Care for Cuba Instrument Drive

We are collecting instruments in good condition to support our school of music in Cuba. Your donation can help transform lives through music and the message of Jesus. Please bring the instruments to church or the seminary. For details, contact: Fernando Ortiz at ortizl@andrews.edu.

DivorceCare Group

DivorceCare provides a safe and supportive environment for individuals navigating the trauma and heartbreak of separation or divorce. Our new Grow Group begins on 6/3/26 and meets from 6:00 to 8:00 PM in the Pioneer Board Room. To register, visit www.divorcecare.org or find us under Pioneer Family Life in the Grow Groups section of the church website. Join us to process, heal, and find hope for the future.

Widows & Widowers Picnic

JUNE 7 • 1:00 PM

Widows and widowers are invited to a potluck at Rangeline Park, 10138 Rangeline Rd, Pavilion 2, in Berrien Springs. Please bring your favorite dish and suitable clothing for a boat ride afterwards. We look forward to seeing you!

Music Camp

JULY 5-10 • 9:00 AM-3:00 PM

IYMC Music Camp 2026 is set to take place at Pioneer Memorial SDA Church. This exciting week-long camp offers young musicians an opportunity to grow, learn, and perform in a supportive environment. General registration will run until May 31. Late registration will be open from June 1 to June 21 and will include a 20% late fee. Don't miss this opportunity to be part of a dynamic musical experience this summer. Register at iymcsda.org/michigan

Andrews Academy 8th Grade Grad Brunch

MAY 31 • 10:30 AM

All eighth-grade graduates are invited to Grad Brunch. Learn about Andrews Academy, start choosing classes, and get help with your application if needed. Many have already begun applying. Once you apply, you can work on your class schedule at the brunch. For details, contact aaadmissions@andrews.edu or 269.471.3138.

Retirement

MAY 31 • 1:00 PM

Please join us in celebrating the retirement of Barry Wilson after 35 remarkable years of service with the fire department, including his dedicated tenure as liaison to Andrews University. A retirement party will be held in his honor on May 31 at the Berrien Springs Oronoko Fire Dept.
