orientation meeting.
